

TIRELESS DEANS PLAN WINTER PLAY WHILE PALS REST

Barnstorming Jaunt to Start Sunday at Chicago — Frisch Wants Long Sleep — Rowe Will Get Married

By PAUL MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer.
DETROIT, Oct. 10. — (AP) — The Deans, Dizzy and Paul, are going to keep right on pitching.

While most of the world series players packed their grips for a big rush to the wide open spaces to catch up on some long lost sleep or chase jackrabbits, wild boar or deer, Dizzy and Daffy still couldn't resist the lure of the diamond. They are preparing to the amusement of even their own mates, to join a baseball barnstorming troupe.

Just Warmed Up.
"Shucks, Paul and me are just getting warmed up," boasted the famous Dizzy, who has pitched in "only" nine games—three of them world series engagements—over the past 19 days. "I feel like I can throw baseballs all winter and then start right out on the 1935 season. So does Paul."

"Sure," broke in Paul. "I'm in great shape now."
So, the two brothers, who won 49 games between them in the great Cardinal rush for the National league pennant and all four St. Louis victories in the world series, are going to keep on throwing 'em. Dizzy didn't know exactly, but thought he and Paul would join the barnstormers in Chicago next Sunday.

Frisch Tired Out.
Manager Frankie Frisch of the new world's champions and Mickey Cochrane, pilot of the famed Tigers, wanted nothing but sleep.

"I'm going to stay in bed for five days," said Frisch. "Am I tired."
"Me for some good shut eye," Mickey said, "and then two weeks of golfing and hunting. After that, I'm going to Honolulu for three weeks' vacation."

Pepper Martin is going to Mexico to hunt wild boar, deer, mountain lion and bears with his old shooting companions, Otto Krueger and Mac Blocker. Ernie Orsatti and Jack Rothrock, Cardinal outfielders, plan to hunt and fish together out in California.

White to Lose Tonals.
Jo-Jo White, the walking man in the series, is getting his tonsils yanked out here and then going to Miami, Fla., for the winter. Tommy Bridges will rest in Detroit while and then make a trip to Gordonsville, Tenn., and Nashville, Tenn.

Charley Gehringer, who is a big automobile accessory man in Detroit during the winter months, will rest here awhile and then join Connie Mack's All-Stars for their tour of the Orient.

Goose Goslin is going back to his farm near Salem, N. J.; Bill Hallahan will stay in St. Louis while and then return to his home at Birmingham, N. Y.; Jimmy Delaney is heading for Greensboro, N. C., and home. Rip Collins is going back home to Rochester, N. Y., and "watch a lot of football games."

And, as everyone knows, Schoolboy Rowe is getting married.

'RED' FRANKLIN OUT TWO WEEKS

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 10.—(AP)—The Oregon State college football squad, which has depended on "Red" Franklin for its offense, was on its own today with the freckled flanker definitely on the sidelines for two or three weeks.

Further examination last night revealed a bad shoulder bruise received in the Stanford game. Coach Lon Stiner said Franklin will be definitely out of the Southern California game a week from Saturday and the Washington State game the week following.

Australian Grappler Works Out With Kangaroo

Bonnie Muir, Australian wrestler, keeps in trim when at home by working out with his pet kangaroo. The animal is able to exert tremendous power because of its strong hind legs, and as often as not puts the grappler flat on his back. The athlete is shown above after getting the best of an encounter with the beast.

WILD GRAPPLE IS FANS' EXPECTATION

When two fast and experienced grapplers who both are perfectly willing to go the limit in roughing it up, are put in a ring together and told to wrestle, the outcome generally down in tug and tussle history as a wild and furious match. Such will be the case, local fans believe, when the wily Pete DeCastro, Italian muscle-mangler, tangles with Bonnie Muir, burly heavyweight champion of Australia, in the main event of a three-bout card at the Armory Thursday night.

Although outweighed and overpowered by the big Australian, who flattened big Rube Wright with a backward body slam here last week, DeCastro is undaunted. He boasts that he'll win if Muir stays clean, and that the Australian way of wrestling is no better than his own.

Big and burly Harry Demetral of Chicago, "Terrible Greek," will meet Cliff Thiede, former Long Beach, Cal., lifeguard, in the semi-final, while Bob Kenaston of Gold Hill will tangle with Armenian Burk in the warm-up match.

Dairying recently became an important industry in Harbison county, Kentucky, with the establishment of a community creamery and cheese factory.

A new unit is being constructed at the Borden prison farm, Trenton, N. J., at a cost of $1,000,000. Some 500 prisoners will be housed.

The establishment of a government subsidized beet sugar industry in Chile is proposed in a bill under consideration by a committee of the Chilean house of representatives.

WEBFOOTS NEAR APEX OF FORM

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 10.—(AP)—Most of the University of Oregon football players are rounding into good shape for one of their most important games of the season, that against University of Washington at Portland Saturday.

Defensive work against passes and against the strong running attack feared from the talented Washington backs is occupying much of the practice sessions. However, the offensive is also being stressed with timing of the intricate reverses, criss-crosses and straight smashes being perfected.

Last week Coach Prink Callahan emphasized tackling and other fundamentals.

TRAFFIC DEATHS GROWING FAST IN BRITISH ISLANDS

Authorities Worried Over Rapid Increase—30 Killed in Single Week in London —One City's List Is Clear

By LEE WILLSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
LONDON.—(UP)—The death toll is mounting on the highways of Britain. The authorities are worried over the growing number of persons killed and injured in motor car accidents.

In nine days from August 3 to August 11, which included a bank holiday week-end, 178 persons were killed. And these figures do not include those dying later as a result of accidents during that period.

In London alone, during one recent week, 30 were killed and 1094 injured. In the past 22 weeks there have been more than 3018 deaths and 104,514 cases of injury in Great Britain.

The government has passed a parliamentary road traffic act to give the minister of transport almost unlimited powers to deal with the situation. The minister, Leslie Hore-Belisha, has toured the roads in search of ideas to curb the growing number of accidents.

Pedestrian crossings have been inaugurated here in an effort to eliminate "jay walkers." They are marked with zig-zag white lines, but so far efforts to confine the street navigation of London's citizens to these marked areas has not been successful.

Only one city in Great Britain or more than 100,000 population has been able to show a clear death sheet during the 22-week period. Sunderland, with 180,000 inhabitants, had no motoring fatalities.

The chief constable of the city attributes this to the persistent safety-first propaganda put out by the city authorities.

OLD SEA GIANTS ARE EXCAVATED FROM CHALK BED

NEW YORK.—(UP)—Two 60,000,000-year-old sea giants—a sea turtle and a sea lizard, called the mosasaur, have been unearthed from the chalk beds of Alabama.

These latest contributions to historical geology reveal that the present state of Alabama once was the bottom of a prehistoric ocean. Taken from the chalk beds, which are associated with the Cretaceous period, they are objects of unusual interest to paleontologists, according to J. J. Renger, who reported his discovery of them in "Rocks and Minerals."

The turtle measures ten feet from stem to stern and has a width of 11 feet, between the two forward flippers. From the joint in the shoulder girdle to the tip of the flipper is four feet, four inches. With a prow in the form of a six-inch, pointed beak, its head is twenty inches long. Despite the turtle's weight, which was about two and a half tons, and although it appears to have been cumbersome, it was an able and powerful swimmer.

Compared to the recently acquired ancestor of present-day turtles, the lizard, which once undulated through the shallow seas above Alabama, is not without certain points of interest to those who demand the unusual in prehistoric animals. The lizard's head is five feet long, the jaws of which are about four feet in length, with sharp, curved teeth.

Reconstructing the probable habits of the ancient reptile, Renger explained that because of its lack of prehensile limbs, and without teeth which could tear its food apart, the lizard had to swallow its food whole.
