ANDERSON BUYS CHAMPION BULL

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Anderson, who reside near Central Point, have returned to Medford from spending a week at the state fair, and Mr. Anderson announced today that he had completed negotiations for the purchase of a Guernsey calf, Monte Ross champion, which was the winning junior champion yearling Guernsey calf at the fair, and also placed first in its class.

The calf will be brought to the Anderson ranch in the near future, he stated. The purchase is being made from L. L. Rungay of Oregon City, owner. Mr. Anderson, who has about fifty head of cattle at his place now, said today that this will be the sixth pedigreed bull he has brought to his southern Oregon ranch in the past 15 years.

COLORFUL YREKA CARAVAN COMES

Headed by the American Legion drum corps of Ross Nelson post, a large delegation of Yreka citizens of both sexes staged a parade on Main street in this city last night. It was a colorful procession, recalling the "days of '51" when Yreka was known as "Thompson's Dry Digging," and clever costumes of pander days were much in evidence. Bewhiskered minstrelsa marched with dance-hall girls, and old-fashioned ladies and hore and there was found a sheriff to maintain law and order. Many Medford folk were out to witness the parade which was put on at no little trouble and expense by the Yreka citizens to advertise their third annual "Gold Rush" celebration, which opens tomorrow and holds forth for three days.

It is hoped that a large number of Medford and Jackson county people will attend the Yreka celebration to show appreciation for the fine co-operation given by the Siskiyou citizens in Medford's recent Diamond Jubilee.

Andre Maurels, the distinguished French writer, is an enthusiastic archer.

Dazzling Dancers in "Dames" at Craterian

Here are just a small part of the hundreds of beautiful "dames" in the new musical extravaganza, "Dames," opening its three-day run at the Craterian theater today.

"Dames" boasts of Busby Berkeley's newest and best dance ensembles; five new hit songs written by three ace song-writing teams; a breezy plot that zips along from start to finish, and numerous stars, including Dick Powell, Ruby Keeler, Zasu Pitts, Guy Kibbee, Joan Blondell and Hugh Herbert.

Mechanical contrivances that inaugurate a new and different style of dance presentation, make their bow in this picture, making the dance numbers unique and sensational as they are intriguing and beautiful.
