

D. B. GRAY PROMOTED TO PORTLAND PLACE BY STANDARD OIL CO.

D. B. Gray of Medford, district lubricating engineer for the past seven years, for the Standard Oil company received word today of his promotion to the same position in Portland, his place being taken here by Robert Titlow, formerly of Eureka, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray will leave for Portland immediately, much to the regret of their many friends. For seven years they have made their home on Ross Court, taking a prominent part in the social and civic affairs of the community.

"D. B." will be particularly missed at the Medford Golf club, being a charter member of that organization and progressing steadily from a 25 to a 12 handicap player. Particularly strong in competitive golf he has a collection of six cups, to attest to his prowess to turn on the heat in tight pinches.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray are loyal boosters for Medford and the Rogue River valley and regret their departure, but the former particularly is pleased to have a business opportunity in a larger field.

SOPHIA E. GLOVER CALLED BY DEATH

Sophia E. Glover, a resident of Medford for the past eight years, passed away at the home of her daughter Ethel Warentz, at 9 Kling street, Wednesday afternoon, suffering but a brief illness.

Sophia Schroeder was born at Centralia, Ill., July 16, 1861. In 1888 she was united in marriage to Joseph A. Glover at Oswego, Kansas, living in Kansas after their marriage until 1926, when they moved west and have made Medford their home since.

Besides her husband and one daughter, she is survived by one brother, Herman Schroeder, Newport, B. C., two sisters, Lizzie Kuhn, Pomeroy, Wash., and Minnie Lowe of Medford; two grand-children, Mark and Roberta Warentz of Medford; also a foster son, Floyd Bolen of Medford. She will be mourned by a host of friends.

Mrs. Glover had been an ardent worker in the Methodist church since early childhood.

Funeral services will be held from the Conger Funeral Parlor Saturday at 2 p. m. Rev. Joseph Knoets will have charge of services and interment will be made in the Jacksonville cemetery.

PORTER WILL SEEK NEW TERM AS MAYOR

Acting Mayor George Porter today filed for mayor of Medford, but told the press that he had no announcement to make at the present time, other than that he will start immediately to circulate his petition. Porter has been serving in the office since the resignation of E. M. Wilson last July 3.

WASH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Win Back Pep...Vigor...Vitality

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes of filter which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. They should pour out thru the bladder 3 pints of fluid a day which contains 4 pounds of waste matter. If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 311 MILES of kidney tubes need washing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of stinging headache, leg pains, loss of pep and vitality, getting up at night, lumbago, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness. If kidneys don't empty 3 pints every day and get rid of 4 pounds of waste matter, your body will take up these poisons causing serious trouble. It may knock you out and lay you up for many months. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS... a doctor's prescription... which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give quick relief and will help to wash out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes. But don't take chances with strong drugs or so-called "kidney cures" that claim to fix you up in 15 minutes. Your common sense will tell you that this is impossible. Treatments of this nature may seriously injure and irritate delicate tissues. Insist on DOAN'S PILLS... which contain no habit-forming drugs. Be sure you get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-McBee Co.

New Safeway Store Chief

J. F. Haws, new manager of Safeway Store No. 41 at 36 North Central and (right) A. J. Anderson, who has managed Safeway Store No. 371 at Main and Holly for the past five years.

Announcement was made this week by J. F. Mashburn, district manager for Safeway Stores, that J. F. Haws of Tacoma, Wash., will assume management of Safeway Store No. 41 at 36 North Central avenue in this city. Mr. Haws, with his wife and two boys, is now in Medford establishing permanent residence here. He is now in active charge of store No. 41. The new manager has had years of experience in the grocery business.

eight years of which have been with the Safeway organization. This change in the Safeway personnel will not affect A. J. Anderson, well known business man, who has managed Safeway Store No. 371 at Main and Holly streets for the past five years. As an introduction for Mr. Haws in this community, Mr. Anderson and the new head of Safeway Store No. 41 have arranged a "Managers' Event" for Saturday and Monday with special values offered at both Safeway stores.

CENTRAL PT. GETS BANK PROPERTY

The city of Central Point, under the terms of an order and petition signed in circuit court yesterday, will acquire the furniture and equipment (including one saved-off shotgun) of the State Bank of Central Point, and lot 1, block 10, from the state banking board, now in charge of liquidation of the bank.

In exchange, the city of Central Point will cancel an unpaid balance of $1,830.73 owed the municipality by the bank, and also $200 due and owing on a realty contract for the purchase of lot 1, block 10. The bank will cancel an order due from the city for $209.82.

The equipment consists of the bank counter and fixtures, chairs, typewriter, pencil sharpener, two stools, three safes and a vault door.

The petition was filed by the state bank department.

MINING MEETING TO DRAW EXPERTS

Word has been received by W. H. Lydiard, member of the Oregon state mining board, that a number of prominent men will be on the program of the Oregon Mining congress which will be held here Saturday. Those prominent in mining circles in the state expected to be present include, J. H. Batcher, secretary of the Oregon state mining board; R. M. Betts, president of the Oregon Mining congress; Dr. W. D. Smith, geologist from the University of Oregon; and Dr. W. L. Powers of the soils department, Oregon State college.

Arrangements have been made for the executive committee of the congress to hold a meeting at the court house auditorium Saturday morning and, according to all reports, a large delegation will be present for the general meeting.

FREDERICK CHAMPLIN OF FOOT'S CREEK DIES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

Frederick L. Champlin passed away at the Sacred Heart hospital early Thursday morning after a brief illness. He was born in Chicago, Illinois, November 15, 1892 and was a member of a prominent family of Chicago.

The family operated the Champlin Cold Dredging company on Foot's creek for a number of years.

Fred was a man of fine character and had traveled in foreign countries and was a lover of all sports. He was a member of Medford Lodge of Elks. Mr. Champlin leaves two sisters, Mrs. G. C. Kettle and Mrs. Beatrice C. Jones, residing on the Champlin ranch below Gold Hill, also two nephews, Chas. T. Champlin Jr., of Medford, and H. C. Salisbury, Milwaukee, Wis.; two nieces, Pauline Champlin, Medford, and Mrs. Carl W. Garrison, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

The remains will be forwarded by the Per Funeral Home to Portland, Oregon, for cremation Friday evening.

CHICAGO FOLLIES TO SHOW TONIGHT

An enthusiastic crowd, filling the theater to capacity and overflowing out into the street, last night gave vociferous approval to Ches Davis' Chicago Follies stage show at the Craterian theater. The result is an announcement today of a special midnight jamboree, to be held tonight at 11:30, immediately following the regular performance of the Bing Crosby picture, "She Loves Me Not."

Moving with a zip and a dash throughout, the follies started out with a "sock" as Chet Willey's Ten Barbarians, a talented group of musicians, opened the show with a band number that gave promise of what was to follow.

Bernie Kolin, acting as master of ceremonies, then introduced a crowd and his girl friend, who turned out to be a dummy tied to Lewis' feet, and the dance routine the two did left the audience in a gale of laughter.

The Littlejohns, a flashy man and girl act that worked almost throughout atop two large rhinestone studded balls, followed, giving the show the proper tempo besides offering something new and decidedly original.

Anita Muth, a cute little trick artist, a cute little trick artist, gave her rendition of the popular "You Nasty Man," following that with an impersonation of the cartoon character, Betty Boop.

An eccentric tap routine, as done by Ginger Stover, proved to be just what the audience wanted—perhaps augmented somewhat by the revealing costume, which does not mean that Ginger lacked in dancing talent.

Frank Starr then came on with his impersonation of sound effects as used in radio studios. Using no musical instruments, Starr gave impressions of a train, airplane "dog fight" and other effects, ending his act with an impersonation of Amos and Andy that sounded entirely authentic and certainly made a hit with followers of this popular radio turn.

Then came another band number by the Barbarians, and once again the boys demonstrated why they were chosen to help inaugurate the return of vaudeville.

Lewis and Ethel, with an adagio number, held the spotlight for their routine that was repeatedly applauded during their entire act.

The Mathews Twins, a couple of good looking blonde girls, with a military tap number, seemed to have just what the audience had been waiting for, being roundly applauded at the close of their number.

Phil Lopez, a "screw" looking individual who was continually removing one vest after another while indulging in several bits of nonsense that drew laugh after laugh, gave way to Matt Patterson, a colored boy whose plunking of the banjo made an instant hit. The swaying rhythm of several dance tunes, including the always popular "St. Louis Blues," made this colored Eddie Peabody one of the crowd's favorites, and he was forced to play encore after encore.

Ches Davis himself, appearing at various times throughout the show, kept things moving along while adding a bit of comedy to touch off everything to a first "T."

All in all, the follies proved to be such a crowd pleaser, that besides playing a return engagement at tonight's midnight show, during which several new bits will be added, the Craterian theater announced through George Hunt, that the reception accorded this first unit made it only too evident that Medford wanted "in the flesh" entertainment with its pictures and would therefore be a regular roadshow date every other two weeks.

GRAZING DISTRICT IS AUTHORIZED BY BOARD

Following a hearing yesterday, the county grazing board ordered the formation, as petitioned, of a grazing district in southern Jackson county. A number of stockmen of the area appeared, and not a protesting voice was raised. The district embraces the territory between the Oregon-California state line, the Pacific highway, the Dead Indian road, and the western boundary of Klamath county. The grazing board is composed of the county court, and Dr. Gitzen, deputy stock inspector.

BAKERY VALUATIONS IN JACKSON COUNTY SURVEYED BY BOARD

The equalization board of Jackson county, with Edward Sealander of the state tax commission in attendance, was in session today to consider fixing of the valuation of all bakeries in the county, located for the most part in this city and Ashland. The object is to fix valuation of the bakeries upon a more equitable basis.

The time for meetings of the equalization board expired two weeks ago. Owing to one of the Medford bakery owners appearing late with his protest—on the afternoon of the final day—the equalization board petitioned the state tax commission for a re-convening of the board, which was granted.

A reduction in valuation is sought in protests filed.

No rulings have been filed as yet by the equalization board upon any protests filed.

The equalization board is composed of the county judge, county assessor and county clerk.

NORTON TO CONDUCT COURT IN JOSEPHINE

Circuit Judge H. D. Norton will hold court next week at Grants Pass, and the following week will return here for a court session, and calling of the grand jury for the October term.

Date for calling of the petit jury is uncertain. To date, all civil cases set for jury trial have been settled or postponed by attorneys. The court has been engaged this week in the hearing of routine legal matters, arguments and divorce suits.

Stated Communication of Medford Lodge No. 103, A. F. & A. M., Friday, Sept. 21, at 7:30 p. m. Visiting members invited. V. A. NORRIS, W. M. GEO. ALDEN, Secy.

The state banking department of Kentucky reports bank deposits increased $12,352,420 in that state during the past fiscal year.

Piles Go Quick

Thousands of sufferers from itching, bleeding or protruding piles have learned that quick and lasting relief can be accomplished with an internal medicine. Neither salves nor cutting remove the cause.

Bad circulation of the blood in the lower bowel causes piles. The veins are flabby, the bowel walls weak—the parts lifeless. To end Piles an internal medicine should be used to stimulate the circulation, and restore the affected parts.

Dr. J. E. Leinhardt was the first to discover a real internal Pile remedy. He called his prescription HEM-ROID, and prescribed it for hundreds of patients with a marvelous record of success and then decided every Pile sufferer should be able to get HEM-ROID tablets from their own druggist with a rigid money back guarantee.

So why waste time on external remedies or worry about an operation when Jarmin's Drugs, Wood's Drug Store, also McNair Bros. of Ashland, say "No matter what kind of Piles you have, one bottle of HEM-ROID tablets must show you the safe clean way to get rid of your Pile misery or money-back."
