Society Events of Week Are Focused At the Town Club

The pleasant autumn weather has been inspiring to those who enjoy entertaining during the fall season, and as a result, the Town club has been a busy center of activity during the past week.

Announcement was also made yesterday that on next Saturday, October 27, a masquerade Halloween dancing party is scheduled for members of the club, with a midnight supper.

Tuesday is ladies' day at the large club house, and about forty were there for luncheon last week. Mrs. Rupert J. Henry was a luncheon hostess, and the Book club also had luncheon reservations Tuesday.

Mrs. Harry Rosenberg entertained a group at luncheon on Wednesday, as did Mrs. Porter J. Neff. The Lions club also has its regular weekly meeting at the Town club.

There were forty at the dinner party given Wednesday evening by the Hamilton club, some continuing to the army afterward for the tournament, and the others remaining at the Town club for bridge.

Mrs. Gail Robinson entertained her bridge club Thursday there, and Friday Mrs. Paul Janney had a small group for luncheon.

Many of the members enjoyed a no-host dinner last evening, and the formal dance following.
