At Craterian

Comedy, drama and music—offered by the largest collection of stage, screen and radio stars ever seen together—feature the most unusual entertainment to come to the Craterian theater in many months. The production which opens tomorrow night, is "Gift of Gab."

The story of "Gift of Gab" concerns itself with the rise of Edmund Lowe from an auctioneer to the foremost broadcasting announcer and reporter in America. Lowe and Gloria Stuart, blonde and more beautiful than ever, furnish plenty of thrills as he rises and falls on the way to the top.

Comedy elements are supplied by a large assortment of stage, Phil Baker, Victor Moore, proprietor of "Triplex" Livers, sponsoring the broadcast; Alice White, Hugh O'Connell, Douglas Fowler, Henry Armetta, Helen Vinson and Sterling Holloway. Music is given to the audience by Ruth Etting, Ethel Waters, Phil Baker, Gene Austin, the Beale Street Boys, the Downey Sisters and Gus Arnheim and his band. Salute is presented during a radio broadcast by a mock murder mystery in which Bela Lugosi, Karloff, June Knight, Blinnie Barnes, Chester Morris, Douglas Montgomery, Paul Lukas and Roger Pryor display their talents.

The conglomeration is tuneful, punchy, rollicking and at times insane, but entertainment at all times.

"MYSTERY LINER" IS WALLACE THRILLER

"Mystery Liner," Edgar Wallace's gripping story of ghosts and murders aboard a masterless liner plying the fog-enshrouded seas, opened at the Roxy theater this afternoon. The picture moves in rapid-fire fashion from the laboratories of a great scientist when a mysterious invention has just been perfected, to the decks of the palatial ocean greghound, "Guthrie," where the principal action takes place. The invention,

Lovely Star In Rialto's Drama

Pride is a powerful force in the lives of those intent on "keeping up appearances." But if you were married to a man who was cruel to you, would your pride keep you from revealing that fact in a divorce court, in spite of the fact that your refusal so to testify involved your almost certain conviction? It is better to be branded for the commission of an offense of which you are innocent, rather than which permits the operation of the ship from a point on shore, is covered by a foreign government which appreciates its tremendous war-time importance, and it is over the possession of the invention that the complications ensue.
