"The Black Cat" Is Weird Picture

Everyone remembers Edgar Allan Poe's masterful tale, "The Black Cat." It was full of horror and terror and certainly not the kind of a story one would like to hear on a dark and stormy night. The film is now playing at the Rialto theater.

And for a coup-de-grace, there is "Frankenstein" and "Dracula" together for the first time, in other words, Karloff and Lugosi.

There have been horror pictures, thrillers, chillers and mystery pictures. But this one combines all the best elements of all of these. Together Karloff and Lugosi combine their eerie talents and conspire to produce one of the strangest, weirdest and fiercest pictures ever presented on the screen.

STRANGE MURDER IN 'THE CRIME DOCTOR'

Those who are interested in the psychological aspects of crime, as well as persons who revel in detective stories, have a treat in store for them at the Studio where "The Crime Doctor" is playing.
