

MILLER PRESIDENT SOUTHERN OREGON COUNTIES SOCIETY

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 10.—(AP)—Robert A. Miller, president of the Jackson County association, was named president of the Southern Oregon Counties association here Sunday at a picnic attended by about 150 former residents of southern Oregon counties.

Judge J. W. Crawford was named vice-president for Douglas county; K. K. Kubli of Jackson county; John M. Lewis for Josephine; John E. Coker for Coos; Faith Bramhall for Klamath; and J. B. Elder for Lake. Mrs. Nancy D. Singleton, Douglas county, was elected general secretary and Mrs. A. H. Maegly, Jackson county, treasurer.

Purpose of the organization, according to leaders, is to make Oregon a commercial unit.

"Southern Oregon has always gone to California—all the business was done with California," said Miller. "Only during the last few years has Portland been able to pull together with southern Oregon. We want to help build up a more unified Oregon—a greater state."

YREKA GOLD RUSH WILL BRING BACK RIP ROARING DAYS

By George Olsen, Chairman Advertising Committee

The roaring, rip-roaring, good old days of '49 will live again on September 14, 15 and 16 when the 3rd Yreka Miners Gold Rush celebration is held at Yreka, California. This little city of Siskiyou county, in the heart of the mountains and the mining industry, has made elaborate plans to hold the greatest celebration since the forming of the Yreka Miners association three years ago, and extends to all its neighbors to the north, south, east and west a cordial invitation to join in the celebration, visit Yreka, and enjoy the many entertainment features which have been provided for this great occasion.

With all of the citizens of Yreka in the miner garb and old-time clothes of the days of '49; windows displaying the relics of the good old days; cowboys riding through the dust covered streets; and the occasional roar of a six-shooter; the din, noise, music, and lights of the gambling halls—the visitor will truly feel that he has dropped into an old mining town of days that are gone, but will always be remembered, as they played such an important part in the establishing of our two great western states—California and Oregon.

Let us all get together and make this celebration something that will be talked about and remembered for years to come. The committee in charge of the program promises that a visit to Yreka during this celebration will not only be interesting, but will be an event in the lives of all those who join in bringing back for a few days memories of the greatest event in the history of the west—the discovery of gold in 1848.

FIRST CONCRETE POURED FOR DAM

BONNEVILLE, Ore., Sept. 10.—(AP)—With only resident engineers and workmen to celebrate, the first concrete was poured yesterday into the foundations of the Bonneville dam power house.

A total of 125 cubic yards was poured into pier eight on the central power plant of the $32,450,000 project. More than 1500 cubic yards will eventually be poured on the same pier, to form a foundation in the huge natural hole 75 feet below sea level, on which will be erected buttresses for the power house.

Pier eight is being laid for a portion of the power house which will not be completed under present plans. The pier will be covered over and uncovered again only when additions to the power house become necessary at some future time.
