Wash Out 15 Miles of Kidney Tubes

Win Back Pep... Vigor... Vitality

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy.

If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount of urine, or burning and discomfort, the 15 MILES of kidney tubes need washing out. The danger signal may be the beginning of passing backache, leg pain, loss of pep and vitality, getting up nights, numbness, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness.

If kidneys don't empty 3 times every day, your body will take up these poisons causing serious trouble. It may knock you out and lay you up for many months. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS.

A doctor's prescription... which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give quick relief and will help to wash out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes.

But don't take chances with strong drugs or so-called "kidney cures" that claim to do it in 15 minutes, for they may seriously injure and irritate delicate tissues, leading on to DOAN'S PILLS... the old reliable relief that contains no "drugs" or harmful ingredients. Be sure you get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-McMillan Co.

Will Rogers in Craterian Film

Will Rogers, "whose soul is America," as someone has pointed out, "discovers" still another quarter of our land in "Judge Priest," which opened in the Craterian theater yesterday, and in so doing gives to the screen one of his greatest performances.

A sleepy Kentucky town of the early 90's supplies the background for the newest Rogers vehicle, fashioned from the famous Irvin S. Cobb stories of the small-town judge and his Civil War cronies. The film gives Rogers probably the finest opportunity of his screen career.

Richer in flavor even than the shrewd Yankee horse trader of "David Harum" or the wise and patient westerner of "They Had to See Paris," the drawing but quick-witted southern jurist is a memorable addition to the Rogers gallery of "Representative Americans."

The star's portrayal of Judge Priest has the mark of authenticity upon it. It is a notable folk portrait, just as his other characterizations have been the unique blending of a splendid talent with a rich and splendid role. But more than that, it stands alone for its sheer dramatic power. Seldom has Rogers had such opportunities as his present role affords to call both tears and laughter from his audience.

Lady Lions are sponsoring a Hummer Sale in Sparks Bldg., Saturday, Oct. 6. Anyone having old clothes to contribute, please leave there as early as possible.

PIONEERS CONDUCT ANNUAL CONCLAVE AT JACKSONVILLE

Pioneers gathered today in the old courtroom of the Jacksonville courthouse, for the 58th annual re-union of the Southern Oregon Pioneer association, which opened this morning to continue throughout the day.

Mrs. J. W. White was in charge of the morning program. John B. Griffin, known throughout southern Oregon as one of the oldest descendants in Jacksonville county, has acted as president of the association during the past year, and gave the opening address, followed by prayer offered by Rev. L. F. Belknap of Medford.

Mrs. Katherine Wendt of Jacksonville, accompanied by Marjory Paley, sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold" and "I Cannot Sing the Old Songs."

M. L. Nelson, secretary, read the minutes of the meeting last year, which was conducted in Ashland.

Following the piano solo by Wanda Wyant, O. H. Blanchard gave the address of the morning, "Modern Pioneerism." Mrs. Elsie Carleton Strang, accompanied at the piano by Miss Imogene Wallace, sang a solo, at the close of the morning session.

A basket dinner was held in the courtroom at noon. Election of officers was scheduled on this afternoon's program.

Friends of Mr. Sweeney comes to the Rialto theater tomorrow for a two-day run.

The picture is said to be one of the most riotously funny films to come to the screen in many a day. Certainly the situation of a meek mouse of a man turning in a night into a ferocious lion, a devil with the ladies, and the terror of the town, is unique enough to lead to any number of laughable sequences.

The mouse's miraculous change is inspired to a large extent by love, although liquor and the goings of an old pal contribute their share.

Charles Ruggles has the leading role, with Ann Dvorak furnishing the romantic part of the story.

Frederick Frey, chairman of the Community Chest executive board this morning, George Frey was named chairman of the drive, which will be conducted November 7, 8 and 9.

Present at the meeting were Mr. Frey, J. C. Thompson, Larry Schade, Eugene Thompson and John C. Mann. A. J. Hawk is also a member of the committee.

Organizations to participate in the drive are the Red Cross, Salvation Army, Jackson County Health association, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Girls Exchange.

Medford Junior high school football team will meet the Ashland Juniors in Van Scoop field here tomorrow in the first game of the season for the varsity teams of both schools.

Both Coach Henderson's squad and the Lithia City gridsters are composed this year of some of the best material ever to report for the two schools. Keen competition and rivalry is expected in the clash tomorrow afternoon.

The Medford school's second team played the Ashland first stringers at Ashland last week, suffering defeat, but the first eleven have as yet to taste the meat of the Ashland Cub's regulars.

Frisco Dives In Exciting Picture

A hard heart softened by love born in San Francisco's colorful old Barbary Coast, a hero as masterful as he is tender, another fighting man maddened by jealousy and a denouement as thought provoking as the gripping theme of the story—all these serve to make breathless entertainment of "Wharf Angel," which is now playing at the Rialto theater.

The picture, which recreates one of the world's most colorful legendary spots, is an excellent vehicle for such able players as Victor McLaglen, Preston Foster and Alison Skipworth, and marks the screen debut of Dorothy Dell, famous singing star of Ziegfeld Follies and radio fame.

The story concerns the adventures of two contrasting, fearless men, the one an altruistic fugitive from justice and the other a turbulent, fighting man of the sea.
