

PAINTING OF CAMP GIVEN COMMANDER

A beautiful water color painting of Wineglass CCC camp has been presented Major Clara H. Armstrong by the company, L. Howard Crawford, the artist located at the camp, painted the picture, which has been nicely framed, and is on exhibit at the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce.

ASHLAND LADY IS NAMED PRESIDENT PIONEER SOCIETY

At the 38th annual reunion of the Pioneers of southern Oregon at Jacksonville yesterday, Mrs. Eida Parlowe Anderson, of Ashland, was elected president for the ensuing year. Mrs. Geo. Dunne, wife of State Senator Dunne, of Ashland, was elected vice-president. Both elections were unanimous. The other officers are permanent.

During the nominations for president, Senator Dunne was nominated, but retired in favor of Mrs. Anderson. At the nomination of vice-president, Mrs. Dunne was nominated, but the chair misunderstood, and called a vote for the Senator instead, who was promptly elected, before the difficulty could be straightened. The matter was finally cleared up, with Mrs. Dunne elected for the new year.

Two violin numbers were greatly enjoyed by the pioneers. Miss Marjory Paley, accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. Hattie Reames White, was enjoyed after her beautiful rendition of "Kathlene."

The obituary of the members who have passed on during the past year was then read by the secretary, Mrs. Mamie Nelson. The obituary list is as follows:

Mrs. Mary M. Dunne, has, Hill Gilbert, John J. Murphy, Mrs. F. G. McConnell, John Barneburg, Mrs.

SHASTA-CASCADE DELEGATES HERE FOR CONVENTION

Schade, and for those who do not play the royal and ancient game, a trip to Crater Lake is planned.

Officers of the travel organization confidently admit that the attendance this year will far exceed that of previous years and it is hoped that Medford citizens will attend all the various meetings, especially in view of the fact that this is the first time the organization has held its annual convention outside of California.

The general convention program follows:

Friday—P. M.
5:00—Meeting of Chamber of Commerce secretaries of Wonderland.

6:30—Annual dinner of Board of Directors for Chamber of Commerce secretaries—Hotel Medford.

Saturday—A. M.
