To Hold Auction—The Talent Grange will conduct an auction Saturday night at the Grange hall, beginning at 8 o'clock, to which the public is cordially invited. Refreshments will be sold during the evening. Free entertainment has been planned.

On Inspection Trip—Captain M. Milton Putter, executive officer at the COC district headquarters, left this morning on a five-day inspection trip to camps in the northern part of the district. He was accompanied by John Redden, clerk at headquarters.

Coming Sunday

May Robson in "Lady For a Day"—A Columbia Picture

May Robson, the beloved star of many stage and screen successes, whose performance in "Lady for a Day" made that picture one of last year's big screen events, comes to the Rialto theater Sunday in "Lady by Choice," in which she again portrays a genial old maid.

Carole Lombard is the fan dancer who adopts Miss Robson as a publicity stunt on Mother's day—but finds the tables turned on her when the former "maak" takes her new job seriously and decides to make over the chiseling, gold-digging tendencies of her charge.

Said to rival even the first picture for sheer human entertainment, "Lady by Choice" is given credit for being one of the year's most enjoyable screen stories.

From Ashland—Included among visitors here Wednesday from Ashland were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Powell, Mrs. Homer Gray and Miss Mabel Gray.

Returns Home—Miss Frances Barber of 618 McAndrews road has returned to her home after a stay of two weeks visiting in Portland with her sister, Mrs. LeRoy Smith, formerly Lydia Barber of Medford.

To San Francisco—Winifred Inman will leave for San Francisco tomorrow morning, where she will spend the week-end, and attend the Stanford-U. S. F. football game.

King from Tiller—Lieutenant Benjamin King of Camp Tiller who is Medford yesterday attending to business matters at district headquarters of the COC.

Hurd to Portland—Clinton Thomas Hurd, manager of Ye Jobbe Shoppes of Portland, left for his home in that city the first of the week, after several days business visit in Medford and southern Oregon.

At Clear Creek—Kenneth Ebbush of Co. 1641, is now at Clear Creek camp in northern California, where he is stationed as educational advisor for the company.

Leaves for Grants Pass—Mrs. Mary E. Fry of Phoenix was in this city today and left this morning on the Grants Pass, where she will spend the next few days.

Stated Communication of Medford Lodge No. 103, A. F. & M., Friday, Oct. 19, at 7:30 p. m. Visiting members invited. V. A. NORRIS, W. M. GEO. ALDEN, Secy.
