Travel Study Club Listens to Reviews Present-Day Russia

The Travel Study club, after the summer vacation, resumed its meetings at the home of Mrs. Walter Frazer Brown, 1023 West Eleventh street, Monday afternoon.

The study topic for the year is Russia. Mrs. W. G. Cool opened the study of Russia with a clear, comprehensive word picture of the climate and topography of that vast country, which occupies one-seventh of the total earth's area, and promises a variety of climates, the coldest being ninety degrees below zero.

Mrs. J. O. Gray selected for review, Will Durant's book entitled, "The Tragedy of Russia." When he sailed for Russia in 1922, he believed communism Russia's only salvation, but after a month's stay, his one thought was to escape from what seemed to him a frantic preparation and brought to the attention of the listeners, some of Russia's grave problems.

Many of the current events given, centered around the deplorable religious conditions of that country.
