To Hold Clinic—A clinic for pre-school children will be held at the Sparrow Memorial clinic in the Jackson county health department, on Thursday, October, the clinic will be held from 1:30 to 4 p. m. Appointments may be made by telephoning 1359.

Sargent Injured—Willard N. Sargent of 53 E. Third street suffered cuts about the head, and shock, when his car crashed at the side of the highway near the Jackson county fairgrounds about 1 o'clock this morning. Officers said they believed Sargent had fallen asleep while driving. Dr. Inskip was called to attend him.

Assigned Here—First Lieut. Theodore P. Coburn, FA-184, formerly of the South Fork CCC camp, who has been stationed at the district headquarters on temporary duty for the past two weeks, has been assigned here and will become an assistant district quartermaster after helping with the re-enrollment work.

Artificial Eye Maker—Sidney O. Noles of San Francisco, an artificial eye maker, will be in Medford tomorrow, and during his stay will make his headquarters at the Jackson Hotel. It is expected that there will be a number of valley people interested in Mr. Noles' visit. He is an expert eye maker, and is able to match the false optic with the person's other eye.

Enroute to Illinois—Claire Conway of Hamilton Field, San Rafael, Cal., arrived here Tuesday to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Zoia E. Arnold, and other relatives before continuing to Chamute Field, Rantoul, Ill., where he will be stationed until spring. He was joined here by his brother, Charles Conway, who will accompany him to Yellowstone national park and to a Century of Progress exposition in Chicago. Charles will return here by bus in about four weeks.

Firemen Work Fast—Less than two minutes after receiving a call at 7:43 this morning, the fire department's chemical wagon was out of the hall and at the scene of a fire at 37 Tripp street, where an automobile was ablaze. A couple of squirrels from a hand extinguisher operated by Fireman Eddie Demmer, quenched the flames. According to the auto owner, an explosion might have occurred with disastrous results, had the firemen been less speedy.

LaSalle to Leave—Lieut. Edward H. LaSalle, who has been serving as motor transport officer at the CCC headquarters, has been assigned to Camp Tiller, Captain Glenn J. Key, commander of the Upper Rogue camp, will be stationed here as motor transport officer. Lieut. Worth E. Kirtland of the Tiller CCC camp has been assigned to Camp Upper Rogue on detached service. Lieut. Cyril H. McBride will command the camp with the departure of Captain Glenn J. Key.

To Have Dance—The Chamber of Commerce at Talent is giving a dance Friday evening in the Talent Grange hall, for the benefit of the Talent playground. The public is invited.

In Ashland Tomorrow—Mrs. Mark V. Weatherford, state regent of Oregon society, Daughters of the American Revolution, will make her first official visit to Mt. Ashland chapter on Thursday, October 4. Mrs. Henry C. Casey of Ashland is state regent of the Oregon society and state chairwoman of genealogical records and membership in the national society. Mrs. John Cadzow is regent of the local chapter—Ashland Daily Tidings.

Visits the Fair—Jack Hemstreet, who left here recently for the east, spent three days at the fair in Chicago before continuing to Detroit, according to word received from him today by Chief of Police Clotario McCredie.

Wortman Returns—Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Wortman and Mrs. Julia Mitchell have just returned to Phoenix from a trip north, where Mrs. Mitchell visited her sister in Seattle. Marvin Albert drove the Wortman car for them on the trip. Mr. Wortman, who was seriously ill this summer, spent two weeks in the hospital at Portland, under the care of Dr. Coffin, heard specialist.

County Clerk Carter reports that there was a fairly steady stream of people registering all day yesterday. It is anticipated that the closing days will show something of a rush. Persons are required to register who have not voted at a general election for two years; who have moved to another precinct; or changed their address; women who married since the last election; and thereby changed their names; people who will reach the age of 21 years between now and election day; and persons who have not voted in this state before and have resided in it for six months.

Federal Judge James Alger Fee will be here next Saturday when naturalization hearings will be held, according to word received yesterday by local federal officials.

The federal court for the southern Oregon term was opened Tuesday and then recessed until Saturday. The delay was due to unfinished business at Portland, including the report of the federal grand jury, which is considering a number of southern Oregon criminal matters.

The federal jury term will open next Tuesday. Four criminal cases and one civil case are docketed. The proceedings are expected to take a week. It will be one of the shortest sessions in many years.

Will Rogers in Craterian Hit

One of America's most noted authors, Irvin S. Cobb, has supplied Will Rogers with his latest vehicle, "Judge Priest," opening today at the Craterian theater. The result is said to give Rogers the finest and most human role of all those he has played on the screen.
The popular series of stories by Cobb has been used as the basis for

Musical Show Now Showing At Rialto

Languorous romance, snappy tunes, a super-abundance of laughs and a smashing big production make "Down to Their Last Yacht" musical extravaganza, top-notch screen entertainment. It began its local engagement at the Rialto theater yesterday, and was greeted by delighted audiences.

The spectacular events of this show are built upon the exciting experiences of a group of American ex-millionaires stranded on a Utopian island in the South Sea, where life is one round of festivity. This gives lavish opportunities for comedy, smart dialogue, hitting melodies and elaborate dance numbers.

Mary Boland, as the island queen of advisor to would-be social climbers, make a splendid comedy team, each eliciting a maximum of laughs from her part. Sidney Fox and Sidney Blackmer, teamed together for the first time, are the romantic lovers of the story.

Nurses Will Meet Thursday Evening
