Here Sunday

"The Scarlet Empress," heralded as Marlene Dietrich's greatest starring opportunity and Director Josef von Sternberg's most pretentious production, opens at the Craterian theater Sunday.

Based on a diary by the glamorous Catherine the Great of Russia, who ruled her country with an iron hand and yet was ruled herself by romantic impulses, "The Scarlet Empress" must be rated a spectacle by any standards of judgment. It goes beyond lavishness of production and artistic beauty, however, in that it is one of the most gripping dramatic stories yet to reach the screen.

Many Stars in New Rialto Picture

Slamming the door on a process server, regardless of the fact his neck might still be in the doorway, is only one of the many situations which arise in "We're Rich Again," at the Rialto theater for today and Saturday. It tells how a supposed dumbbell from the "sticks" suddenly brings about a complete reverse from a financial stricken aristocratic family to a position of being again "in the money."

Edna May Oliver, Marion Nixon, Reginald Denny, Billie Burke, Buster Crabbe and Gloria Shea are featured.
