

WEBFEET HOT FOR SATURDAY BATTLE

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 12.—(AP)—The University of Oregon football squad, 32 strong, is scheduled to leave here at noon today for Portland, where the Webfeet meet the University of Washington Huskies in a coast conference game Saturday. Coach Prink Callison of the Webfeet held his last heavy scrimmage Thursday afternoon.

That the players were in excellent condition was attested by the most spirited workout in years yesterday. The team which walks off the field winner will have a big start and an undefeated record in the coast conference championship running. A tie would be the only possible way for both to remain top notch contenders for the championship.

Most of the Oregon players were ready to see action against the tough-down and victory hungry Huskies.

One regular who will be on the sidelines is Budd Jones, letterman right end, whose knee, injured in the U. C. L. A. game, was still in bad condition when the cast was removed yesterday.

TIGERS OFF FOR EUREKA CLASH

(By Harold Grove)
Coaches D. K. Burgher and E. M. Kirtley left with 25 Medford high school football players at 9 o'clock this morning for Eureka, Cal., where the Tigers will play the Eureka high squad Saturday night.

The Medford boys will gain a thrill when they play on the night field. Some of them had the opportunity of playing a night game when Medford high met Eugene at Eugene last year on Hayward field. This experience will help them considerably.

Boys making the trip are: O. Bates, B. Bates, Kindred, Harrison, Pierce, Stuart, Ghelardi, Brown, Lewis, Smith Fowler, Dickerson, Baker, Hinman, Gifford, Dorf, Stocks, R. Lewis, Estes, Pennington, Bayliss, Stevenson, Octoman, Young, Kunzman and Manager John Millard.

MAJOR ALL-STARS TO EXHIBIT IN PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 12.—(AP)—A traveling team of ball slugging major league all-stars will play a Portland team of AA and better baseball players here next Tuesday afternoon at Vaughn street park.

Jimmy Foxx and Mike Higgins, two of Connie Mack's great slugging Athletics, and Heinie Manush of Washington are the big attractions in the traveling team's attack. Pitchers include Lyons, Whitehill and Walberg.

Communications

By All Means
To the Editor:
At this time I wish to beg space in your paper, in order that I may speak a word in defense of the late Olga Anderson, for many years a deputy in the sheriff's office. My sense of fair play makes it compulsory for me to say a word in her behalf.

It is unbelievable that in the space of one year's time that Miss Anderson's accounts in the sheriff's office could be short to the amount of three hundred and sixty-three dollars and sixty-four cents ($363.64), when an audit in 1933 of the county's books covering a three-year period, showed a discrepancy of only fifty (50) cents.

We all know that in this day and age that it is hard enough for a live woman to defend her character, let alone a woman that has passed on, who cannot return beyond the grave to speak in her own defense.

I believe that this matter should be sifted to the bottom and, if necessary, even to the extent that outside accountants be brought in to audit the books, so that the name of Olga Anderson may be cleared of all calumny.

HENRIETTA B. MARTIN,
President, Good Government Congress, Incorporated,
Medford, October 11.

Ed. Note.—We agree that the matter should be sifted to the bottom and the exact cause of the shortage be determined. Our understanding is that, in addition to the special audit, the bonding company, which stands the loss, will also make its own audit. It is this paper's opinion that when all the facts are known, the discrepancy will be found to be a matter of bookkeeping, rather than any more serious irregularity.

Typewriter Aided in Marriage
SPRINGFIELD, Mo.—(UP)—The Rev. E. C. Sechler can't be stumped. When Myrtle Lawson, 21, and Archie Breedlove, both deaf and dumb, went to him to be married he typed out the vows on his typewriter. The bride and groom nodded their heads to make the necessary answers.

Hole-in-One After 11 and 12
DAYTON, O.—(UP)—As a golfer Mrs. H. W. Alexander may not be consistent, but at least she accomplished something difficult. After taking 10 strokes on the fifth hole, 11 on the sixth and 12 on the seventh, she made a hole-in-one on a 146-yard eighth hole. She used a driver.

Declared Name Offensive
SEATTLE.—(UP)—His name has been offensive to him since childhood, Everett Hall Greene, self-styled artist and painter, told superior court in a petition to change it to Peter Jordan Savage. He had gone by the name of Savage since the death of his father ten years ago, he said.
