

TIGERS POINT FOR FIRST GAME WITH ROSEBURG OCT. 6

Burgher Fast Shaping Team to Carry On Winning Tradition—Chemawa Coming for Armistice Day Tilt

(By Harold Grove)
With a week of practice behind them, the Medford high school Tigers are pointing toward their first major football game of the season to be played with Roseburg high at the Van Scoyoc field in Medford, October 6. A game with Crescent City is tentatively scheduled for September 29.

Under the tutelage of D. K. Burgher, head coach, and E. M. Kirtley, assistant coach, the 1933 mythical state champions are rapidly developing into shape.

Indians Coming.

Coach Burgher and Medford high school officials were successful in securing the Chemawa Indians for a game here Armistice day. The Indians have not played against the Tigers in football while Burgher has been at the helm of athletics at Medford high. The last encounter was with the famous Medford high school team of 1928, coached by "Prink" Callison, now head coach at the University of Oregon.

Although athletic relationship has been most friendly, the Chemawa Indians were unable to bring their football teams to Medford because of the financial conditions of the schools. However, the Indians have been pitted against the Tigers many times in basketball.

Many Games at Home.

Medford fans will be given the opportunity of seeing plenty of high school football this season for the Tigers will have but two out-of-town games. One game is scheduled with Eureka high to be played at night on the Eureka field. The other distant game will be played with Marshfield at Marshfield.

It has not been definitely decided whether or not Medford will play Ashland, according to Coach Burgher, because of severance of athletic relations last year by Medford high school officials to offset the feelings of that period.

The schedule for the 1934 football season according to the latest information supplied by Coach Burgher is: Sept. 29, Crescent City at Medford (tentative); Oct. 6, Roseburg at Medford; Oct. 13, Medford at Eureka; Oct. 27, Klamath Falls at Medford; Nov. 3, (open) possibly Ashland; Nov. 11, Chemawa Indians; Nov. 17, Grants Pass at Medford; Nov. 24 (open).

Candidates Listed.

COAST FOOTBALL SQUADS WILL TRY POWER SATURDAY

Stanford, Picked As 'Team to Beat,' Will Face San Jose College — O. S. C. to Play Double Header

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Nineteen major college eleven will go into action on eight far western gridirons tomorrow as football, king of fall sports, climbs back on his throne for another three months' reign. Moving cautiously at the start of what observers expect to be a close scramble for pigskin honors, six Pacific coast conference contenders involved in tomorrow's games will take on "breather" opposition.

Three Twin Bills.

Three of them, University of Southern California, University of California at Los Angeles and Oregon State college will appear in double-header programs, pitted against the combined forces of less formidable opponents.

Coach Howard Jones, Southern California Trojans, their long domination of the western football scene broken last year, will open a quest for new honors against Occidental and Whittier colleges.

Picked by many critics as "the team to beat" for the conference title, Stanford university's Cardinal eleven will play host at Palo Alto to San Jose state college.

O. S. C. Faces Willamette. At Corvallis, Oregon State College, whose "iron man" eleven of last year held the Trojans to a scoreless tie, will battle Willamette and Pacific universities in a double bill.

The third doubleheader will take place on the U. C. L. A. campus, where the Bruins meet Pomona College and San Diego State.

A contest tonight between Loyola Liens and Cal Tech brings the total of games in Los Angeles this week-end to five.

Oregon Plays Gonzaga.

Perhaps the stiffest competition falls to the lot of the University of Oregon eleven, which will meet the ever-dangerous Gonzaga Bulldogs at Eugene.

A close battle also is in prospect at Kezar stadium in San Francisco, where Clipper Smith's University of Santa Clara Broncos and the University of Nevada Wolves, rated the strongest Nevada team in several years, get together.

The opening schedule is completed with Washington State College's contest at Pullman with Whitman college. The universities of California and Washington and St. Mary's college do not open their activities until next week.

GRANTS PASS HUNTERS SOON BACK WITH MEAT

GRANTS PASS, Sept. 21.—(Sp.)—Grants Pass first deer hunters to report success are Lloyd Morrison and Harry Campbell, who returned to this city Thursday afternoon with two bucks shot in the Galice section at about 6:45 in the morning. One deer was a two-pointer, and the other three.

FIRPO AND LEWIS BATTLE TO DRAW IN TITULAR BOUT

Idaho Miner Opens Up Fire-works in Latter Rounds—Monroe and Gibson Also Fight On Even Basis

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Young Firpo continued to rule today over Pacific coast light-heavyweight fighters after coming out of 10 rounds of mighty punching for a draw with Henry Lewis in an outdoor show here last night.

Lewis, Phoenix Negro recently named by the National Boxing association as one of the world's best 175-pounders, averted defeat only by a heavy body bombardment of Firpo in the final round.

The Burke, Idaho, bull who recently defended his championship against Tiger Jack Fox of Indianapolis, was content to let the fight go as it would in the early rounds, during which Lewis gained a slight advantage.

Firpo Puts On Power.

In the sixth round Firpo began to open up and by the seventh his orthodox punches were landing heavily. During the eighth and ninth rounds he bludgeoned out a lead with an aggressive show of rights and lefts to the body and chin. The final round found both fighters willing and battling furiously for an advantage. After two fierce, even exchanges Lewis suddenly lowered his punches and Firpo began to tire under a withering body assault. Then the negro uncocked two lefts and a stiff right to the head. Firpo regained composure and both were exchanging punches briskly at the final bell. Firpo weighed 174 and Lewis 173 1/2.

Monroe in Draw.

Another furious draw was the six-round semi-windup between Frankie Monroe, 133 1/2, Klamath Falls, and Leroy Gibson, 126 1/2, Wichita, Kan. Gunning for knockouts all the way, Monroe scored a no-count knockdown in the second round and hit the canvas himself in the fifth.

Still another draw was the six-rounder between Bill Czerby, 148, Spokane, and Warren Frakes, 146 1/2, Los Angeles. Frakes rallied to even the battle in the last two rounds. Jimmy Jordan, 180, Denver, won a slugging match from Bud Zellar, 193, Vancouver barracks, in a six-rounder.

Christy Lewis, 155 1/2, outpointed Jack Hibbard, 154, Klamath Falls, in four rounds.

Oregon Weather.

Cloudy tonight and Saturday; locally unsettled; cooler east portion Saturday; moderate north and northwest wind off the coast.
