

HEAVY AND LIGHT GOLFERS WILL VIE IN SUNDAY MATCH

Heavyweights and lightweights of the Rogue Valley Golf club will meet on the field of battle Sunday, in a tournament between two teams chosen with only one dividing mark—a weight of 125 pounds.

With Larry Schade and George Hunt comprising the heavyweights, and Gene Thorndike leading his fellow lightweights, the tournament will present a formidable lineup of mauling slingers. The contestants will be weighed in officially at the course before they are allowed to take part.

Those under 125 pounds will take sides with Gene Thorndike and his "brain-trusters," while those who weigh from 125 to 250 pounds, will take over the opposition.

The losers of the tournament, which will start at 9 a. m., will pay for the installation of a new tee on number ten. The contestants will be divided into foursomes, and may choose their own type of game in these groups.

Rivalry is already running high between the two organizations, with telephone wires kept hot with threats, brags and wagers between the contestants. Gene Thorndike describes the arrangement as a battle between brains and brawn.

The tentative team members are as follows: Lightweights—Gene Thorndike, Ward Beatty, Bill Heath, Harold Johnson, Robert Ruhl, Lyle Wilson, Ed Simmons, Homer Marx, H. B. Kellom, M. Spata, Mark Miller, George Phythian, D. G. Tyree, Irish Coleman, A. F. West, Frank Reum, Heavyweights—Larry Schade, Geo. Hunt, John Cupp, George Roberts, O. O. Alenderfer, Hank Pringle, Bob Hammond Sr., Slater Johnson, Harry McMahon, John Kirk, Jerry Jerry, A. E. Orr, A. B. Cunningham, Russell Semon, G. E. Pierce, Crawford Lemmon, A. H. Endris, G. E. Snider.

W.C.T.U. REELECTS STATE OFFICERS FOR COMING YEAR

Address of the president, Mrs. Ada Jolley of Portland, who reviewing some of the liquor legislation of the past year, said: "Built upon prayer coupled with sacrifice and much work, the Women's Christian Temperance Union, will continue its efforts along the same line. We love our cause and we have watched it prosper and march forward until we almost realized our fondest ambition for it. Seeming defeat would have caused weaker souls to have lost courage but not so with this group. We know no defeat because human life and happiness are at stake. 'Our God is able to deliver us and we will place our trust in Him.'"

COUNTY'S BUDGET SHOWS $334,615 WILL BE NEEDED

Jackson county's budget for the coming year has been completed by the budget committee, George W. Dunn of Ashland, chairman.

In tentative form, and without any deductions for estimated receipts for the year, the budget calls for an appropriation of $334,615.29. County Clerk George B. Carter estimates that when the budget is molded into final form it will be less than last year.

The budget committee expects to meet this week and make segregation of receipts to the various funds. Roads and relief items constitute the heaviest items on the budget. In its preliminary form, $73,300 is appropriated for various needs.

No date has been set for the public hearing on the budget, but it is scheduled to be called early in November.

EVANGELISTS OPEN NAZARENE SERVICE

The special youth's crusade for Christ campaign that opened up in the Church of the Nazarene, Central avenue at Jackson street, last night, with a splendid hearing. The singing of Otho and Billie Schwab, evangelists in charge, was strikingly appreciated by the audience.

Rev. Schwab spoke from the topic "Why I Attend Revivals." He averred that three-fourths of the people who have embraced the Christian faith were convicted in revival campaigns, such as is now being initiated by the Nazarene church, through the sponsorship of the young people's organization.

"Most people," said the speaker, "are brought to Christ through the personal efforts of someone else. We have heard of folk making an altar at the roadside out of an automobile fender, but these cases are rare. Of the 40 instances of healing as cited in the Bible, 30 of them were brought to Christ through the personal efforts of others."

There will be meetings tonight and tomorrow night, with other announcements following. The public is cordially invited.

Visits Here—Mrs. G. W. Bristow and daughter Cassandra, of Paris, Ill., visited in this city yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Boggs, leaving on the Shasta today. Mrs. Bristow is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Boggs.

The Methodist church, directed by Mrs. C. H. Paake. They were Laurel Morrison, Olaf Severson, Andrew Severson and Marvin Burk.

Miss Byrnes, who has been guest speaker, made her final appearance before the convention group Wednesday evening.

An impressive memorial service, conducted for the 56 members of the W.C.T.U., who died during the past year, was held Wednesday forenoon by the delegates and members of the union, in their state convention at the First Methodist church here.

Miss Elow Mae Wilson sang a solo as a part of the service and Mrs. Lucille Schoppert played the pipe organ. Mrs. Carolyn Kennedy of Roseburg conducted the memorial service.

In the business meeting, during which the state president, Mrs. Ada Jolley presided, committees were appointed, and other important matters discussed. On the credentials committee, Mrs. Eita M. White of Portland, Mrs. H. M. Ford of The Dalles and Mrs. Lindhol of St. Helena were named.

For the courtesy committee, Mrs. Rachel Ellis of Madras and Mrs. E. A. Oldenburg of Medford were to serve.

Prizes Awarded Mrs. G. L. Buland of Portland presented the essay poster contest prizes and presidents of 13 county units took cash and blue ribbon prizes back to their respective districts.

Winning cash prizes were Tillamook, Lane, Benton, Linn, Hood River, Clackamas, Multnomah and Columbia counties. The blue ribbons for distinctive essays were sent winners in Yamhill, Marion, Jefferson, Malheur, Wheeler, Wasco, Clatsop, Douglas, Hood River, Clackamas, Multnomah, Columbia, Benton, Tillamook and Lane counties.

The silver cup to the school having the best percentage of pupils writing the essays, and the highest quality of the essays, was this year awarded Roseburg high school. The Polytechnic school of Portland had the cup during the past year.

Membership Growing In the treasurer's report, given by Mrs. Alice Thomas of Portland, she told of the formation of seven new societies during the year, and a substantial increase in membership.

Other reports given were by the vice-president, Mrs. Rachel Ellis of Madras; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Eita M. White of Portland; Young People's Branch, Mrs. Ruth E. Toone of Salem; Loyal Temperance Legion, Mrs. Ellen Thrasher of Grants Pass; S.T.L., Mrs. G. L. Buland.

The program for Friday, the closing day of the convention is: Morning 8:00—Conferences—Motion Pictures, Parliamentary Usage Publicity.

8:30—Executive Board. 9:00—Convention Song—"Lead On O King Eternal." Salute to the Flag. Devotional Service—"To Serve the Present Age."

9:30—Reading of Minutes. Report of Resolution Committee. Standards of Efficiency.

Program Outlined Outlining the educational program of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, Mrs. Jolley admonished her helpers to go out and enlist new workers and train them for active service for God and humanity.

An interesting feature of the afternoon was the response given by several county presidents. "Accepting the Challenge." Especially good was the presentation of the plan of work given by Mrs. Ellen Thrasher and her group from Josephine and Jackson counties.

Miss Byrnes Speaks Miss Helen Byrnes, convention guest speaker gave two inspiring addresses, at 3 and 8 p. m. respectively. Especially appreciated was Miss Byrnes' evening address, "The Voice of the World" in which she told of the recent convention of the World W.C.T.U. held at Stockholm, Sweden, mentioning many outstanding personages among the fifty nations represented there.

Mrs. Ruth Bigler directed a play "Alice in Wonderland," in which Evelyn Coffman, Joan Burk, Chester Cole, George Bigler, Ruth Nordway, Mary Bradfish and her sister participated.

A duet by Mrs. E. N. Long and Miss Walsh was enjoyed, as were the selections by the quartet of young men of THIS CHANGE gives Children a Chance. Avoid the mistake made by so many parents in treating children. If your girl or boy is occasionally upset or ailing, why not make the "liquid test" described here?

Perhaps you have tried all sorts of ways to keep a child's bowels in proper condition, and failed. Yet, a child who has been constipated in a hospital, will usually come out with bowels working like a well-regulated watch. The average mother gives any laxative the family may be using, while doctors give children a liquid laxative of suitable ingredients, suitable strength, and in suitable amount.

Try This Way: Avoid all use of mineral drugs, whether they are salts, pills, tablets, or "candy" form. Even once a month is too often to give any child a cathartic strong enough for adults. Use a liquid laxative containing senna (a natural laxative). California Syrup of Figs has the right amount for children's use, and this rich, fruity syrup does not upset a child's system.

Give that headachy or bilious child a little of this gentle laxative when constipated, and a little less if dose is repeated until bowels seem to be moving regularly and thoroughly of their own accord.

Doctors Say This: A liquid laxative is safest for children of any age, because the dose can be regulated, and its action controlled. It is not wise to

An ideal laxative for this purpose is California Syrup of Figs which every druggist keeps in stock. Be certain that it is the genuine product, with "California" blown in the bottle.
