Large Dinnerware Showing Featured In Wurts Basement

The unique basement shop of Wurts Gifts in this city has been converted into a pottery, dinnerware and glassware department with comprehensive displays now ready for the public, according to an announcement Saturday by Jack Wurts. Three hundred sets of dinnerware are featured in this new department, Mr. Wurts said, in addition to novelty glassware and pottery lines.

Another feature of Wurts Gifts' basement department is a showing of attractive styles in the new "Marvelite" lamps, treated with ultra-violet rays so that a glow is maintained after the lamps are turned off.
