

OREGON INJURIES SPREAD BLUES IN CAMPUS CIRCLES

Pat Fury On Crutches at Least Three Weeks as Result of Gonzaga Fray—Four Others Nursing Hurts

EUGENE, Ore., Sept. 24.—(AP)—A blue song waltzed over the University of Oregon campus today where limped many of the heroes of Oregon's 13 to 0 victory over Gonzaga here Saturday.

The co-champions of the Pacific coast were but a scant reminder of last year's great team, but had a defense strong enough to keep the smooth working, versatile Bulldogs scoreless. Against the lighter opposition, the Oregon offense manufactured two touchdowns, one through the ether.

The melody of the blue song—or wall—is that another Oregon tackle is on the shelf. It is Pat Fury, assigned to crutches for at least three weeks with knee ligaments torn in the Gonzaga fray.

Others Injured. Sidebars of the song are that both first string ends, Butch Morse and Budd Jones, and Roy Geagon, regular guard, sustained badly pulled muscles.

The chorus is that Tackles Gardner Frye and Del Bjork and Halfbacks Ray Lopez and Maury Van Vliet are still on a previous injury list. How many will be ready for the U. C. L. A. game in Portland next Saturday is problematical.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Safely through the punishment pit of an opening doubleheader, the Oregon State football squad today launched strenuous preparations for San Francisco university, which comes here Friday.

The pathway to the firmament of glory for Willamette university was obstructed by two tough breaks which Oregon State, led by Norman "Red" Franklin, turned into two touchdowns and a 13 to 0 victory over the Beavers here Saturday.

Franklin also led the Beavers in a 19 to 0 victory over the stubborn but less powerful Pacific University eleven in the second game.

Mills' first quarter fumble on the Willamette eight-yard line was recovered by Oregon State, but it was the fourth down before Franklin flanked the fighting Beavers for the touchdown.

PRO FOOTBALL

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 24.—(UP)—Professional football made its Pacific coast debut for the season Sunday, when the S. C. Maroons defeated the Shamrocks, 21 to 0, before 10,000 fans.

GREEN BAY, Wis., Sept. 24.—(UP)—A fourth period drive gave the Chicago Bears 14 points and a 24-10 victory over the Greenbay Packers before a record 14,000 crowd here Sunday afternoon.

Two touchdowns by Bronko Nagurski, ramming fullback from Minnesota, and placements by Manders proved the margin of victory for the Bears.

DIANA WILD, DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 24.—(UP)—Professional football was introduced to 15,000 Detroiters Sunday when the newly organized Detroit Lions professional football team defeated last year's National League champions, the New York Giants, 9 to 0.

DAYTON, O., Sept. 24.—(UP)—Dove Russell, Chicago Cardinal halfback, caught the opening kickoff of the game with the Cincinnati Reds Sunday, back of his own goal line and carried it 102 yards for a touchdown. In the third period, Dave Cook dropped back to the 39-yard line to placekick a field goal. Three lone scoring plays of the Cardinals opened their National pro league season and gave them a 9 to 0 victory.

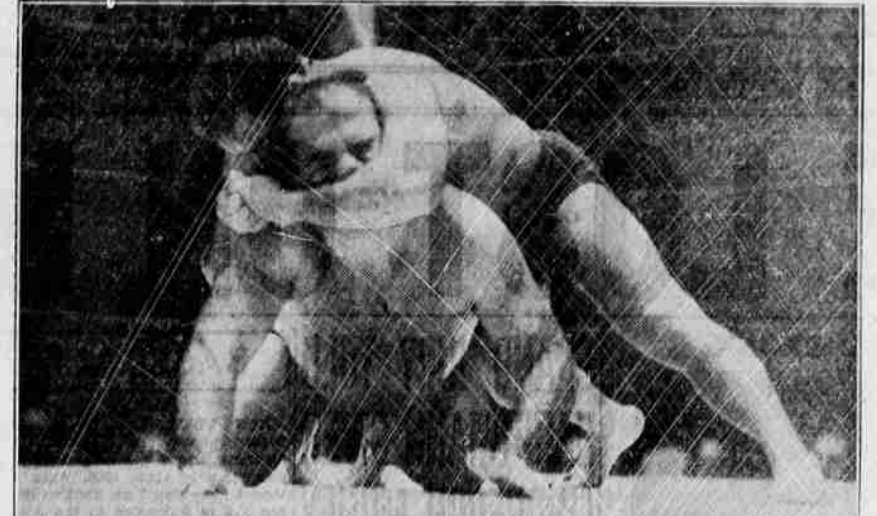

KIDNAPERS THREAT TO HOLLYWOOD GARDENER

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 24.—(UP)—The home of Nick Malas, north Hollywood landscape gardener and film set designer, was guarded today while police sought the author of a note demanding $5,000 on threats of kidnaping Malas' nine-year-old son Donald.

Malas found the note, crudely penciled on a piece of paper torn from a check, in his mailbox last night. It read: "Come across with $5,000 or we will get that little kid of yours get money ready will give you change—X."

LILLARD TO RESUME ARMORY MAT SHOWS ON OCTOBER FOURTH

Promoter Mack Lillard returned to Medford Sunday after several days' vacation spent on the coast. The wrestling impresario declared he would reopen the Armory mat shows Thursday, October 4, leaving next Thursday clear for the big Elks' club flatie fiesta, which will be a feature of the lodge smoker in their temple on that night.

According to Lillard, there will be a wealth of grunt and groaners seeking matches on the coast this fall, and he plans to align the cream of the crop for appearances here. Since the recent capacity crowd turned out to see Jumping Joe Savoldi, Lillard has been taking a vacation and the local fans are again becoming anxious to see a good bone crushing exhibition.

Sergeant Bob Kensation, late of the Marines, who is now making his home in Gold Hill, is practically assured of a spot on the next card, October 4, and Lillard hopes to get Pete Belcastro as an opponent for the leatherneck. Fireman Ray Prieble is anxious to re-enter the game and may be seen on the next card.

GOLFERS BRAVE RAINS TO FINISH FOURTH ROUNDS

Rain put a damper on activities at the Rogue River Valley golf course yesterday, but despite occasional downpours five matches were completed out of the nine which remained to be played in the fourth round of the P. A. T. tournament.

George Phythian defeated Charles Strang, 1 up; Bruce Bauer defeated Dr. E. W. Barnum, 3 and 2; E. G. Pierce defeated C. S. Newhall, 3 and 2; J. B. Kirk defeated H. B. Kellom, 2 and 1; and R. B. Hammond defeated George Hunt, 2 and 1. None of these contestants thought it necessary to plow through mud and water to finish out their matches, after the outcome had been decided.

Two contests in the fifth rounds were completed yesterday, R. D. Simon defeating George Phythian, 1 up, in one advance match, and R. A. Botts taking the measure of Capt. Potter, 2 and 1. In the other, Botts and Potter completed their score, Botts shooting a 92, and Captain Potter turning in a 96.

Other matches in the fourth rounds will be played this week, according to club officials, due to inability to play over the week-end because of rain. Deer hunting is also causing several games in the fifth bracket to be played in advance, the Semon-Phythian contest yesterday being scheduled early because of hunting plans.

John R. Kirk, holder of the P. A. T. trophy, has been forging toward the final bracket with consistent play, and keen competition is expected in the final rounds, with such hopefuls as Phythian, Bruce Bauer, Semon, Botts and Hammond. With the completion of the fourth rounds less than 16 contestants will remain.

Pairings for the matches, which have yet to be played to bring the tourney into the fifth bracket are as follows: Gordon Green and C. Ellis, Bud Simmons and Walter Leverette, A. E. Orr and A. F. West, and Dr. E. R. Durmo and R. G. Bardwell.

GERMAN BISHOPS SWEAR LOYALTY

BERLIN, Sept. 24.—(UP)—Leading bishops from all parts of the Reich swore eternal loyalty to Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler Sunday in colorful ceremonies incident to the formal induction of Dr. Ludwig Mueller as Reichsbishop of the German Evangelical church.

The services climaxed more than a year of intense turmoil within the Protestant church in the third Reich, and were the public proclamation of Nazi victory in the religious affairs of Germany over strong opposition. Reichsbishop Mueller, as Hitler's chief lieutenant in the church, became dictatorial head of the Protestant faith, unifying the various branches under this personal control.

The author of Judith Lane writes a new serial Marian Gordon By JEANNE BOWMAN "You look stunning!" Anne told Marian. "But take a few tips from this Silver friend of yours. Lon's the kind of a fellow every woman's bound to make a try for..." And so it was. There was Marian—"too honorable... too practical"—everybody said—and there was Silver. And both with Lon on their minds... JEANNE BOWMAN'S previous serial showed a woman bravely fighting against great odds—and winning. Marian Gordon is as plucky as Judith. Before the threads of this new story are untangled and smoothed out in a startlingly dramatic conclusion, she has some good detective work to her credit—plus the other things for which she has been striving. It's a swiftly paced story from beginning to end—the kind JEANNE BOWMAN writes, the kind you'll like. Starting Monday, October 1, in the MAIL TRIBUNE
