

HALLOWEEN DANCE NEXT ATTRACTION FOR ELKS LODGE

Initiation of candidates at the Elks lodge last night was witnessed by more than 150, who enjoyed a free feed of chili beans, beer and other refreshments after the beautiful initiatory ceremony was performed.

It was announced at the meeting that district deputy, Burt K. Snyder, grand exalted ruler for Oregon south, will be in Medford Thursday, November 8, when it is hoped that another class will be received into the lodge. Invitations are being sent to Klamath Falls, Ashland and Grants Pass.

Those who "rode the goat" included 17 of the 20 who had planned to attend, while four were taken in through demit from other lodges. During the program, Robert Strang, chairman of the dance committee, announced that plans for the Halloween dance to be held next Wednesday night are practically complete, and that an excellent orchestra has been obtained. Elks are invited to bring guests to this event.

An announcement by the special committee composed of Wilson Watt and Ralph C. Burgess was made concerning the progress of plans which are underway for a first class stage show in the near future. New scenery and set ups will be used in the production, which will employ the best talent in the lodge. Definite announcement of the date and nature of the show will be made soon.

The candidates received through demit were Frank Pette, R. G. Fowler, B. C. Mackenna and Wm. J. Hutchison. Those initiated were: Vaughn D. Stone, Berle G. Thornton, Arthur D. Hess, Wm. A. Holloway, Gordon R. Green, Herbert R. Meusel, Fred J. Wolf, Otto J. Frohnmayer, Dow D. Stone, W. A. Grem, Wm. A. Buchanan, Dr. C. W. Lemery, Lewis S. Blyth, Samuel E. Carey, E. J. Feldman, D. Stanley Boggs, Eugene D. Thordike.

Leaves for Idaho—Sarah Hoduffer left by train today for Lewiston, Ida., where she will visit for the next two months with her son, Ben Cook.

THOMPSON SIGNS AS HEAVYWEIGHT

Jack Thompson and Al Littrell have been added to the team of heavyweight golfers who will play the lightweights of Rogue Valley course Sunday, and to balance the addition, Owen Schenck and Cap DeVaney have been enrolled by the Gene Thordike's "braintrusts."

A dispute arose over the selection of Leland Clark, winner of the recent P.A.T. tournament, on the side of the fat men. It is agreed that Clark carries two window weights when an attempt is made to officially weigh him into the contest.

Schenck has been secured as a pinch putter for the thin men, who according to Manager Thordike will carry on the tournament with football rules, "pulling" a contestant for any faulty shot, and sending in a fresh manie alinger.
