Cagney On Craterian Screen

James Cagney, in the role of hard-hitting job whose special purpose in joining the navy was to have a chance to get back at Pat O'Brien, chief petty officer, who not only stole his girl but handed him a nice sock on the whiskers while doing so, is at the Craterian theater for three days starting today in "Here Comes the Navy."

As a special added attraction for all shows—both matinee and evening—the Craterian will have "Pinto" Colvig, a local boy who has made good with the Walt Disney studios, on the stage in person to tell and demonstrate in his own inimitable manner how Mickey Mouse cartoons and Silly Symphonies are made.

Frank Leaves—M. M. Frank, traveling commercial agent for the Railway Express Agency, left this morning by train for Ashland, after having been in Medford for the past four days on official business. He reports that the express business has shown a substantial increase this year of 20 per cent over that of last year. Medford is the highest spot in the division, Mr. Frank said.

Cyclist Injured—Raymond Miller, 20, 315 Ashland avenue, suffered a flesh wound on the thigh in an accident Tuesday night on the Pacific highway one and one-half miles south of Medford, city police reports show, when he was struck by an auto while riding a bicycle. Bernhard Benz, 38, of Portland, driver of the auto, reported the accident to city police yesterday, and stated that he was passing another car and did not see Miller and another cyclist, hitting the first a glancing blow.

Hammond from G. Pass—Ward Hammond, district manager of the California Oregon Power company, was a local business visitor from Grants Pass yesterday. Mr. Hammond reported great interest being shown in the Josephine county fair and invited all Jackson county residents to attend. The 1934 fair opens at Grants Pass Thursday, Aug. 30 and will continue 3 days with a big program of horse-racing and other sports.

"The Line-Up" Is Exciting Picture

A tense and exciting screen drama of love and the law opened this afternoon at the Roxy theater under the title, "The Line-Up." This film is not the regular run-of-the-mill gangster underworld story but rather concerns itself with the growth of racketeering as a gigantic and powerful social parasite.

Featuring Marlon Nixon and William Gargan in the two main leads, the picture, briefly, tells the story of the fur-an-snatching racket.
