

PARENTS SCHOOL SCHEDULED HERE ALL DAY FRIDAY

Miss Flora Thurston, Professor of Parent Education in Child Development in Charge of Meeting.

Miss Flora Thurston, professor of parent education in child development, will arrive in Medford on the morning train to conduct the all-day school for parents Friday at the court house auditorium.

Miss Thurston until recently was executive secretary of the National Council of Parent Education. She has been a member of the county and state extension staff at Cornell University, New York. She was a member of the committee on family life and parent education at the White House conference on child life and protection, and the president's conference on home building and home ownership.

Many Oregon home makers will remember Miss Thurston for her valuable contribution to the 1932 program of the annual conference for the study of home interests at Oregon State college.

Mrs. Mabel C. Mack, acting state leader of home economics extension, who will accompany Miss Thurston from Corvallis, will also speak at the school.

Every family in Josephine and Jackson counties should benefit from this worth-while meeting. The program for the day is as follows:

ORPHANED GIANTS GET HOME
 OLEAN, N. Y.—(UP)—Eleven little orphans, orphaned when their mother was killed by an automobile, have found a haven in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Root. The Roots came upon the family huddled around the mother, whose body was still warm. They took the little 'peeps' home.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Two girls, alleged ringleaders of an anti-Nazi demonstration during Harvard commencement exercises attended by Ernst F. Hanstaengel, a Hitler aide, last June, were freed today when the court was advised that President James B. Conant did not wish to prosecute.

Here's Quick Relief for GAS PAINS—Stomach Distress

First thing—throw away your magnesia, soda, and all the other stuff like that.

Then eat what you like and don't worry whether you can digest it or not. For if you will simply take a tablespoon of Dare's Mentha Pepsin before your meals, your own weak stomach can handle anything without a bit of trouble.

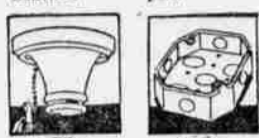

No more gas, fullness, pain, bloating—all are gone. You can have your money back if Dare's Mentha Pepsin fails to satisfy.
