

GOVERNOR URGES COMPLIANCE WITH SAFETY PROGRAM

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 31.—(AP)—Governor Julius L. Meier issued a statement today, pleading for the full support of the citizens of Oregon to the nation-wide safety program which was to be observed during the month of September.

The governor listed the fact that during 1933 and until July 31, 1934, there had been 412 deaths, 6,033 injuries and $15,000,000 loss of money in the state of Oregon, due to automobile accidents, representing an average of one death for each 2,427 families and one injury for each 143 families and an average cost in money to each family of $75.

Continuing in his statement, the governor said: "When the above loss is considered, in addition to the suffering of the injured and the grief of those who lost relatives and other loved ones, I feel confident that every citizen will co-operate with me in a special effort during the month of September to reduce this enormous toll by using the utmost caution while driving, riding or walking on our streets and highways and by influencing others in using precaution."

"Automobile accidents are not respecters of persons or families, and you and yours may be the next where death or injury may strike."

Continuing in his statement, the governor said: "When the above loss is considered, in addition to the suffering of the injured and the grief of those who lost relatives and other loved ones, I feel confident that every citizen will co-operate with me in a special effort during the month of September to reduce this enormous toll by using the utmost caution while driving, riding or walking on our streets and highways and by influencing others in using precaution."

THOMSON TRAVELS FAR TO DEFEAT EX-MASTER IN SANTA MONICA OPEN

SANTA MONICA, Cal.—(UP) When Jimmy Thomson of Long Beach won the midsummer Santa Monica open golf tournament here he defeated among others, Willie Hunter, the man he caddied for in the British amateur championship back in 1921.

The story was revealed by the fathers of the two players, Jimmy Thomson, Sr., and Harry Hunter, two famous pros from the British Isles, who gathered during the tournament.

The elder Thomson was professional at Hoylelake the year the amateur championship was held there. A shortage of caddies developed, so he took his 13-year-old son out of school to pack clubs for a young amateur to deal with.

Jimmy, Jr., knew the Hoylelake course forward and backward. He knew it so well that he brought Willie Hunter home a victor in the tournament.

Nazis Not Ordered to Shun Jews Says Deputy Of Hitler

BERLIN, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Rudolf Hess, minister without portfolio and Hitler's deputy in the Nazi party, said today he was mystified by the persistence of reports that he was issuing or about to issue a five-point order forbidding Nazis to fraternize or even speak to Jews.

"There has been no such order," he said. "There is no such order; there will be no such order—in fact I haven't yet even thought of such an order."

SHREDDED WHEAT

Miss Ruth Mayland of Chicago holds the more or less sacred right of blooming cereals in her hands and explains the charm of this flower that blooms but for one hour, one night, each year. For the roots of the cereus sometimes weigh as much as 25 pounds and are supposed by some native Mexicans to be a panacea for all pulmonary ailments when made into medicine. Its blooming is the occasion of a "fiesta," and one was held in the streets of the Mexican Village at the new World's Fair.
