Miss Newby Bride Of Gilbert Hill

A lovely wedding was solemnized Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Newby in Valley View, when their younger daughter, Edna Margaret, became the bride of Gilbert H. Hill of Medford.

The ceremony was performed by Reverend Sidney Hall of Ashland, and was attended by about 40 relatives and close friends. Just preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Floyd Morris of Talent sang "I Love You Truly," and promptly at 7 o'clock the bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Morris.

Little Marjorie Williams, as flower girl, and Shirley Newby, as ring-bearer, niece of the bride, led the bridal procession. Little Marjorie in a frock of pale yellow silk carried a basket of pink rose petals, which were strewn in the bride's path, and little Shirley, wearing pale green silk net, carried the ring on a white satin pillow.

They were followed by Miss Kathleen Estes of San Francisco, as bridesmaid, who wore a gown of pastel blue silk organza with coral sash and slippers, and wore a corsage of gardenias. The bride descended the open stairs, wearing a gown of ivory tulle. Her veil of tulle was caught up with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of pale pink rosebuds and white snapdragons, and a handkerchief of sheer linen and old lace made from the wedding dress of Mr. Hill's grandmother.

At an altar of pastel gladioli and ferns arranged before the fireplace, the bride was met by the minister. Mr. Hill's attendants was R. L. Zoell of Prospect. Before the marriage service, Mrs. Morris sang "Because," and the impressive ring service was read.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was held in the rooms, which were beautifully decorated with baskets of gladioli and ferns. The guests were invited to the dining room, where a beautiful cake was cut by the bride and refreshments served.

The bride, a graduate of the Ashland high school, and who attended the Southern Oregon Normal school, is a popular member of the younger set. Mr. Hill is the son of Mrs. D. B. Hill of Medford, and a member of one of Medford's pioneer families. He is an orchardist in the Medford district where, after a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home to their many friends.

Lees-Martin Wedding At Millard Residence

Sunday evening at 5 o'clock, at a simple ring ceremony at the home of Rev. D. E. Millard, Miss Helene Noreen Lees became the bride of Edwin Paul Martin.

Attending the couple were Miss Geraldine Fox and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Noel. Guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lees, parents of the bride.

The bride was attired in blue silk crepe with black and white accessories. Mrs. Noel wore French blue, with black accessories.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lees of Central Point, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Martin, also of Central Point.

After the ceremony, relatives and the attendants gathered at the home of the bride's parents for the wedding reception.

Refreshments were served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Prince of Phoenix, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Root and Barbara Jean, Mrs. Lois Cook Young, Miss Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Noel, brothers and sister of the bride, and the honor guests.
