GROCCERS TO VIEW DEL MONTE FILM AT HOTEL TONIGHT Groccers who are personally unable to visit the great fruit and vegetable growing sections of the country will be given a special opportunity this evening to view many of the scenic and agricultural wonders of those regions through the medium of an unusual new six-reel sound and color industrial film, recently completed by the packers of Del Monte products. Entitled "Out of the Spirit of '49," the new film opens with a dramatic prologue, picturing historical episodes from early Spanish days in California and the Gold Rush of '49. Following this, the film shows in full color many scenes of modern agricultural California. It then shows in detail the processes of growing, selecting, processing and packing many important fruit and vegetable products, as well as dried fruits.
