

GONZAGA SNARES COUGAR PASS TO GAIN 13-6 UPSET

Center Day Intercepts Pass And Runs 85 Yards For Win In Final Minute Of Play.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 13.—(AP)—Washington State college, lacking the flash with which it conquered Southern California last week, went down before Gonzaga university on the gridiron here today, 13 to 6.

Gonzaga snared its second touchdown in the last minute of play when Doug Day, center, intercepted a pass and dashed 35 yards. The crowd of 11,000 fans surged out on the field and had to be herded back of the sidelines before Quarterback Key could try for the point. He failed to convert.

Gonzaga's first score was a spectacular 85-yard run by Ike Peterson in the third quarter, the Bull Dogs' first touchdown against W. S. C. since 1931. Excellent blocking helped him get away, but after a piece of fancy dodging there were no Cougars near, and he loped the last 30 yards.

Washington State retaliated near the end of the third quarter when Goddard passed to Dover in the end zone for a touchdown, the play starting three yards from the goal. Johnson failed to kick the goal.

ASHLAND SCORES 8-0 WIN AT PASS

With a touchdown in the first quarter and a safety in the second, the Ashland high school football team defeated Grants Pass high school Saturday afternoon at Grants Pass.

Ashland was successful in making 23 first downs, 12 by passes and 11 through scrimmage. A pass netted Grants Pass its only first down of the game. One Ashland punt was blocked and five attempts by Grants Pass failed.

MIGHTY ST. MARY'S UPSET BY NEVADA

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Suffering this morning after feeling the aftermath of a farewell party to which the guests brought brickbats—the Gaels of St. Mary's gathered the shreds of their dignity about them today as they sped toward New York and their intercollegiate football battle with Fordham next week.

And the case of it all was a fighting little band of University of Nevada Wolves, who didn't seem to realize they were 10 to 1 underdogs and now up yesterday to whip the Gaels 9 to 7 and turn a scheduled "breathery" game into the most astonishing upset for western football has seen in years.

STATERS TROUNCE COLUMBIA 39-12

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 13.—(AP)—For the first time since the start of the 1934 Pacific coast football season, the Oregon State Beavers yesterday looked and acted the part of a coast conference team as they ran up a 39 to 12 win over Columbia university of Portland.

Taking the ball after the kickoff, the Beavers began a driving offensive which carried them straight down the field to their first score. A minute or so later they had scored again, this time on a 77-yard return of the kickoff by Jimmy Swanson, right half.

A third score was made by Jimmy Daneri, substitute for "Red" Franklin, disabled ace of the Beaver backfield, who crashed through center and dashed 66 yards to score before the period ended.

Columbia's game attempt at a comeback in the third quarter ended after they had scored two touchdowns, using a clever aerial offensive that the Beaver backfield couldn't fathom.

Oregon State's substitutes ran up several more scores in the closing quarter of the game as the Columbia squad tired. The contest was the last non-conference tilt of the Oregon State schedule for 1934.

Score by quarters:
Columbia 0 0 12 0—12
Oregon State 19 0 7 13—39

OREGON BOWS TO WASHINGTON 16-6 RIOT AT FINISH

Washington's second touchdown, which made victory certain, came on the wings of another forward pass. Art Ahonen whistling a true shot to Burt Bufkin, who snared the ball flying over the heads of Van Vliet in the end zone. It was a beautiful catch, Bufkin jumping above Van Vliet to haul down the pigskin. Logg failed to tally the extra point from placement.

The victory gave Coach Jimmy Phehan his first triumph over Oregon in his four years at Washington, and put the Huskies very much in the running for the Pacific coast conference championship, with two wins and no losses. Phehan's record against the Webfooters now stands at one win, two losses and one tie. His charges eked out a scoreless tie in 1932.

Husky Sophs Strong
The coach favored his young sophomores backfield axes led by Quarterback Logg and they dashed out plenty of trouble for Oregon all the time they were in the struggle.

Logg, hailed as a great kicker, lived up to his name, booting punts which averaged close to 45 yards, and scoring 50 per cent of his attempts for points. He ran up a field goal and an extra point after a touchdown on his first two attempts, and missed another try for a field goal from the Oregon 30 yard line in the third period, and missed his chance for another point after the second touchdown in the fourth.

Oregon tallied its touchdown after a dizzy break on a punt. A quick kick by Bob Parke sailed over Logg's head in the last two minutes of the third period, and the Husky safety man let the pigskin get away from him after touching it as it rolled along the ground.

Cain finally caught up with the ball and saved a possible safety by falling on the oval 12 inches from the goal line. Logg's hurried punt zoomed out of bounds on his 33 yard line and the Oregonians threw everything they had into a drive for a touchdown. An end-around play sent Morse dashing to the 15 yard line where Michek and Van Vliet thrust vicious drives into the line to make it a first down on the 3-yard line.

Van Vliet cracked right tackle for one yard, and Michek followed with his head down through right guard for the touchdown.

Washington's first touchdown was chalked up after a 33 yard drive. It opened with Cain throwing a five yard pass to Logg, and a series of plunges by Haines, Cain and Sulkosky which put the Huskies on Oregon's 10 yard line. Stopped on the next running play, Logg called for a pass by Haines, who whipped a southpaw sizzler to Cain who made a neat catch in the corner of the end zone.

Washington took advantage of Michek's fumble for the second goal-line score, Bufkin recovering for the Huskies on Oregon's 36. Michek dropped the pigskin when he was cracked by Sulkosky as he ripped through the Washington line. Ahonen and Sulkosky battered down to the 11 yard line on three vicious plunges, and the former gave the purple and gold regulars an even break on touchdowns by shooting a whistler to Bufkin behind the goal line.

MICHIGAN STATE ROUTS CARNEGIE WOLVERINES LOSE

EAST LANSING, Mich., Oct. 13.—(AP)—Making a determined bid for national grid recognition, Michigan State today won a 19-10-0 intercollegiate victory over Carnegie Tech, as the Spartans unleashed a brilliant running attack which bewildered the invaders in every quarter.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—(AP)—The University of Chicago football team rose up in all its might this afternoon and knocked the toppling Wolverines of Michigan off the peak of the Big Ten, where they have been perched through four gridiron seasons. The score was 27 to 0.

Michigan went down beneath four touchdowns, two by Jay Berwanger and two by Ned Bartlett, and three place kicks for extra points by Berwanger.

PITT MAULS TROY, PENN HOLDS YALE, HARVARD WINNER

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13.—(AP)—The lingering ache of the great wounds Southern California twice tore in the Pitt Panthers' hide in the Rose Bowl softened under great grobs of revenge balm today as Pittsburgh crushed the Trojans 20 to 6. A crowd of 50,000 saw the game.

It was the first time the huge fellows from California, conquerors of the Panther 47 to 14, in the annual New Year's classic of 1930 and 35 to 0 in 1933, ever penetrated east of Chicago.

And with their ears still red from the taunts of the Trojan dally that they had lost their might as "toys of some henna-haired beauty" in Hollywood, they proceeded to lose their second game in two weeks, the first time that has happened since Howard Jones took over the head coach's job in 1924.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 13.—(AP)—A gallant band of Pennsylvania sophomores surprised 25,000 half-frozen spectators here today by holding Yale's heavier eleven to 14-8 margin in a game, the Elis were figured to take pretty much in its stride.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 13.—(AP)—Scoring one touchdown in the first four minutes and another in the last five minutes, Harvard made the most of its opportunities to defeat Brown, 13 to 0, before a crowd of 12,000 here today.

STAGGMEN SCORE MORAL VICTORY OVER CALIFORNIA

MEMORIAL STADIUM, BERKELEY, Cal., Oct. 13.—(AP)—Fighting as gamely as their grand old coach, Amos Alonzo Stagg, could wish, College of the Pacific's Bengals were defeated, 7 to 6, by California's Bears here today but drew all the credit of a moral victory. The Bears scored in the first period, the Bengals in the second.

STANFORD STADIUM, PALO ALTO, Cal., Oct. 13.—(AP)—Halting the feared Northwestern Aerial attack, Stanford's Cardinals defeated the Big Ten team in today's intercollegiate football contest by a 20-to-0 score.

Stanford scored twice in the second period and again in the third. Northwestern scored but two first downs and advanced into shallow Stanford territory only twice.

MEMORIAL COLISEUM, LOS ANGELES, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Led by clever Charles Chesire, who raced 93 yards for their first touchdown, the University of California at Los Angeles football team won a hard earned victory over Montana, 16 to 0, here today before 20,000 persons.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 13.—(AP)—The best Oregon State college freshman team seen here for several years this afternoon defeated Southern Oregon Normal of Ashland, 13 to 0, on Bell field.

A powerful Rook line repeatedly smothered attempted running plays by crashing through the Sons line before the Normal school's play was fully under way. And while the Rook line was taking care of running plays, an alert backfield, featuring Joe Gray, fullback, and Elmer Kolberg, half, either broke up or intercepted attempted passes.

A pass from Gray to Kolberg, good for 35 yards, resulted in the first Rook touchdown late in the second period. The remaining score was made in the closing minutes of the game on a determined drive down the field by the Oregon State Rooks.

The Sons lost more scrimmage than they gained, and completed only one pass. The Rooks netted 100 yards from scrimmage and 60 yards from passes.

DAZZLING ATTACK NETS NOTRE DAME WIN OVER PURDUE

Illinois Defeats Ohio State 14-13 In Thrilling Battle — Wisconsin Swamps South Dakota 28-7.

NOTRE DAME STADIUM, South Bend, Ind., Oct. 13.—(AP)—A dazzling attack in the second period, which saw the Notre Dame backs rush over three touchdowns, carried Notre Dame to an 18 to 7 victory over Purdue before a record breaking crowd of 45,000 spectators today.

George Melinkovich scored two of the Irish touchdowns and Fred Carideo tallied the third by running back an intercepted pass for seventy-five yards. Purdue scored its touchdown in the final minutes, Jim Carter capping a 64-yard march and going over from two-yard line.

CAMPAIGN, Ill., Oct. 13.—(AP)—Illinois' battling grid-iron warriors, scoring early and barely stalling off a terrific Ohio State closing rush, defeated the Buckeyes today, 14 to 13 in a thrilling Big Ten championship game. Illinois scored in the first and third periods, and the Buckeyes crashed home for two touchdowns early in the final frame, but lost by failing to connect on a try for the extra point.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 13.—(AP)—Wisconsin, recovered from the shock of being scored upon in the first five minutes of play and ran across four touchdowns to defeat South Dakota State 28 to 7 here today.

The Anlu race, probable first inhabitants of Japan, has diminished to about 15,000, living chiefly on the islands of Yesso and Sakhalin.

Massachusetts' fire loss bill was reduced $6,224,719 in 1933 as compared with 1932.

MARIAN M'DOUGALL IS HANDY WINNER OF WOMEN'S OPEN

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 13.—(AP)—Miss Marian McDougall of Portland, won the annual women's western open golf championship on the Portland Golf club course here this afternoon by defeating Mrs. Guy Riegel of Spokane, Wash., 9 and 7.

The match was pretty much one-sided, with Miss McDougall leading nearly all the way around the scheduled 36-hole contest. The Portland girl shot consistently good golf from the first hole, whereas Mrs. Riegel's game today failed to match her standard of the past week.

A consistently poor starter and strong finisher, the Spokane golfer couldn't make her putter work as it did during her earlier matches, and time after time her putts rimmed the cup but remained on the green.

Halving the first two holes, Miss McDougall won the third and fourth by shooting a birdie 3 and a par three compared to her opponent's four-four. From that time on during the match, Mrs. Riegel could not match the smooth and steady play of her opponent.

Stymied on the 13th green, Miss McDougall jumped her ball over the obstacle and into the cup for a halve. When they went in for lunch after the morning eighteen, Miss McDougall had a 6-up lead, which she carefully maintained all during the afternoon round.

Miss McDougall's medal score for the morning round was 38-41-79. It was impossible to credit Mrs. Riegel with a medal score for the round because she picked up on the 18th.

Miss McDougall, as a result of her play today, now holds two important women's golf championships—the Pacific Northwest and the western open.

SALEM, Oct. 13.—(AP)—The Salem high school football team crushed and pounded its way to a 25 to 0 win over the Chemawa Indians here Friday, and in so doing kept the Indians from once crossing the 50-yard line.

HUNTERS SET FOR PHEASANT SEASON

Hunters are already filling up their shotguns to start out Monday with the opening of the pheasant season, which allows any licensed person to bag four Chinese pheasants in any one day, or eight in any consecutive seven days, providing that not more than one female bird is taken in any seven consecutive days. The bag limit on grouse and native pheasants is the same, without the female bird limitation, while a hunter may shoot ten quail in any seven consecutive days. The season applies only to mountain or plumed, California or valley varieties of quail, and to both Chinese and native pheasants. It extends to October 31, inclusive.

Sergeant Ed Walker of the state police game division reports that the pheasants abound in the usual numbers this season, while quail are more plentiful than usual. Refuges for young birds just released have been set aside throughout the valley, plainly designated by state game commission signs. Among others, are protected areas located along Beall lane on the Brophy tracts and on the Gora ranch. Failure to observe the signs on these and other areas is a court offense.

Shipping birds either out of the state or within the state, is restricted by seals and permits obtainable at the state police office as a small charge. No bird may be shipped lawfully without such permission.

Open season on migratory waterfowl will begin October 19, extending until December 29, in three-day periods with four-day intermissions. The bag limit for all migratory waterfowl, excepting geese and brant, is 12 in any one day and not to exceed 12 in any three consecutive shooting days, provided that the bag does not include more than five each in the aggregate of any variety of waterfowl.

Duck hunters will be restricted this year by a regulation providing that all hunters over 16 years of age must have in their possession at the time any migratory waterfowl is taken a federal migratory bird hunting stamp costing $1. The stamps may be purchased at the postoffice.

LEVERETTE PLAYS CLARK TODAY FOR PAT CUP HONORS

Leland Clark, most consistent player in the P. A. T. golf tournament, entered the finals Friday afternoon alongside Walter Leverette, by defeating R. A. Botts in a semi-final match, 3 and 2. Clark will meet Leverette, who shoots brilliant golf under a handicap of 18, for the possession of the silver trophy in a 36-hole contest starting at 9 a. m. today.

From the time Clark and Botts tied off to the time they put their clubs away and shook hands on the 16th, the outcome of the match Friday was not in doubt, despite the fact that Botts evened the count on the seventh, after settling down to a brief exhibition of his best golf for the afternoon. Clark played a better game throughout, consistently closing out beautiful drives and rounding up the ball with unerring mashes and putters. Botts, not on his usual game, was outclassed.

Clark whose handicap of four gave Botts eleven strokes, shot the 16 holes in 67, while his rival carded an 81. Clark stayed on the course all the way through, while Botts found himself in the rough on several occasions.

The winner shot the first hole in five, while Botts scored a seven. From the second tee Clark found the cup again in five, and Botts amended matters with a par four, taking a six on No. 3, while Clark continued his consistent five. Shooting determinedly but already showing signs of worry, Botts leveled off No. 4 with a par three, to Clark's four; scored five to Clark's five on No. 5, and came out on No. 7 all even, with a five against his adversary's par four.

Botts then on shot from one to two strokes above Clark, settling down only on the 11th and 15th with par fours. Clark began earnest club work after the seventh, scoring a par three on No. 8, a birdie four on No. 9, a par three on No. 10, par four on No. 11, par three on No. 12, par four on No. 13, and a birdie three on No. 16.

Botts then on shot from one to two strokes above Clark, settling down only on the 11th and 15th with par fours. Clark began earnest club work after the seventh, scoring a par three on No. 8, a birdie four on No. 9, a par three on No. 10, par four on No. 11, par three on No. 12, par four on No. 13, and a birdie three on No. 16.

In today's battle Clark will give Leverette 11 strokes, and is considered the under dog by a slight margin. If his opponent keeps up the golf he has exhibited so far during the tourney, Leverette plays without nerves, and smashes out his strokes with the care-free style that generally brings home the bacon.

Clark has also shown heels to his opponents heretofore in a consistent manner, playing steadily, and if he remains unshaken he is counted to make the outcome of the match today a close one. Clark and Leverette will meet as the finalists of a field of more than 100 players who began the annual tournament two months ago.

MUIR WOULD FACE BELCASTRO AGAIN

Claiming that he can beat Pete Belcastro, wild Italian grappler, nine times out of ten, despite his defeat on the Army mat last night, big Bonny Muir, heavyweight champion of Australia, is seeking a return match with the Italian for the main event of next week's fight card.

Promoter Mack Lillard stated today that Belcastro is considering the arrangement, but left town last night before making definite answer. He won the bout last night by unorthodox tactics, according to the Australian, who believes Belcastro's drop-kicks and flying fists will be easy to overcome if the two are matched again.
