REPAIR TUMBLING
FRENCH CHATEAUX

Slight Fee Collected From Visitors Enables Hard Pressed Blue Bloods Preserve Ancestral Halls

By Alexander H. Uhl
PARIS (AP)—Tourists' pennies are helping to keep the wolf from the door of some of France's most magnificent chateaux.
Hard times have hit prince and marquis just as heavily as everyone else and some of France's most famous country homes are falling into ruin because their owners can't afford to keep them up.
Now an association of chateaux owners has been formed whereby tourists may visit these private dwellings at certain times on payment of a slight fee. The money goes toward keeping plumbing in order and walls from tumbling down.

British Follow Suit
It has worked so successfully that a similar association may be formed in England to help the lordly owners of some of Britain's stately houses.
Called the "most aristocratic trade union in the world," the French association was founded by the owners of chateaux to defend their own interests and to preserve for France a tourist asset that was being threatened with oblivion.
The chief qualification is to own a chateau, preferably with historic interest, and to be ready to throw it open to the public. In return, the owner is supplied with funds for upkeep of the place and sometimes even gets tax advantages and the right to keep his estate intact for himself and his heir.

Guard Coffee Hours
Funds are raised by subscriptions and by the collection of 50 centimes (about three and a half cents) from each visitor. Some of the proceeds pay expenses of the organization.
Naturally chateau owners have no desire to have their coffee on the terraces interrupted by visitors, so definite times have been assigned to sightseers.
There are more than 50 chateaux in the neighborhood of Paris which now can be visited. Many of them never have been open to the public.

GRANTS PASS P. O.
SITE PURCHASED

GRANTS PASS, Sept. 27.—(Sp.)—Selection of a site for Grants Pass' $150,000 new federal and postoffice building on the Herman and Everton site, northeast corner of Seventh and East H streets, Wednesday, ended suspense arising since July 23 when 12 sites were offered for the U. S. building.
The location chosen is just east of the present postoffice site and includes lots 13, 14, 15, 16, 17 and 18 of block 31, original townsite. The brick residence on the site is also included in the purchase price to the government of $4,000.
The original bid was $6,000, offered by P. B. Herman, Grants Pass, and J. W. and Lavina Everton, Portland. The Evertons are former residents here, where Mr. Everton was long employed on the railroad. The Evertons are now in the east on their vacation.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, min and water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.
For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.
If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.
It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.
But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. Get at drug store. © 1934 C. M. C.
