MAJOR ARMSTRONG HOST TO PARTY ON C. C. C. CAMP TOUR

Major C. H. Armstrong was host to a party of Medford people yesterday on a motor tour of the CCC camps in the Crater Lake area, starting at the South Fork camp, near Butte Falls, and ending up at the Wise Glass camp on the east side of Crater Lake.

A bountiful chicken dinner was served at the Mill Creek camp, after which the party motored to Crater Lake, stopping at the rim, where this view of Klamath Lake with Mt. Shasta looming up its snowy crest in the distance, was unusually clear and beautiful.

At the Wise Glass camp, a delicious supper was served in the mess hall, and there as at the other camps, Major Armstrong escorted his guests on a camp inspection, showing all the interesting details of camp life, and CCC activities.

The party returned to Medford about 8:30 last night after a most enjoyable excursion, and a much clearer understanding of the excellent work of the CCC boys, and the importance of this form of federal relief in economic life of southern Oregon.

The members of the party included:

Major and Mrs. George Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Harder, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Thieroff, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Banwell, R. W. Ruhl, Lieutenant Roy Craft.

... and while we're talking about cigarettes

I don't suppose you were ever in a warehouse where they were storing hogsheads of tobacco. Anyway here's something interesting: Liggett & Myers, the people who make Chesterfields, have about 4 1/2 miles of storage warehouses where they age the tobacco.

Down South where they grow tobacco folks say... It's no wonder so many people smoke Chesterfields. The tobaccos are mild and ripe to start with, and then they're aged the right way to make a milder, better-tasting cigarette.

a good cigarette gives you a lot of pleasure—
