

SPEAKERSHIP RACE GIVEN NEW ANGLES BY TUESDAY VOTE

Two of Three Avowed Candidates Apparently Defeated—Hill of Lane Only Aspirant With Safe Lead

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7.—(AP)—The contest for speaker of the 1935 state legislature appeared with entirely new angles today as returns reported two of the three candidates apparently defeated and a stronger Democratic bloc in the lower branch which indicated new aspirants in the field. Harry Corbett was expected to retain his assurance of being elected president of the state senate as the turnover was declared insufficient to change his strength.

Multnomah county, with a possibility of only two or three Republicans out of 13 elected to the house, had rejected Lowell C. Paget, prominently mentioned as speaker of the next assembly.

Returns from 29 Tillamook county's 33 precincts showed George Winslow, Republican, and J. R. Caulfield, Democrat, neck and neck for representation from that district, with reports indicating Winslow would trail in the remaining four precincts.

This leaves East Hill, Lane county representative, who apparently had a safe lead as one of the three to be elected from that county, the lone announced candidate to wield the gavel next January. But with the great turnover in the house as indicated by early returns, it was anticipated other candidates would be in the field for consideration at the pre-session caucus.

Multnomah county had likewise, in the face of early returns, turned down F. H. Dammasch, Richard Deich, John Hall and John Lewis, Republicans who had previously been in the house. The only three who were leading in that party were Homer D. Angell, former member; Harvey Wells, a veteran, and Robert W. Parrell, a newcomer.

Voting in the case of the last two was close, however, with possibility of either their defeat or more Republicans entered. Democrats who were in the lead for seats included Nancy Wood Honeyman, W. L. Graham, Howard LaTourrette, William C. Rankin, Victor J. Nelson, Lew Washack, Charles H. Leach and Ellis Herries.

Graham was the only Democrat apparently returned of the several veterans running. William C. Dickson, a present member, was trailing along with the Republicans who appeared ousted.

The Multnomah county district also appeared to have elected Ray N. Alber, Democrat, over Chester A. Moores, Republican, for representation from Multnomah and Clackamas counties.

The two seats in the senate voted upon at this election by Multnomah county and its neighboring counties appeared to be won by Democrats. Delmore Lessard, Democrat, led Roy K. Terry for senator from the 13th district, where Walter E. Pearson was far ahead of State Grange Master Ray Gill, Republican, for the 14th district, the seat vacated by Joe E. Dunne.

Marion county remained in the Republican column as far as the legislature was concerned, with Senator Charles K. Spaulding and Representative Romeo Gouley and Hannan Martin being returned. Douglas McKay, Salem mayor, was sent to the senate in Sam Brown's seat, while Ronald Jones and Walter Fuhrer will succeed Carrie Abrams and Otto Paulus.

TOWNSEND CLUB TO MEET FRIDAY NIGHT
Regular meeting of the Townsend club for the furtherance of the Townsend old age revolving pension plan will be held in the court house auditorium Friday evening at 7:30. The new petitions are here and being circulated and the secretary expects to have booklets ready for all those who have ordered them. It is especially desired that all who can be present to get all available news from headquarters.

ARMISTICE DAY PLANS MADE AT LEGION SESSION

Members of Medford Post No. 15, American Legion, enjoyed Tuesday evening one of the most enthusiastic meetings at the Medford armory for some time past.

Armistice day plans were reported and the first thing that morning will be the parade at 11 o'clock. Line of march will be given in this paper Friday. At 2 p. m. everybody will attend the football game at Van Scoyoc field and at 6:30 p. m. Legionnaires and Auxiliary members will hold a banquet at the Hotel Holland for members of the two organizations and their guests. At 9 o'clock the crowd will go to the Oriental Gardens for their annual Armistice day dance, good music and a good time, and everybody invited to attend.

A report from the Legion welfare committee, Emerson Merrick, chairman, was given and showed that through co-operation of the Legion members 80 children from the city and outlying districts were transported to the free tuberculosis clinic, with 808 miles covered in order to make the clinic available to those unable to attend otherwise.

A recess was declared for the purpose of letting members pay their 1935 dues and a great many responded, showing their new officers wholehearted support for the following year. A good membership is assured.

The membership committee will continue its good work and it is hoped that all members will respond when called upon.

Another important matter before the meeting was a Christmas party for all the children of the county to be sponsored by the Legion and Auxiliary members. This will be the largest and most elaborate Christmas party even given for the children, and the Legion wants them all there. A regular Christmas program will be given, besides the largest Christmas tree that can be found for the occasion.

Commander Foy stated that a constructive program will be worked out for the post this year and a report on the same will be given at the next regular meeting, November 26.

FORGET-ME-NOT SALE TO BRING DISABLED CHEER

Contributed.
"Wear a forget-me-not," will be the plea of many volunteer workers on the streets and in the business houses of cities in Jackson county on November 9, 10 and 12, when the annual flower sale of the Jackson county chapter, Disabled American Veterans of the World War opens. It will be an urge for the civic-minded citizens who have not forgotten their war time promises to wear the dainty little boutonniere, the little blue flower of remembrance. The campaign is being conducted by the local chapter to raise funds to take care of emergency relief problems and to aid the work of maintaining a full rehabilitation service for the disabled ex-service men.

Sixteen years ago the boys overseas launched the Argonne drive on September 29, the last big offensive drive of the World War. The Argonne drive sealed the fate of the enemy and the victory caused the Armistice of November 11, 1918. That victory cost America 36,391 killed in action and 14,614 died later of wounds and 191,282 wounded not mortally and 8112 died later and 68,977 died of disease from this campaign and other campaigns during the war.

Sixteen years later 1,033,524 veterans have filed for compensation and 304,791 are receiving this aid, but in a large number of claims the compensation is very low.

Although the war was over Armistice day, 1918, for most of the people of this country, the disabled veterans are still paying the price for their patriotism with pain, suffering, privation and want. We were told that the generous general public would never forget us and I wonder if the general public realize that today a large number of these same veterans who were picked up on the battle fields in France are in the same condition as when picked up 16 years ago.

The price of a forget-me-not at 10c would help make possible for the ladies' auxiliary of the D. A. V. to furnish these disabled veterans with some stationery and to place a vase of flowers on their tables.

"The D. A. V. of the World War is a congressionally chartered spokesman of, by and for the disabled ex-soldier," said A. E. Salice, chairman of the Jackson county chapter flower sale and department chief or staff for Oregon. "Our purpose is to render a distinctive service to the war-time disabled comrades through the local chapter and the national organization."

"We take care of the immediate needs of the incapacitated veteran and his dependents and we try to put him on his feet once more, or render him a service that may make of him a civic asset instead of a public liability by securing for him relief

SALEM, Nov. 7.—(AP)—With the count completed in 72 out of 79 Marion county precincts early this morning, Douglas McKay, Republican mayor of Salem, was safely ahead of the field in his race for one of the two Marion county seats in the state senate.

Charles K. Spaulding, Republican incumbent, enjoyed a comfortable margin over his nearest Democratic rival, Dr. Floyd Uiter, for the second senate seat. The vote stood this morning: McKay, 11,099; Spaulding, 8,955; Uiter, 8,198, and Peebie, 4,341.

The Republican party in the county captured all four seats in the state house of representatives, with Romeo Gouley and Mrs. Hannah Martin gaining a return ticket to their 1932 positions, along with Walter Palmer and Ronald E. Jones, who will enter the legislature for the first time.

BAIN ELECTED D. A. IN MULTNOMAH CO.
PORTLAND, Nov. 7.—(AP)—James R. Bain, Republican, was elected district attorney of Multnomah county in yesterday's election. He had a good sized lead over his opponents, Lotus Langley, Democrat, incumbent; Barnett H. Goldstein, non-partisan, and John A. Jeffrey, Independent.

Frank L. Shull, Republican, was leading in the race for county commissioner, along with Erwin Taft, Democrat, for the two positions.

In Portland, R. E. Biley and Ralph Circle were re-elected city commissioners.

SARAH J. ERDMAN IS LAID TO REST

Sarah J. Erdman, born at Dixon, Ill., June 17, 1854, passed away October 29, at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. D. Haselring, 4129 Anna street, San Francisco.

On May 17, 1890, at Lake Washington, Minn., she was married to Chas. W. Andrews, brother of Edward and the late George and William, all residents of Medford.

One child, Nellie H. Haselring, was born to them. She leaves one sister, Mrs. Fannie Sweet of Hopkins, Minn., who resided in Medford several years.

Chas. Andrews was killed in a railway accident, November 17, 1893. In the fall of 1899, she married Major Adolph Erdman.

They resided in Milwaukee, Wis., until coming to Medford in the fall of 1904. She was a charter member of Central chapter No. 2, O. E. S., Manisto, Minn. Mrs. Erdman resided in Medford for many years, where she had a host of friends, several of whom attended her funeral services at Gray's mortuary chapel, October 31.

Among those present were Mrs. W. G. Oldenbagen, Mrs. Bob Telfer, Mrs. Hamilton and daughters Venita and Edna and Miss Evelyn Applegate. Many loyal friends, including members of O. E. S. chapters, made during her residence in the bay district with her daughter, attended the service. Her remains were cremated at Woodlawn Masonic cemetery.

SALEM, Nov. 7.—(AP)—Two men, both sentenced to the state penitentiary for terms of three years, lost final attempts in the state supreme court to have their cases reviewed when the Oregon tribunal late yesterday denied their petitions for rehearing.

Charles R. Archer, former Salem implement dealer, was denied a rehearing on habeas corpus proceedings. His only recourse would be an appeal to the supreme court of the United States. He was convicted of converting warehouse goods to his own use.

Edward Savan, Portland merchant, lost his appeal for a new trial on conviction of accepting stolen goods. Ejection proceedings from mining property in Josephine county in which Hjalmar Pasat and W. H. Rowe were ordered from the claim, were upheld in an opinion by Justice Harry Bell. The suit was brought by E. E. Young in which the lower court presided over by Judge H. D. Norton held with him. Defendants appealed and lost in the higher court.

Other opinions handed down were: J. H. Lane and M. L. Lane, doing business as Corvallis Credit Bureau, vs. National Insurance Agency, Coast Construction company and others, appellants, appeal from Benton county. Suit to recover money on assignment claim. Opinion by Justice Kelly.

Judge G. F. Skipworth reversed as to Coast Construction Co.
