

BILLIARD MATCH ADDED FOR ELKS LODGE BLOWOUT

As another feature of the 25th anniversary celebration of the organization of the Medford B. P. O. Elks Lodge, to be held at the temple next Thursday, September 27, a billiard match will be played at 8 p. m. A team composed of John Tomlin and H. C. Armstrong, will meet Reg. Pifer and J. V. Watson, who issued a challenge to the first billiardists. The match will be a 35-point three-cushion affair.

With the Elks' band playing during the evening, and a crab feed scheduled for 6:30 p. m., the celebration will be rounded out by a smoker, which will include six four-round fights, to start immediately after the billiard contest. H. N. Butler, exalted ruler, announced that plans are progressing rapidly, after being completed at a regular session of the lodge, held last night.

The feed committee, composed of O. O. Alenderfer, Nick Young and P. C. "Boda Pop" Bigham, will meet, together with the general program committee, fight committee, and ticket sales committee, in the near future to make final arrangements.

T. E. Daniels, first exalted ruler, who took over the office 25 years ago, is chairman of the general committee, consisting also of Leon Haskins and Jack Thompson. Ernest Scott is taking care of ticket sales, assisted by Stanley Sherwood and Earl York. The fights will be arranged and supervised by E. C. "Jerry" Jerome.

CINDERELLA SHOP FOOTWEAR SALON OPENS SATURDAY

The Cinderella Shop's modern, attractive new footwear salon, under the personal direction of H. W. Manerud, will be open for public inspection tomorrow, according to an announcement by Mrs. Vella Hayes, Cinderella Shop manager.

Compact fixtures and shoe shelves have been installed to effectively display fall and winter footwear, which awaits the approval of southern Oregon women. Vitality Health and style shoes and Cinderella's "Thirty Three-Fifty's" will be featured in the new department.

Mr. Manerud had had extensive experience in buying and selling women's footwear, having come to Medford from Seattle, where he was associated with McDougall Southwick's store for two years.

The ready-to-wear department at the Cinderella will participate in the "open house" event Saturday by offering exceptional values in Hadleigh Mode coats, suits and dresses and other new merchandise.

The Cinderella Beauty Shop is being completely remodeled and new, up-to-the-minute facilities added. This department will soon be ready for public inspection and business.

now serving four-year state prison sentences for conviction of ballot theft.

The cost bill in the Jones trial was fixed at $992.80 and the LaDieu trial at $239.99.

The cost bill in the trial of E. H. Fehl, tried in Klamath county, also serving a four-year penitentiary sentence for vote stealing, will be filed soon with the Klamath county clerk.

Cost bills of the Jones and LaDieu trials were allowed by stipulation and fixed at about half the original amount. Board and room bills for the jurors during the course of the trials, and one of the heaviest items, were disallowed, and were the main cause of the reduction.

All of the ballot theft defendants detained in the penitentiary are eligible for parole next December and are scheduled to be given hearings at the parole meeting that month.
