SOLDIERS SWARM NEW ORLEANS

By PAUL MALLON WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 7.—The story behind the wholesale resignation of the retail coal code authority is a tale flaming with red hot NRA clinkers.

What really fanned the situation into flames was a development in St. Louis. Loyal NRA men here say that the St. Louis school board tried to buy some coal and found the price considerably higher.

There has been a lot of inside talk around here lately that Mr. Hoover will work a line into his "challenge to liberty," saying he does not choose to run in 1935.

Those who have recently called at the Hoover home say he is no longer in the habit of Stanford. He always has guests at luncheon and dinner, and there are usually house guests around.

The administration publicity gets hereabouts could show Bobby Jones a few tricks about timing. Just a day before the resignation of Budget Director Douglas came out, the treasury issued a statement promising that the September financing would be confined to refinancing old issues.

LONG AND MAYOR READY TO BATTLE FOR PURE BALLOT

Kingfish Has 2000 State Troopers While Walmsley Will Depend On 1500 Police and Special Officers

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 7.—(AP)—Alfred D. St. Amant, Baton Rouge business man, today said he had wired Senator Huey P. Long that he would "personally kill him as he would any other mad dog" if any harm befell his son, a member of Baton Rouge company "A" of the National Guard, as a result of primary election mobilization.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 7.—(AP)—New Orleans became a huge potential battlefield as "General" Huey Long and T. Semmes Walmsley took over the commands of gigantic peacetime armies. "General" Long's state soldiers swarmed into New Orleans by automobiles, buses and special trains from all over the state as Walmsley's military staff crowded his reinforced police manpower.
