Ceremonial Held In Ashland Temple By Daughters The Nile

One of the most elaborate ceremonies ever staged in southern Oregon by Zuleima Temple was put on by the Daughters of the Nile Friday afternoon in the Ashland Masonic temple, with Mrs. T. P. Franco of that city, queen of the temple, presiding.

She was assisted by her officers, the uniformed patrol and the chorus, robed in patrol colors. Nineteen candidates received the degree and during the season a short program was presented.

Two readings were given by Mrs. P. H. Baker of Grants Pass, and Miss Dorothy Reynolds of Ashland gave two whistling solos, accompanied at the piano by Miss Ruth Severance.

Following the ceremonial a banquet for the members and their escorts was given, and songs by the patrol and chorus were enjoyed.

Elaborate decorations were arranged in the hall, with the oriental setting emphasized by the large baskets of colored pampas grass. There were also many beautiful fall flowers.

Members of the decorations committee were Mesdames Eiders, McNair, Hardy, Claycomb, Haines, Dean, Anderson and Loomie. The table committee was Mesdames Bateman, Vail, Newby and Wolters. The table was arranged in the form of a harvest festival with pumpkins and autumn decorations. The banquet was arranged by Mrs. C. L. Reynolds of Ashland.

The dance committee was Mesdames Parrett, Rickett, Stearns, Spaulding of Grants Pass, and Sparr of Ashland. Visitors were in attendance from Sacramento and Portland temples, and members of the local temple at Roseburg and Coquille.

Hallowe'en Dance In Jacksonville's Courthouse, Word

Holiday time is nearing and the various clubs and organizations throughout the county are even now beginning their long line of gay festivities. Among them is the dance to be given by the Jacksonville Grange on Hallowe'en.

The Grangers have transformed the old court room into a spacious hall with a good dance floor, making an attractive setting for a party.

Every Granger is welcome and may bring friends.

It is to be a masquerade dance, but any one who wishes to come unmasked may do so. There will be a prize for the best costume.

A small admission will be charged and a free lunch will be served. Jacksonville Grange ladies are to bring two pumpkin pies.

Being the first big social event this group has undertaken for several months, each member is looking forward to Wednesday evening with a great deal of pleasure.

The Grange held its regular meeting Friday night. There was a small attendance, nevertheless it was an exceptionally interesting meeting. The officers' seating drill work was put on for the first time, and games were played, songs sung, and ghost stories told, around the table. Refreshments were served by the following committee: Messrs and Mesdames Peters, Myers, Hartley and Metchum.
