SAD SAM TO MEET NOTRE DAME STAR

Promoter Mack Lillard announced Saturday that Sad Sam Lethers, Dallas, Texas, grappler who defeated George Wilson of Seattle here last Thursday, will tangle in the main event of a special card at the armory on Monday, Sept. 10, with "Jumping" Joe Savoldi, famous exponent of the dropout, who stopped in Medford Thursday morning enroute north by air and made arrangements for the match.

Lillard stated tickets for the card, which will match two of the game's most sensational grapplers, will be placed on sale Tuesday at Brown's, the Office Stationery and Supply Co., and Valentine's. Promoter Lillard expects a record crowd for the bout, which will also include a top-notch preliminary.

Lethers has had the experience of his Wilson match at defending himself from the spectacular flying tackle, which Savoldi has adopted from the gridiron. Sad Sam showed best form in the bout, although the Seattle wildcat pummeled him into a daze with one series of Sonnenbergs. Lethers is capable of giving "Jumping Joe" an equally hard tussle.

Savoldi, whose bronzed physique draws admiration from any audience, will meet Lethers in a strengthened ring, which has undergone repairs from the deprecations it suffered from Wilson, the last football player who entered it, snapping a corner post with his horizontal pile-drives.

OREGON GOLFERS GAIN STATE TOGA ON COAST LINKS

GEARHART-BY-THE-SEA, Ore., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Two Oregon golfers today downed Washington opponents to become champions in the annual Oregon coast mid-summer golf tournament.

Dr. Millard Rosenblatt, Tualatin, beat W. A. Taylor, Longview, Wash., 9 and 7, in the finals of the division for men over 32. Ed Palmrose, former Seaside, Ore., high school athlete, continued the Oregon victories by downing Bob White, Spokane, 6 and 5, in the junior men's division.

In a strictly Portland fight, Mrs. Rose Eva defeated Charles Ligner, 8 and 7, to regain the women's championship she held two years ago. Both Mrs. Eva and Miss Ligner are members of the Columbia Country club of Portland.

Both the men's champions won their first titles on this course today, though both have been "victors" on the Gearhart golfing layout for a number of years.

Dr. Rosenblatt displayed unusual putting ability to win his match and to make a total of 10 under par for the week's play. The Oregon golfer had a 71 score and a five hole lead on the first 18, then clinched the title with a 33 on the third nine.

Palmrose, an Oregon State college student, collected a three-hole lead over the Spokane entry in the first nine and scored a 69 for the first 18. White made one big comeback attempt on the first hole of the second 18, holing out a 69-foot shot for a birdie; but Palmrose matched it with another birdie on the second and from then on had no difficulty in holding his lead.

Mrs. Eva had a five-hole lead on the first 18, and finished off her club-sister in 10 more holes.

ANNIE SPRINGS 9 READY FOR GAMES

Camp Annie Springs baseball team, after it meets Camp Applegate and the Ashland Eagles this afternoon in a double header at Jacksonville, and the Gold Hill nine tomorrow at Gold Hill, will defy any town team in Klamath county or the Rogue river valley, if it wins, according to Joe Winkler.

Today's contest with Applegate camp will get underway at 1 p. m. and with the Ashland Eagles at 3:30 p. m. Monday's game at Gold Hill will start at 3 p. m.

The Annie Springs team is undefeated among CCC camps, and has issued challenges to leading teams in the Klamath and Rogue river valleys. This week-end's series will decide the championship of valley town teams and CCC camp aggregations, Winkler said. The season will soon be ended as far as the camps are concerned, due to the approaching winter snows.

BRITISH NET ACE IN EASY VICTORY

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 1.—(AP)—The perfunctory procedure of the first round of the 88rd men's national singles tennis championship went along today without a hitch with Fred Perry, the British holder of the title, barely getting a workout in his elimination of Carl H. Schwelhardt.

While most of the big guns were muffled by virtue of receiving first round byes, the British titlist accounted for the former Columbia university star, 6-0, 6-1, *3, and led four seeded domestic challengers—George M. Lott, Jr. of Chicago; Lester R. Stofen of Los Angeles; Clifford Sutter of New York and Wilmer Allison of Austin, Tex., into the second round.

They were the only members of a select group of 15 American and foreign seeded players who saw action in the opening round.

COAST-COAST AIR TIME CUT 2 MINS BY TURNER DASH

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept. 1.—(AP)—Col. Roscoe Turner, dashing speed demon of the air, set a new record for a flight from the Pacific to the Atlantic today of ten hours and two minutes.

The clockers figured his margin over the old mark at two minutes and 39 seconds.

"The new record isn't much better than my old one," Turner said, "but we can't break records by hours any more. Minutes are going to count plenty."

The colonel not only smashed the record, but won $3,500 in prizes. Two thousand dollars was the prize for the Bendix race from Burbank, Cal., to New York, which Turner alone completed. Other entrants stopped at Cleveland for the air races. The other $1,500 was a bonus race officials posted for any flyer who broke the record.
