Jeffries, Gm-Res., who has been in charge of the Wingless spig camp located near the Oregon Caves, during the summer.

On Rialto Bill

feet but, balancing on his hands, does a neat number that invariably has the audience asking for more. Miss Crider, the other half of the team, is said to be the last word in "Hotcha" dancers, creating quite a sensation with her various numbers.

Paul Green, Robert L. Hipley's "Believe It Or Not" contortionist, who was one of the featured performers in the Chicago Century of Progress Odditorium, is one of the big hits of the show. His ability to twist his body into unbelievable positions makes his act not only unusual but decidedly a novelty.

Paige and Jewett, a one-wheeled team that do better on their one-wheeled affair than most people do on a regular two-wheeler. Paige actually does a rubber-wheeled tap dance that is said to be one of the show's highlights.

Billie Joy and Company bring a group of good-looking charmers to the front in several different dance routines. This flash dancing act has been featured in several of the big musical shows.

On the screen, Alene MacMahon, Guy Kibbee, Hugh Herbert, Allen Jenkins and many other well-known screen favorites will be shown in "The Merry Frinks," a lively, racy riot of a well-meaning but utterly devoid of any intelligence feature.

SOCIETY and Clubs

Mrs. Green Arrives For Visit with Son
Mrs. W. S. Green of Seattle, who has been in Oakland for the past two months, arrived on the Shasta this morning to resume a visit here with her son, O. R. Green. Mrs. Green was in Medford two months before leaving for the south, and expects to remain until the end of October before returning to her home.

Is Brief Visitor
Mrs. M. R. Rice of Portland was a brief visitor in Medford last night, having stopped to visit friends before continuing a trip by train from Oakland, Cal., to her home.

SIX COMEDIANS IN MERRY ROXY FILM
With six comedians, all of first rank, in the cast, and with a story that gives each and every one of them full sway to create laughs, "Six of a Kind" now at the Roxy theater, is one of the merriest film comedies seen in months.

The story tells of an auto trip to California, undertaken by Charlie Huggles and Mary Roland. To help defray expenses, George Burns and Gracie Allen, go along, but the trouble they cause more than offsets any financial aid they may give.

Vaudeville Bill Coming Tuesday Craierian Stage

Tomorrow brings the second unit of the big vaudeville shows to the Craierian theater. Harry Clark's "Penthouse Follies," with eight acts and a 10-piece orchestra, will be on the stage for both matinee and evening shows with "The Merry Frinks" as the screen feature.

Superbly mounted, gorgeously gowned and decked out, the "Penthouse Follies" also presents a stream-lined chorus in several different routines.

Art Gleason, one of America's most versatile musicians, will furnish the music with his Manhattan Serenaders. Gleason is in a style by himself, and is said to assure the audience of no dull moments during the musical accompaniments. Aside from being a most able leader, he himself plays many instruments in an outstanding manner.

Harry and Billie Clark present some exceptionally fine dancing, both in character and in comedy. Miss Clark, a petite brunette, makes a striking appearance in varied costumes aside from being a clever dancer. Harry Clark not only dances but is the inevitable master of ceremonies, whose pleasing personality introduces the entire cast.

Gleason and Allyn, in a musical cocktail, present one of the most outstanding musical offerings ever brought to the stage. A featured member of the Greenwich Village Follies, Miss Allyn is known as "The Personality Girl," and with her dazzling appearance and musical accomplishments, is a decided hit.

Hal and Rody Crider present an unusual act in their upside down dancing number. The male member is not only a finished dancer on his

DEMOCRATS OPEN OFFICE IN HOTEL

Headquarters of the Jackson county Democratic central committee have been opened in the Holland Hotel building at the corner of Sixth and Fr streets, it was announced today by Frank Desouza, committee chairman, William Grenbemer of Ashland, secretary, will be in charge of the headquarters, under the supervision of Chairman Ralph Stevenson.

Activities of the committee pertaining to the November elections will be centered at these offices, which will be open during the day and in the evenings.

OPERATOR 13 IS COLORFUL PICTURE

With the Civil War as the colorful background, "Operator 13," now at the Studio theater—based upon Robert W. Chambers' last and greatest novel—is crammed with interesting sidelights upon one of the least known phases of the rebellion, the espionage systems of the armies of the North and South.

Marion Davies and Gary Cooper have the leading roles.

BIRTHS

Dr. and Mrs. D. S. Phillips are the parents of a son weighing seven pounds, five ounces, born today at the Community hospital.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to express our sincere thankfulness and appreciation of the many acts of kindness to us during the long drawn out illness of our dear wife and mother by our friends and neighbors, and especially of the kind sympathy during our recent bereavement. Very sincerely, W. H. Stewart, Mrs. Mona E. Macpherson.

Attention Pioneers.
The Southern Oregon Pioneers Society will hold its 58th reunion in the Court House in Jacksonville on October 4th, 1934, commencing at 10:30. ## BEAVER CREEK ROAD NOT YET SMOOTHED

Karl Janouch, supervisor of Rogue River National forest today stated that although the road recently constructed between Beaver creek and Ashland mountain has been opened to the public, it has not yet been made ready for steady travel. The road, which has been only roughened out, is too rocky for the average motorist, Janouch said, but will be in good condition within two weeks. When the Ashland watershed road is opened, the drive to Ashland via the new Beaver creek road will provide a beautiful scenic trip, Janouch said.
