EVENING ENTERTAINING
(When Men Are Invited)
The Menu

Sausage Rolls Sliced Ham
Pickle Cheese Sticks
Pretzels
Molasses Puffs
Coffee

Sausage Rolls
1 1/2 cups flour,
3 teaspoons baking powder,
1/4 teaspoon salt,
4 tablespoons fat,
1/2 cup milk,
6 cooked sausages.

Mix dry ingredients, cut in fat with knife. Add milk slowly; when soft dough forms, pat out soft dough until one-third inch thick. Cut into six squares. Place the sausage in each square and roll up tightly, holding in place with toothpicks. Arrange on greased baking sheet and bake 15 minutes. Serve warm.

Pickle Cheese Sticks
8 toothpicks,
24 thin slices dill pickle,
24 thin 1-inch slices cheese,
Alternate slices of cheese and pickles on toothpicks.

Molasses Puffs
(14 Individual Cakes)
1-3 cup fat,
2-3 cup sugar,
1 egg,
1-3 cup molasses,
2-3 cup milk (sweet),
2 cups flour,
1 teaspoon ginger,
1 teaspoon cinnamon,
1/2 teaspoon cloves,
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg,
1/2 teaspoon salt,
2-3 teaspoon soda,
2-3 teaspoon baking powder.

Cream fat and sugar. Add rest of ingredients and beat 2 minutes. Half fill greased muffin pans and bake 15 minutes in moderate oven. Cool and frost.

Romantic Picture Craterian Sunday

"Doc" Denton, demon author of romantic love tales in the pulp magazines, self-styled advisor-in-chief to the lovers, is almost a fixture in his own life. What happened to a modern Cinderella—a little Princess of the stumps, when she met this unsuspecting Prince Charming in the rain, is rovingly told in the romantically gay comedy with music, "Romance in the Rain," playing Sunday and Monday at the Craterian theatre. Roger Pryor, Heather Angel, Victor Moore and Esther Ralston, with many other well known players in the supporting cast, are featured. Pryor, a new and different Pryor, is the love doctor who could solve everybody's problem in writing—but cannot solve his own. Lovely Heather Angel is the charming and wistful Cinderella who wins a contest but loses her heart. Victor Moore, famous New York musical comedy star, is the exceedingly weary and wealthy magazine publisher who sponsors the contest and
