VAUDEVILLE BILL CRATERIAN STAGE

Headed by an orchestra said to be one of the finest and most versatile on the road today, Chic Meyers' "International Revue" will be on the stage of the Craterian theatre for tomorrow only, on both matinee and evening shows.

Headliners over the Columbia Network for one hundred weeks, a sensational record of four consecutive years in Indianapolis' leading night spot, the eleven-piece band is truly one of the most talented orchestras to yet appear here. Ten vocalists, featuring both comedy and ensemble numbers of the band, which also plays the accompaniment for the other acts of the unit in addition to their own specialties.

The Marsh Sisters, musical comedy favorites and stars of the Ziegfeld Follies for one year, appear in a beautiful picture number in the band's featured medley, and as a featured act in a sensational acrobatic routine. Besides their appearances with the Follies, the Marsh Sisters made a record run of 38 weeks at the College Inn, Chicago, and were featured dancers with Henry Santry and his World Famous Soldiers of Fortune.

Rosita and Perez, continental dance team, are recognized as one of the outstanding dance teams on the American stage today. They do a beautiful waltz routine, a Spanish Rumba, and their famous Indian seditio, the dance which has given them fame the world over.

Three beautiful brunettes, the Martin sisters, featured with the National Broadcasting networks as staff artists over WLW, Cincinnati, bring harmony and personality to the show. They sing both popular and hill-billy arrangements.

Virginia Maye, from the Gay White Way of New York, adds to the entertainment with her comedy and difficult tap routines.

Lester Hale, who has one of the largest radio followings in the east and middle west, has a fine tenor voice which is featured in several ballad numbers.

Roy Cummings adds the necessary touch of clowning and nonsense to round out the show in fine shape.

On the screen, Grace Bradley and Bruce Cabot will be shown in a modern comedy-romance of an artist's model and a carefree young millionaire who find the answer to their troubles in a hamburger stand. "Redhead," the title of this up-to-date story of modern youth, holds much entertainment in store for the entire family.

MODERN WOMEN

CHICHESTERS PILLS

A tender romance that stirs the heart with its depth of human feeling is offered in "Have a Heart," first starring vehicle for Jean Parker, whose vivid talents have raised her to the highest Hollywood rating. The picture plays tomorrow and Thursday at the Rialto theater.

As "Sally," the crippled doll maker, who finds love in spite of her handicap, Miss Parker plays a complete range of feeling from depths of passion to sparkling comedy.

James Dunn, in the male lead as Jimmie Fisherty, vendor of "Have a Heart" ice cream, is an ideal romantic partner.

An illuminating revelation of feminine psychology is offered by Loretta Young in "Born to Be Bad," which is now playing at the Studio theater.

Now at Roxy

Jungle drums beating, voodoo-crazed blacks in an orgy of blood sacrifice, he gazed, horror-stricken, at the scene, and saw that the leader of the savages was his WIFE.

That's just a sketchy idea of the thrills and suspense of "Black Moon," now at the Roxy theater.
