The popular Oriental detective character created by Earl Derr Biggers—Charlie Chan—finds mystery mixed with danger in his latest adventure, "Charlie Chan in London," coming to the Rialto theater tomorrow.

Again portrayed by Warner Oland, Charlie Chan takes an apparently unsolvable mystery to save an innocent man from being hanged. With only 65 hours remaining before the innocent man must meet death, Chan gets to work. He finds he is working against time and a murderer as cunning as a fox. With only five hours to go, Chan lays a clever trap and snares his human foe without the aid of hounds or horse.

The proof is in the wear. Buy your ROSE at Ethelwyn B. Hoffmann's.

DROUGHT HINDERING PENDLETON RANCHERS

PENDLETON, Ore., Oct. 15. (AP)—A strong, cold west wind blowing over this district this morning dried up moisture and nullified most of the benefits of 21 of an inch rain which fell last night. Some ranchers are preparing to attempt what seeding despite the dust conditions, but the majority will wait for rain and if unfavorable conditions continue will seed in the spring.

PORTLAND, Oct. 15. (AP)—A meeting of west Lane county milk dealers at Florence Wednesday night and a statewide meeting of milk dealers here October 29, were announced today by E. G. Harlan, chairman of the Oregon milk control board.
