

CHURCH LIKENED TO ARMY IN WAR ON SATANIC FOE

"The Church Robbed in its Propelling Power" was the topic for which Rev. M. Weatherford spoke Sunday night at the Church of the Nazarene, drawing his text from Micah 4:13—"Arise and thresh, oh daughter of Zion; for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people."

In preparing the way for the special revival which begins Wednesday night of this week, the speaker said that the church is likened to an army in its propelling power. "The church is likened to an army in its propelling power," he said, "because it is to become broken vessels, let their lights shine and use their mouths as trumpets."

"The Holy Ghost is the chief agency for the Christian warfare; it is He who equips for battle. He is the power who breaks down resistance when taking a city for God."

"This power is the assurance of the church. The picture which the prophet drew sets the church out as a threshing instrument. It will make thy hoofs brass. As the oxen were used for threshing purposes in biblical days, so God proposes to robe the church both with the power of invasion and protection."

"God further gives assurance from the words, 'Thou shalt beat in pieces many people' that the church with its God-given power will lead captive from the enemy ranks many people."

"It is through the aggressive evangelistic working of the church that it is able to feed thousands of people led into the fold of Christ and ultimately in the Kingdom Eternal."

"Like Commanding General Meade of the Northern army during the Civil war, who issued a circular to his army just before the battle of Gettysburg, in which he said 'The enemy is on our soil—the whole country looks anxiously to this army to deliver it from the presence of the foe. Our failure to do so will leave us no such welcome as the swelling millions of hearts with pride and joy, as our success would give to every soldier of this army; homes, firesides, and domestic altars are involved.' So we issue the call to victorious battle to this branch of Christ's great army, to help capture the foe, which Satan's invasion has made."

Two souls responded and accepted Christ, at the call of the speaker.
