

GRAND JURY CALL MAY BE DELAYED IS OUTLOOK NOW

Calling of the grand jury for the term of the circuit court, scheduled for Monday, September 2, will be delayed a day or so, according to District Attorney George A. Coddling, owing to the inability of two of the grand jurors to be present until later.

Few matters are scheduled to come before the grand jury, owing to a hull on the criminal side of the legal fence, the past three months. Two criminal syndicalism charges are scheduled. Fred Pugh, former resident of Josephine county, was arrested 10 days ago, for sale and distribution of communistic literature, advocating the overthrow of the American form of government.

James Stockman of this city, arrested last July for possession of "red" literature, faces the same charge. Stockman was arrested following efforts of transient agitators to gain a foothold here during the fruit season.

J. Noel Colby of Grants Pass, married, bound over to the grand jury on a statutory charge involving a 14-year-old Jacksonville girl, is also scheduled to appear before the grand jury at its next session.

Other cases awaiting grand jury action include that of T. J. Knight, attorney, charged with driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Preliminary hearing was waived.

MOTOR CRUISER HITS BEACH NEAR SAN FRAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—(AP)—The 60-foot motor cruiser President II, carrying her owner, C. S. Spangler of Los Angeles, and his guest, G. C. Grandall, from Los Angeles to Portland by way of San Francisco, went ashore in a heavy fog about 1:30 a. m. today on the San Francisco ocean shore.

Spangler and Grandall swam and waded ashore through the surf.

Oil is being substituted for molasses and water in grasshopper bait because it dries out less quickly.

Junior Off to College With Glinting Toe-Nails

(By Dick Applegate.)
 Junior Porter, green toenails and all left today for school at Eugene, and before leaving evinced some alarm at the way he had been "feet-ed" by the Tribune before his departure. Madly clutching a bottle of green toe shellac in one hand, and another of blue bluing from a coat pocket, Porter wailingly announced that he had an express purpose in painting his pedal appendages the bizarre color, and expressed a feeling that when it was understood by the populace, they would no longer consider his action as a reflection upon his sex, as some people seemed prone to do.
