AMANDA FEHL RITES TO BE HELD SUNDAY AT HOME OF FAMILY

Amanda M. Fehl passed away at her residence, 511 Park street, Medford, September 3, 1934. She had been ailing for the past several years and for the past five months had been seriously ill.

Mrs. Fehl was born in Erie county, Pennsylvania, May 14, 1852. When a child of one year she moved with her parents to West Hope, O., where she gained her early education and was united in marriage to Henry Fehl at Kenton, O., June 25, 1914.

Mrs. Fehl passed away March 7, 1927. They left Ohio and moved to Tacoma, Wash., living there until 1916, at which time they came to Medford.

She leaves many friends who will mourn her departure, besides her two sons, Earl H. Fehl of this city and Delbert Fehl of San Diego, Cal., and one daughter, Mrs. R. F. Callan, of Tacoma; also five grandchildren.

Funeral services, under direction of the Port Funeral Home, will be held at the family residence, 511 Park street, Sunday at 2 p. m., with interment in the family plot in the Jacksonville cemetery.
