Antoinette Detcheva in Concert Friday Evening, Gives Fine Presentation

Classics, which have been played for many years—played by many artists in many lands—were Friday evening given new life for Medford folk when they attended the inspiring concert by Antoinette Petrova Detcheva at the Baldwin recital hall.

Attentive were her listeners all through the exceptionally fine renditions of Bach, Beethoven, Chopin and Liszt, for they sat, fascinated by the skill with which her fingers poled, danced and seemed almost to flow over the keys, so smoothly and perfectly were the tones.

Her ease and grace before the audience, and the charming smile with which she greeted her listeners when they encircled her, brought Miss Detcheva the admiration of all.

Coming to southern Oregon from Vienna, Miss Detcheva has given the people in this section an opportunity to hear the excellent portrayals that she has given large audiences in the capitals of Europe.

As Mrs. Gordon Claycombe of Ashland, Miss Detcheva with her husband, has opened piano studios in Medford, at the Baldwin shop where advance piano instruction is given.

She is a graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Music in Sofia and the Vienna State Conservatory.

Miss Detcheva plans to give a series of piano concerts this winter on the Pacific coast, and will appear in Portland and San Francisco, besides other cities.

The program Friday evening was: Bach: Chromatic Fantasy and Fugue; Beethoven: Sonata Op. 31, No. 2; Allegro; Adagio; Allegretto; Chopin: Quatrième Ballade, Op. 24; Liszt: Etude de Concert; Chopin: Etude Op. 12, No. 3; Chopin: Etude Op. 10, No. 5.

For encore selections, she played a "Waltz" by Chopin, and "Spanish Dance," by de Falla.

China To Be Topic Post-Delphians At November 8 Meet

The Post-Delphian Study club met in its second regular session for the year at 9:30 Thursday morning in the children's room at the library.

Mrs. Laura West, president, opened the business meeting promptly, leaving ample time for the presentation of the excellent program which followed.

The program consisted of "How to Judge a Book," by Mrs. Aletha Vawter; "The Quest of the Perfect Book," by Mrs. Frederick Johnson, and a book review, "Lamb in His Boom," by Mrs. R. B. Hammond. The meeting of November 8 will be devoted to a study of China.

The president suggested the following book list:

"So Red the Rose," Stark Young; "Sweet Land," Lewis Gannett; "Our Russian Neighbors," Alexander Wickstead; "Kapoot," Carver Wells; "The Road Leads On," Knut Hansum.

"A Challenge to Liberty," Herbert Hoover; "Mary Peters," Mary Ellen Chase; "The Soul of America," Eva Emery Dye.

Activities of Legion Auxiliary

At the regular business meeting held Monday evening, October 22, Lorena Leach, chairman of Americanism, gave a talk, the subject being "Navy Day," part of which was as follows:

"Saturday, October 27, has been set aside by the president of the United States as Navy day. This date, not only marks the founding of the navy but also the birthday of the late President Theodore Roosevelt, who was a splendid supporter of an adequate naval defense. The aim of the Navy League is to acquaint the people of the district with the conditions of the navy and with its needs in personnel and ships."

The first meeting of the sewing club will be held Monday evening, November 5, at 7:30 at the welfare room on the fourth floor of the Medford National Bank building.

Anyone having discarded clothing may leave it outside of the welfare room, with a tag on it addressed to the American Legion Auxiliary. Also, please call Myrtle Wright, phone 641-H, telling her it is there.

The American Legion Auxiliary

membership drive will be held Thursday, November 1. All member who are to work that day are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. Grace Holmes at 9:30 a. m.

Those who have not brought in their jelly or jam to be used in connection with the hospital and welfare work may leave same at the R. A. Holmes insurance agency office in the Jackson County Bank building or bring it to the next regular meeting. Our quota this year is one hundred glasses.

If any auxiliary member is ill, please notify Mrs. Jacobs, phone 549-X.

Our president advertised over the radio for a bed, which is badly needed for a poor family. As yet there has been no response. Anyone having a bed, please get in touch with her.

Beck's Introduce New Loaf Monday

Beck's Bakery has just perfected a new bread formula and will introduce the new loaf to southern Oregon housewives tomorrow, according to Michael Beck, Mr. Beck says the new bread, which will be known as Beck's Deluxe, in both white and wheat, has been thoroughly tested for texture, quality and flavor, and he states: "It is the best loaf we have ever made. We tried out the same formula in our Klamath Falls bakery and our bread sales have doubled during the past few weeks."

The Deluxe loaf will have a new robin egg blue wrapper on the white and a golden brown wrapper on the wheat.
