

STERLING MINES WOULD EJECT 13 FROM WORKINGS

The Sterling Mining company and George E. Young have filed suit in circuit court for an injunction against 13 defendants, seeking their ejection from land adjacent to the mine, and quieting of tax titles. The suit is similar to action taken last spring restraining "squatters" from mining on the property.

Defendants named in the present action are Harry Poeter and wife, Fred Dumont and William Dimont, Bret Newman and wife, and Richard Eze Newman, a son; N. S. Norson and V. H. Turnbough and wife and son, and Harley Hall and wife.

Defendants claim they hold tax title to the land. The mining company holds these titles are not valid. Hearing on the injunction has been set for next Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

The complaint sets forth that the defendants have been placing mining on the property, with varying degrees of success.

The Sterling mining company is now under operation by a syndicate for New York and Chicago capitalists, who have made arrangements for further extensive operation.

The mine was formerly one of the best gold producers in the state, and has been the subject of considerable litigation in one form and another over a long period of years.

INVALID WOMAN HELPS GLEEMEN

(By Arthur W. Warnock.)
How's this for a little bit of human interest.

Early this morning, J. H. Fiescher, first lieutenant of the campaign committee for the Medford Gleemen, got a telephone call to drive out into the country to see a lady who is shut in on account of ill health. What did she want? She wanted to buy two associate membership tickets for the two Gleemen concerts to be given this season. Further, she bought them to give away to young people who do not have funds to buy tickets. She wanted to treat those who cannot treat themselves. And she is a lady of most modest means at that. But she just happens to have it in her kind heart to want to make others happy and help a worthy Medford organization at the same time. She modestly declined to have her name used.

Our hats are off to you, madame, for your goodness of heart. May the ether waves, in some way, waft the Gleemen's melody to you, restore your health and give you joy always.

Which reminds us: Who else wants to telephone to the genial and enthusiastic Mr. Fiescher? He says he will sail forth to the moon, or to the North Pole, if folks in either place want associate memberships. You can reach him at the Baldwin Piano Shoppe.

MABEL A. FURCH TAKEN BY DEATH

Bartlam of the Episcopal church, at 2 p. m. Thursday, at the Conger chapel, after which the remains will be forwarded to Stockton for interment.
