

STRANG AND ORR BOWLERS TIED IN ELK LODGE LEAD

Strang's Drug Store and Weeks & Orr Furniture Store are tied for first place in the Elk's club bowling tournament, according to figures including games of last week compiled by the bowling committee. Three teams are tied for third place and three are also tied for fourth position.

Roy Pruitt, with an average of 194 for nine games, leads the procession of individual bowlers. Ron DeVore, George Eads and Fred Erickson are closely bunched in the order named, following Pruitt.

GRIDIRON GLEANINGS

(By the Associated Press.)
CORVALLIS—Three Oregon State regulars may not be able to play when the Beavers meet Oregon, Saturday at Portland, but there's one consolation. Injuries have been so prevalent on the Beavers squad this season that the reserves have plenty of experience.
 Another thing inspiring the squad is the rapid return to form of "Red" Franklin, last year's flash who suffered a series of early season injuries.
EUGENE—Rather a "jack of all trades" when it comes to the backfield, is Johnny Reichman, University of Oregon's reserve backfield transfer from St. Martin's Junior college of Washington.
 Because he works at either half-back position or quarter, Reichman has seen considerable action this season.
 The entire regular backfield, and for the first time this season—the entire first string line is billed to start against Oregon State next Saturday. Some of the reserves are on the crippled list, but not Reichman, who probably will see considerable action.
PALO ALTO—Stanford's Indians, returned from Los Angeles, quietly celebrated their victory over U. C. L. A. with an evening free from practice before settling down for Wash-

MEDFORD JUNIORS DEFEATED 25-0 BY ASHLAND GRIDDERS

Holding the Lithians on line plays but unable to stop their end runs and passing offense, the Medford Junior high football team lost the second game of the 1934 season with Ashland Juniors, by a score of 25 to 0 yesterday afternoon at Van Scoyoc field. Both teams held well on defense, but the Bulldogs were unable to compete with the Ashlanders' aerial attack and shifty backfield work.
 The local squad held Ashland scoreless only during the first quarter, after which the Lithians pushed over two touchdowns in the second period, and one apiece in the third and fourth quarters. Lee, Ashland back, carried the ball for two of the key trips, and bucked over for the only added point of the game. "Shorty" Able and Charles Warren scored the other two touchdowns.
 Although the Lithian Juniors are credited with having a team equal to most high school squads, yesterday's game was well played on both sides, and the score alone did not tell the tale. Medford's line held most of the power the Lithians could offer, with Wilson, right tackle; Gates, center; Bagley, right guard, and Wall, end, showing up on scrimmage plays.
 The Bulldogs clicked as a team, with little individual starting in the backfield. Ettinger, left half, proved the best ground-gainer, and was eased through the Lithians by good interference for several long gains. Verbiok to White proved the best passing combination for the Bulldogs. Ashland's scores came as the result directly or indirectly of passing; an intercepted spiral proving good for six of the Lithians' points.

BUFFALO—Jim Brown, 236, three Count Zaryoff, 295, Russia, one fall.
NEW YORK—Everett Marshall, 218, La Junta, Colo., threw Gino Garibaldi, 214, Italy.

SONS GIRL FOR SATURDAY TILT

ASHLAND, Nov. 6.—(Spl.)—The fighting sons, smarting again under a close defeat from Monmouth Friday, are beginning a grid campaign today that is hoped will carry them to victory over the strong Chico State outfit next Saturday. The battle will be a principal attraction of homecoming week end.
 Coach Howard Hobson's team played great defensive ball against the Wolves, but waited too long before opening up a scoring attack. A conversion by Monmouth was the narrow margin of the 7-to-6 victory. Hobson presents no alibi for the defeat, and praises his line for its almost impregnable stand, in spite of the fact it was outweighed by 27 pounds.

WOMEN GOLFERS TO PLAY 'KICKER' MATCH

Lady members of the Rogue Valley course will play their weekly tournament tomorrow, according to announcement today by Mrs. George Gooding of the tournament committee.
 The event will be the same as was planned last week but abandoned because of the rain—a "kicker" tournament, in which contestants are allowed to replay one shot on each hole. Mrs. Sage Morris, Mrs. Frank Reum and Mrs. Wm. Heath will be hostesses at the luncheon which will be served at noon.

BAER TO LEAD BROTHER IN PATHS OF RECTITUDE

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6.—(AP)—Max Baer, California's gift to the fist-firmament, the theater and the night club, is ready to make the supreme sacrifice for his brother Buddy, a budding heavyweight flatfist.
 "Somebody in this crazy racket," preached Max to Buddy today, "has got to set you young punks a good example and it looks like I'm elected."

FOSGREN, MUIR MATCH WILL BE AMONG BEST SEEN HERE THIS YEAR

With prospects for one of the year's best all-around wrestling matches, local fans are looking forward to the card next Thursday night at the Armory, when Jack Fosgren, Canadian champ, will tangle in the main event with the Bonny Muir of Australia.
 It will be a battle of two of the game's strongest yet most scientific grapplers, and promises to bring out the best points of the profession. Fosgren ranks as one of the continent's leading wrestlers, and his initial appearance here Thursday is an accomplishment for Promoter Mack Lillard. The Canadian employs the popular scientific type of bone-bending, with the Boston crab his chief offensive hold, but will probably have to exert every iota of his strength and skill against the pernicious Australian.
 The first half of the double-decked program will see another scientific mat artist, Don Wagner, limber-legged ex-prizster from Oregon State college, in action against "Bad Boy" Billy Newman of Denver, a choke and chuckle artist of the first degree.

HIGH WATER HITS FISHING IN ROGUE 100 BOY GOLFERS ENTER TOURNAY

Changeable weather and high water, which is discolored by wash from the hills, have seriously interfered with good fishing conditions along the Rogue river during the past week, according to word received today from Grants Pass.
 Although there is reported to be a greater run of fish in the river at present than at any time during the past season, a few days of continued fine weather is needed to bring about what is believed would be the best spinner and fly fishing afforded in several years.
 Salmon egg bait has lured nice catches, despite the roily water during the past few days, and the Bozou is said to afford the best fishing at present of the coast streams, all of which are muddy from rain and mulling operations. Trout, headand alveride have been landed by several parties near Panther Chutes. Good catches have also been reported from the Illinois river, below the falls.
 The proof is in the wear. Buy your HOSE at Ethelwyn B Hoffmann's.

DEANS TALK BIG SALARY BOOSTS FOR NEXT YEAR

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 6.—(P)—Dizzy Dean—the big gun with the loud report—is expected to talk contract in the six-figure classification today with his boss, Sam Breadon, president of the St. Louis Cardinals.
 Dizzy, his brother Paul, and Boss Breadon got together yesterday for what was billed as a friendly chat, and nothing more than that came to the surface. But the chat will be resumed today and Dizzy has a proposition. He said he would sign a three-year contract for $100,000.
 The pitching Deans, who came into town yesterday after a barnstorming tour that included baseball, the stage and screen, plan to leave today for their home in Florida and Breadon will leave for New York City. Before the good-byes are said, however, there is mutual hope that the contract autographing will have been accomplished.
 Dizzy said emphatically he would not sign for less than $25,000 for the 1935 season. It's either that or the three-year proposition, according to his attitude. Paul said he did not know what he wants for the 1935 season, but it is reported his minimum request would be for $15,000.
 Last year Dizzy received $7,500 and Paul, a big league freshman, $3,000. They did all the victory pitching for the Cardinals in the recent world series with Detroit.

FOOTBALL SONG BOOKS OFFERED

A new, attractive college football song book is being given to Medford football fans by all "Smiling Associates dealers." It is announced here by Carol Hays, local agent of the Associated Oil company.
 Forty-six songs of the 16 major colleges of the Pacific coast are contained in the pocket-size book, both for fans who like to join with the rooting section in the home team's battle song, and for those who listen to Associated's broadcasts of the games.
 The song book contains the songs of California, Idaho, Loyola, Columbia, Washington State, Oregon, Oregon State, St. Mary's, Montana, Santa Clara, Stanford, U. C. L. A., University of San Francisco, Southern California, Gonzaga and Washington.

BOYS TO GATHER FOR CAGE CLASS

In order that the basketball classes for boys, to be conducted by the Fraternal Order of Eagles, may get underway immediately, all boys between the ages of 14 and 21 are asked to be at the Eagles' hall, Wednesday night at 7:30, it was announced today by Jack Hueston, the committee chairman.
 Application forms for membership in the boys' athletic club will be available, and it is hoped to have the various basketball teams lined up definitely at this meeting.
 Through the courtesy of C. Glenn Smith, acting city superintendent of schools, the Washington and Rosevelt schools have been loaned to the Eagles for basketball during the winter, and all boys who wish to avail themselves of the opportunity to play should be at the meeting.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 6.—(AP)—Once more ineligibility has invaded the Portland Intercollegiate Football League. This time Benson Tech was the sufferer. Herbert Dennis, mechanic first string tackle, was found to have violated the association's ruling which required that a competing player must be under 20 years of age on the opening day of school.
 Benson was forced to forfeit two games, reducing their standing to the cellar position.

The Campaign Starts Wednesday! Let Us Put Medford's Community Chest Fund OVER THE TOP!

Let Us Help Those In Need!...Let Us Contribute to the Character Building of Future Citizens!

WE HAVE AN OBLIGATION to our neighbors who are in need that must be fulfilled... We are also obligated to provide sufficient character-building activities to assure the future good citizenship of our young folks... Medford has never failed to meet her obligations—never before has the need for support of welfare organizations been so great—Let us go "Over the Top" in a substantial way! Bear in mind... the organizations participating in the Community Chest are not asking for additional funds over last year—they are just combining their funds campaigns for the convenience of the public, saving a duplication of effort made necessary by scores of so-called "drives" in the future.

GIVE BUT ONCE! GIVE FOR ALL!
