W. C. T. U. to Hold Reception, New Members.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union meets Thursday, November 8, at 3:30, at the home of Mrs. Minnie Heine, 816 W. 10th street. This meeting will be a reception for new members and all those who have recently joined the Union are given a special invitation to attend. A good program has been arranged, consisting of musical numbers, readings by Mrs. English, and by Mrs. James of Portland. Mrs. James will also speak on the W. C. T. U. work in the Portland Union. Delegates will bring messages from the recent convention.

The devotional period will be especially fine, as Mrs. Henry Burke, evangelist at the Baptist church will conduct the service and Mr. Russell Case, soloist of the evangelistic party will sing. Following the program there will be a social hour and refreshments.

Miss Bailey's Class To Open Tomorrow.

Beginning Wednesday, November 7, at 1:45 p. m., Miss Bailey will give the first of a series of illustrated lessons on how to reach the young with the Bible. These classes will meet every Wednesday in the auditorium of the court house. A welcome is extended to all those interested in a study of the Bible.

Post Delphian Club Meets Thursday Morning.

The Post-Delphian club will meet Thursday morning, November 8, at 9:30 in the children's room of the library.

China will be studied in the following subjects: Topography of China, Mrs. R. W. Frame; History of Old China, Mrs. M. E. Root; Arts and Crafts of China, Mrs. C. I. Drummond; and Book Review, "River Supreme," Mrs. R. W. Sleeter.

Spends Week End in San Francisco.

Mrs. A. J. DeCaluwe of Chicago returned this morning on the Shasta from San Francisco, where she had spent the week end. Mrs. DeCaluwe is visiting in Medford with Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Smith and will extend her visit for two weeks before returning east. Mrs. DeCaluwe is Mrs. Smith's sister.

CALLS ALL-BRAN NATIONAL NATURAL LAXATIVE

Delicious Cereal Checked His Constipation

Here is an unsolicited letter from Mr. Daniels:

"For many years I have been habitually constipated, and have used all sorts of laxatives. So, in fairness to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, I heartily claim it to be a most wonderful remedy for constipation.

"Need I tell you that I have long since ceased using laxatives? Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the National Natural Laxative. If it were used by every family in the United States for breakfast, we would have a much healthier race of people."—Mr. John Daniels, 1090 Third St., North Bergen, N. J.

Tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN furnishes "bulk" to exercise the intestines and vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. Isn't this food much pleasanter than rinking pills and drugs? Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

KEEP ON THE SUNNY SIDE OF LIFE

Getim-Austin Wedding Sunday.

Miss Julia Getim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geim of Medford, was married to Almon Austin, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Austin of Ashland at a quiet ceremony at the home of their pastor, Elder Wm. Lewsadder at Talent, Sunday morning in the presence of members of the family and a few close friends of the couple.

The bride wore a most becoming gown of brown-silk crepe with accessories to match and carried an arm bouquet of beautiful chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Austin has been employed as nurse at the Community hospital in Ashland.

Following the ceremony a three-course wedding breakfast was served to the guests by the bride's mother at her home in Medford. After a short wedding trip they will reside in Ashland.

Bridge Party at Frank Rush Home.

On Saturday evening, Mrs. Woodson Smith and Mrs. Frank Rush were joint hostesses at a bridge party given at the latter's home on West Jackson street, with six tables in play. High scores were held by Mrs. Ray Ward and George Armstrong, low scores received by Mrs. Floyd Watkins and Walter Wilson.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Thurman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pritchett, Mr. and Mrs. George Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Quackenbush, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Purdie, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dooms, and the host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. Woodson Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rush.

At a late hour refreshments were served.

Study Group to Meet at Junior High School.

The Child Development study group will meet Wednesday, November 7, from 2 to 3:30 at the junior high school in room 19. Mrs. H. I. Baker and Mrs. Arthur Short will give the special reports. The book review will be continued by Mrs. F. C. Dillard.

Enrollment is held open by Mrs. N. C. Chaney, leader, because of misunderstanding as to the place of meeting. "Discipline" is the general topic. A large attendance met to discuss "Habit Formation" at the last meeting.

Tuckers Leave Today for Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Tucker of Portland, who arrived here Sunday at guests of Colonel and Mrs. Gordon Voorhies, left today for their home, making the motor trip via Klamath Falls. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Voorhies, Mr. Tucker having attended the University of Pennsylvania school of architecture with Mr. Voorhies.

Mrs. Tucker is the former Jean Wright of Portland, daughter of Otis Wright of that city. The couple was married about ten days ago.

Preparations were made for a Christmas tree and other activities of the Yule season.

Many of the members plan to attend the meeting of Chrysanthemum circle in Medford November 7.

CCC OFFICERS BEATEN WHEN BOYS REBEL AT CHANGES IN LOCATION.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 6.—(Sp.)—Two hundred and fifty Civilian Conservation corps workers were whaled south today despite their rebellion against a wholesale transfer from Maine to Virginia and Maryland camps.

The youths belabored their officers, locked them in the baggage car and thwarted all attempts to move the 12-car troop train for three hours last night before they were quieted and the trip was resumed.

A riot call brought 150 policemen to the yards of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad. The arrival of police sobered the demonstrators, and the army officers, several of whom the train conductor said were beaten badly, asserted they could take care of any further trouble.

Worcester police were informed that discontent had been brewing since the train left Maine, and that some of the men had been drinking.

JOINT GRANGE MEETING AT JACKSONVILLE HALL.

In order to show a goodwill spirit and for the benefit of both, the Jacksonville and Appleton Granges will hold a joint session at the Jacksonville hall, Friday evening. Officers of the Appleton group will occupy the chairs and their drill team will confer the degree of the order on new members from both Granges.

An interesting program is being prepared by the Appleton lecturer and the host Grange in Jacksonville is looking forward with eagerness to the evening to be spent with their neighbors over the hill.

The chorus of the Jacksonville Grange will practice on Wednesday. Last week the practice was skipped because of the Halloween dance, but rehearsal is to be resumed tomorrow.

The H. E. C. A. will also meet on Wednesday. The ladies are going to be entertained at the home of Mrs. Ernest Lang's this week, and along with a social good time, some important business matters are to be discussed.
