

CORVALLIS NAMED NEXT CONVENTION CITY FOR W.C.T.U.

Reverend W. R. Baird, pastor of the First Christian church, led the song service and devotions for the Thursday evening meeting, with Miss Dorothy Gora playing a violin solo. Miss Alice Holmback was her accompanist. Following special music by the male quartet, the session closed with Rev. N. D. Wood, pastor of the Methodist church South, giving the benediction.

"Turning the Ship of State Out of Alcohol's Death Stream" was the subject of the address given last evening by Fred M. Weatherford, pastor of the local Church of the Nazarene.

"If a foreign foe were attacking our nation with arms, it would be met with the combat of our strongest munitions of war; yet a worse enemy is flowing at our doors under the protective wings of national legislation. But that legislation, which resurrected this one-time espousé, was a seizure by the brewers: a usurpation, under the guise of personal liberty. Our nation is the victim of their strategic deception and political intrigue," he informed the audience.

Promises Unfilled

He also told his listeners: "We have already learned, that the repeal did not bring us prosperity; it did not bring us less drinking; it did not bring us less racketeering; it did not afford us less drunkenness; it did not bring us less lawlessness; all of which the liquorites claimed when they submitted the repeal proposal. But every claim has brought us multiplied worse conditions. We are now ready to strike another death blow, to what has proven to be a false guide to prosperity."

Speaking of drinking, Reverend Weatherford said: "Shall we eat fermented foods or drink fermented liquors? No! Your hands go up in horror at the thought of eating spoiled or decayed foods. You say that would be suicidal. Then by what process of reasoning can one drink fermented juices, without suffering ill effects?"

More Women Drink

He declared that more women are drinking today, stating, "While every generation has had a few women drinkers, never before in the history of cats and ganders, have we seen them unblushingly consorting with men at the bar to take their cocktails. Indeed, they seem to be vying to outdistance the men in the race for prosperity through drink. That was a wonderful turn in the school of education that emanated from the mistress of the White House, inducting young girls into the art of drinking."

"But these fair dames are paying the price for their indulgence. O. O. McIntyre, popular columnist, recently used a letter from a nurse in a private sanitarium which described the young women addicts of liquor and drugs. In the note she revealed that cocktail parties, are the gateway barriers for a majority of the cases that finally end up in a sanitarium."

"The W. C. T. U. is the organization which should lead in this crusade," Reverend Weatherford pointed out. "The temperance movement is based on altruism; its aim is unbiased; its only motive being that to strengthen and safeguard the character of the people of all nations, by acts of voluntary self-sacrifice. Their best interests are for the commonweal of church, home and state. There is basis for both promotion and victory, in any field for human betterment, as long as a percentage of the people are actuated by a humanitarian spirit."

Powers Unchallenged

In conclusion he told the delegation, "There are four unchallenged powers, back of us as swift witnesses against demon alcohol, namely: Experience, science, truth and God. No force can triumph over this quartet of invulnerable powers. They constitute the basic foundation upon which we shall rebuild the spiritual, social and economic walls of society."

"By the sustaining hand of God we will pilot the ship of state out of alcohol's death stream."

PORTLAND, Oct. 25.—(AP)—New business totaling 41,950,000 feet, about 7 per cent above the 3-year weekly average for October, and about the same as for the previous week, was reported by the Western Pine association today for the week ending Oct. 20.

Shipments amounted to 43,886,000 feet. Production was 47,738,000 feet. For the corresponding week a year ago the same mills showed orders of 38,107,000 feet, and production of 46,192,000 feet. Orders for the year to date have increased about one per cent over the 1933 total for the same period.

Evangelists Open Services At First Baptist Sunday

Rev. and Mrs. Henry E. Burke, with their song leader and cornetist, will open evangelistic services at the Baptist church here Sunday morning, October 28, it was announced today. Rev. Burke is a college and seminary graduate, with years of experience in the pastorate and evangelistic work, and is said to carry on a Bible teaching campaign. Mrs. Burke is a graduate of one of the leading Bible institutes, and is an accomplished piano player. She does a great deal with the children's work, and is known as an excellent soloist and chorister.

A. K. Leaman, president of the municipal lottery—is on the shelf unless the state legislature legalizes its use.

Mayor F. H. LaGuardia vetoed last night the much-debated measure which would have set up a "corporation" with officers to be chosen by lot from among the "stockholders." The officers would have received fabulous salaries for phantom duties.

The bulk of the proceeds from the sale of shares would have gone for unemployment relief.

Child Dead of Alcoholic Poison
WARRENTON, N. C. (UP)—Theo Hayes, five-year-old Warrenton child, died here recently from alcoholic poisoning. Warrants were issued charging his parents with murder.

for governor, California will have a combination of leaders in Washington and in Sacramento who can cooperate in the best interests of the people of the state and of the nation."

The letter, bearing the letterhead of the democratic national committee, was addressed to "President of the Associated Democratic Club of Whittier, Calif."

Sinclair warns, meanwhile, carried his end poverty campaign into northern California with a warning to voters to "be prepared for anything in the last days."

Charging his political foes were preparing "forged letters seeking to connect me with Soviet Russia," the former socialist who won the democratic gubernatorial nomination by an overwhelming vote asserted his defeat in November would be the signal for "an immediate beginning of a new democratic campaign for the next election."

"Don't think for a minute," he declared, "that my defeat in this election would mean the end of the epic plan."

Epic Candidate Poor Second In California Poll

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The Literary Digest's "straw" poll for governor of California gave Frank P. Merriam, the republican candidate, a lead over Upton Sinclair of about two and a half to one, according to returns tabulated to date.

Of 62,208 ballots cast, Merriam was given 42,141, and Sinclair, democratic candidate and "epic" proponent, 17,384. The percentage was 67.70 per cent of the vote for Merriam and 27.72 per cent for Sinclair.

The remainder of the votes were divided among three other candidates.

About 700,000 ballots were mailed out, the number representing approximately one-half the number of voters in the last California election for governor.

Wings of the Morning!
Good coffee—man's morning friend—warm and fragrant as her greeting.

A tip to coffee lovers. Whatever the method you use (Drip or Percolator), buy a coffee prepared for that method. It's important. Here's why. In a Drip Maker, boiling water drips only once through a coffee prepared to yield its flavor quickly. In a Percolator, water passes many times through a coffee prepared to yield its flavor slowly. No coffee should try to serve both methods. "A Jack of all trades is master of none." There are two Schilling Coffees—one for Drip—one for Percolator.
