No. 199.

By PAUL MALLON
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10.—President Roosevelt was conspicuously silent immediately after election. News men near him considered it strange that he warded off all their election inquiries with a laconic: "No comment." Instead of talking, he hastened back to his White House desk and called in his relief advisers.

The explanation privately offered was that it would be presumptuous for him to say anything. He could not even thank the voters without assuming that the victory was his own. That would get him in bad with incoming congressmen who think they won the election. Far worse, it would be in conflict with the post he has assumed all along that he took no part in the election.

That explanation is authentic, as far as it goes, but it does not explain all. Just between you and the gate post, the president was a little perturbed by the extent of the sweep and the added responsibility it put on him. Apparently, he thought he could respond better in actions than in words.

Felers and hints have been dropped from time to time lately as to what one phase of the "action" would be. For some weeks now, government experts have been at work secretly on plans for getting out of last winter's deleterious system into work relief.

One government official met only last week in private with a group of bankers and industrialists in New York. He told them the administration was determined to put all the unemployed to work this winter and cost would not be permitted to stand in the way. They offered no strong objections.

The president himself has hinted as much to recent callers. They have an impression that he will go easy on the money end of the program, probably mentioning no specific amount. That is because the immediate cost of work relief is greater than the cost of the waste savings in greater. But the work is constructive and has a value for the future, even if it goes no further than giving each hungry man an acre, a mule and a plow.

Also, by some such bold stroke, Mr. Roosevelt can seize the leadership, instead of permitting the incoming congressional crowd to seize him.

The president's forthcoming trip through the TVA project is in line with the new trend. In fact, it is really promotional ballyhoo for the new trend.

Government officials are trying to get as many newsmen as possible to go along on the inspection tour. Extensive arrangements are being made for them to inform the public concerning TVA accomplishments. Up to now, the TVA has been operating very quietly, but apparently it is in sharp contrast to the publicity floodlights to be turned on.

What the new dealers have back in their heads, of course, is the establishment of projects similar to TVA in other sections (St. Lawrence, Columbia river, etc.).

A very influential democrat is at work confidentially on a bonus compromise. He is Senator Pat Harrison, chairman of the senate appropriations committee. Harrison has made several secret trips to Administration House of the White House. The new dealers plan on working something out before congress forces action.

From all these spots, you can see very clearly that what Mr. Roosevelt is trying to do is to beat congress to the jump on everything.

The treasury has been busy about publishing tax returns but preparations for their publication are being made on the inside. The internal revenue bureau is quietly preparing where sculptors will be required to fill out with their March 15 returns. The forms would require a taxpayer to list the key figures of income and tax paid without any of the details of the return.

However, the bureau is not having these forms printed, as yet. Apparently it believes some of the arrangements cancelled before March 15.

There is a room in the commerce department which is always kept locked. It is the reading room of famous sculptors. Reuben Nakian has finished busts of Ribicoff, Tugwell, Johnson, Hull and McGrady. He will do Roosevelt and Howe before anyone gets in.

URSCHEL RANSOM COIN GROUP FACE OKLAHOMA COURT

Mrs. Feldman, Her Son, and His Wife Ordered Held For Removal—Scott, Auto Accident Victim, Improves—Mystery Bullet.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 10. (AP)—A thin trail of scattered ransom money, part of $200,000, today led two women and a man to a drag court-room, as the government moved to send them to Oklahoma City to be asked what they can tell of the kidnaping last year of Charles F. Urschel, millionaire.

The narrow trail of "hot" money had been followed relentlessly by Federal agents since the day in July, 1933, when the kidnaping of Urschel was paid $200,000 for his release.

Mrs. Clara Davis, known too as Clara Feldman, wife of Albert Bates, convicted kidnaper, was ordered held under $50,000 bond. Her son, Edward Feldman, 21, named with her in Federal conspiracy complaints, was held for $25,000. Bond for his wife, young Betty O'Neil Feldman, was set at $10,000. She was advised she is held only as a witness.

Before United States Commissioner Kenneth F. Frazer the three appeared late today. Federal guards, heavily armed, watched closely for any overt act.

On Dec. 4 at 10:30 a. m., the three will protest the government's removal proceedings. On the same date another man and a woman will give a hearing of the same order in Eugene—Alvin H. Scott, 45, and his housekeeper, Mrs. Margaret Hurlienne, sister of Mrs. Feldman.

Clara Feldman, her son, Edward, and his wife were arrested in Dunsmuir, Cal., yesterday by Federal agents who earlier this week had arrested Scott and Mrs. Hurlienne in Roseburg. Scott is improving from a skull injury suffered in an automobile accident Nov. 2.

From the five, Federal investigators said, about $4,000 in $20 ransom notes has been recovered. In addition to $4,000 in bank drafts made out to Mrs. Feldman.

Mrs. Feldman, the long sought "mysterious blonde" who has been described as a key witness in the Urschel kidnaping, wept softly as she waited her turn before the commissioner. When he told her she must remain in custody unless she raised $50,000 bail, she said, "no chance," and smiled wistfully.

Her son, his face reddening, said only "I don't want to go to Oklahoma," when the commissioner spoke of the removal complaint. Of the three, Betty Feldman alone was flinching. She grinned often but said nothing.

The complaint against mother and son, as does the one for Scott and Mrs. Hurlienne, charges that they and 15 others already convicted of the kidnaping, conspired to kidnap and abduct in transporting Urschel from Oklahoma to Texas after he had been kidnaped and held for ransom.

Federal agents revealed today that a letter was received at the Salem postoffice today addressed to Mrs. Hurlienne. It contained clippings from Denver newspapers telling of her arrest. The return address, the officers said, was postoffice box 2965.

The investigators observed that upon delivery of the Urschel ransom, the kidnap gang separated, some going to Denver, some to St. Paul and some to the west coast.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 10. (AP)—Mrs. Clara Feldman and her son and his wife, were brought here early today by Federal Agent C. C. Spears, who said $1,100 "hot" Urschel ransom money was found at their home in Dunsmuir, California.

This made more than $3,000 the past week during which five persons were taken into custody as far-reaching investigation continued in the Urschel kidnaping for which 13 persons already have been sentenced to prison.

COAST FRUITMEN TURN DEAF EARS TO GERMAN PLAN

Barter And Exchange For Fruit Afoul Of Low Exchange Rates—Fruit Famine At Christmas Time Faced.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10. (AP)—The spectacle of a whole nation across the sea going hungry for fruit while California's warehouses groan under the burden of such goodies waiting to be eaten has given rise to a great international bartering plan under the outlook for large scale swapping appeared discouraging today.

The hungry nation is Germany, whose money has become of such small value in comparison with American dollars that her people cannot afford raisins, oranges, lemons, dried apricots, peaches and peaches for which they developed a great appetite in their more prosperous past.

German importers hit upon the idea of bartering goods of their country for California fruit. They planned a cartel, or mutual agreement, to carry out the actual swapping, but immediately ran into a major obstacle. California fruit producers didn't want any thing the Germans had to offer in straight trading.

Hamburg dealers offered German machinery for fruit. Pacific coast producers said they couldn't use the German machinery and wouldn't know how to dispose of it either.

Producers of sacks in Germany sought to trade them for California nuts. The plan was dropped here as unacceptable.

"The Christmas trade season is here and it appears Germany is in for a fruit famine," said E. Tilden Mattox, chief of the San Francisco bureau of foreign and domestic commerce.

The movement of California fruit and nuts to Germany has shrunk almost to the vanishing point, shippers said.

Ships laden with the highly prized fruits still dock at Hamburg but their cargo passes on through to Czechoslovakia, Poland and other countries whose currencies are more nearly on a par with American money than German money.

ARIZONA MILITIA ORDERED OUT IN RIVER DAM FUSS

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 10. (AP)—Martial law was invoked suddenly today by Governor B. B. Moeur in an apparent attempt to stop the federal government and the Metropolitan water district of California from building a diversion dam across the Colorado river.

Immediate preparations for mobilizing 20 machine gunners and 40 infantrymen to augment a militia squad already on the scene and to "repel the threatened invasion of the sovereignty and territory of the state of Arizona" were set in motion.

A declaration that Arizona's governor might find himself in the position of using National Guard troops to "fight" the United States government was made by one water district official who declined to allow the use of his name.

An intimation that the matter was beyond the pale of Arizona's authority was dropped in Washington by Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes, whose department has supervision of the big construction project.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Senator Borah (R., Idaho) agreed today to lay before the Federal Relief Administration evidence he says he has of the "shameless waste" of relief funds.

NEED ADDITIONAL FUNDS FOR QUOTA COMMITTEE ANNOUNCES 87 PERCENT QUOTA REACHED—PLEA MADE FOR MONEY TO COMPLETE CHEST BUDGET.

An intensive drive will be made by community chest workers and committee members for funds to complete the 1934 budget, according to Manager Frank Hull, following an announcement late yesterday that 87 percent of the chest quota had been reached.

With thirteen percent of the total sum necessary to assure the continuance of the splendid work of the seven participating chest organizations, an effort is being made to contact public spirited Medford and Jackson county people who have not already contributed to the Community Chest cause.

"We feel confident that the people of this city and immediate vicinity will not fail us in this urgent call for chest funds," Frank Hull said yesterday. "We are gratified in the fact that approximately 1300 people have contributed to this fund and we are making an effort to contact those who have not had an opportunity to do their part in making possible the continuance of the worth-while work of the charitable and character-building organizations who have a part in the chest fund."

BORAH CLAIMS RELIEF WASTE TO GET FULL PROBE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Senator Borah (R., Idaho) agreed today to lay before the Federal Relief Administration evidence he says he has of the "shameless waste" of relief funds.

The Idaho senator arranged to confer next week with Dallas W. Dort, chief investigator for the relief administration, after receiving a letter from Harry L. Hopkins, relief director, asserting conditions charged by Borah "will not be tolerated for a moment."

Borah made public the following letter from Hopkins, together with his reply: "Statements in the newspapers indicate that you stated that you had evidence of a shameful waste of relief funds."

"I have asked M. Dallas W. Dort, our chief investigator, to make an investigation of these charges and would appreciate it very much if you will make available to him the evidence upon which these charges are based so that we may make a prompt and searching inquiry at once."

Japan Miners Die
TOKYO, Nov. 10. (AP)—An explosion in a colliery north of Sapporo Island of Hokkaido killed 37 miners today. Five others are missing, while 108 had narrow escapes.

FLETCHER CHARTS 'STRAIGHT AHEAD' POLICY FOR GOP

Chairman Reflects Farley's Boast 'Party Is Dead' And Predicts New Deal Collapse—Vote Gain Last Tuesday Cited.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10. (AP)—A challenging instance that the republican party "is not dead and is not going to die" was flung at democrats today in answer to Postmaster General Farley's attempt to read that result into the G. O. P.'s defeat in Tuesday's election.

Taking notice of reports that a new party might be formed on the wreckage of the G. O. P., Henry P. Fletcher, served warning on democrats that "we will continue to fight."

Furthermore, the republican chairman predicted the new deal "will people" because of its "paternalistic and socialistic policies," and that the G. O. P. will "carry on."

Apparently somewhat encouraged after conferences with other party leaders in New York about future plans, Fletcher held, in his first formal statement since the election, that there was "no other organization" to take the field to make "the fight for sound economic and political principles."

Fletcher claimed that despite the democratic sweep and Farley's statement that the G. O. P. was "dead," the republicans polled 4 per cent of Tuesday's total vote and that democrats lost 7,000,000 compared with a republican 3,000,000 drop under 1932.

Citing that 13,000,000 republican votes were cast Tuesday, said "the overwhelming majority in the senate and house rests on the very narrow popular base."

"There is no other organization which has in every voting precinct in the United States a body of loyal, active workers ready to take the field and make the fight for sound economic and political principles. Nor can any amount of money place such another organization in the field."

"Any fight which has for its object the defeat of the policies and practices of this administration must start with the 13,000,000 republican workers and voters who went on record against the new deal last Tuesday."

RIDERLESS HORSE CLUE TO MURDER ON LOWER ROGUE

State Police Sergeant Keith K. Ambrose of Gold Beach, Ore., telephoned state police headquarters here last night that Hugo Mayer, 35, a resident of Brookings, Ore., is sought for questioning in connection with the mysterious death of Robert Faunt, who resides in the vicinity of Indigo and Silver creeks in the Golu Beach section.

Sergeant Ambrose described Mayer as being five feet, eight inches in height, weighing 165, and having brown hair and eyes, and good teeth. When last seen, according to the officers, Mayer was wearing a blue jumper, and trousers, cap and shoes corresponding to clothes issued in the CCC.

Army officers at the CCC district headquarters here said last night that although Mayer is not with the CCC now, they believed he was a member of the Pistol River company there last year shortly after the camps were organized.

GOLD BEACH, Ore., Nov. 10. (AP)—A riderless horse, a man's body and a small bullet hole were linked today into a tale of a backwoods ambush.

Up from the Pacific ocean in the southwestern Oregon woods lived Robert Faunt, who resides in the vicinity of Indigo and Silver creeks of the lower Rogue river district.

CITY READY FOR CELEBRATION OF WORLD WAR END

Armistice Day Parade To Start At 11 O'clock—Football Game In Afternoon—Banquet And Ball In Evening.

In commemoration of the armistice of the World war, the citizens and patriotic organizations of Medford will observe the national holiday tomorrow, November 12, with the annual parade, football game, banquet and ball, which mark the day as one of patriotic celebration.

In the morning the parade will occupy first place in the day's activities, and will start at 11 a. m. The route of march will be east on Main street to Bartlett, thence north to Sixth street, thence west to Central, thence south to Main street, thence west on Main street to the city park.

All military, veteran and patriotic organizations and their auxiliaries are asked to gather at the park at 10:30 a. m., where the parade will form. Bands will take their positions at the library; religious and relief organizations and schools will meet on North Ivy street, near Main; the Chamber of Commerce group, Greater Medford club, all other civic betterment organizations, and the Granges will gather on North Oakdale, near Main.

Paternal and social organizations will meet on South Oakdale in front of the courthouse; Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, on the library lawn, and all entries of other classification, on Main street west of Oakdale. Representatives of the American Legion will assist in formation of the parade.

The World War veterans will march in a body, according to Legion Commander Earl Foy, and will not be grouped as Legionnaires and Veterans of Foreign Wars. Veterans are urged to participate, whether or not they are affiliated with any organization.

During the afternoon, the football game between Medford high school and the Chemawa Indians will be played on VanScyoc field, starting at 2 p. m. This game, which promises to be the most closely contested and colorful so far this season on the local gridiron, will follow the parade as the next major activity of the day.

The free feed which has been held at noon in the past will not be given this year.

At 6:30 p. m. all Legionnaires and auxiliary members and their guests will hold a banquet at the Hotel Holland, for which reservations will be held by the secretary, W. J. Lockyer, Commander Foy and Post Commander Lee Garlock stress the importance of making reservations early for the banquet, as making preparations will be aided if it is known how many are planning to attend. A charge of 50 cents per plate will be made for the banquet.

Ending the day's celebration will be the annual Armistice day ball, which will be held under auspices of the American Legion. The dance will be at the Oriental Gardens, and will start promptly at 9 p. m. Emerson Merrick, chairman of the dance committee, has made arrangements for excellent music.

Everyone is invited to attend the ball, which is recognized in Legion circles as the event of the year.

DEBT MORATORIUM FOR 2 YEARS NOW FAVORED BY HUEY

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 10. (AP)—Stirred into ecstasy by his dreams of "Kingfish" rule, Senator Huey P. Long today began adding towers to his kingdom of Louisiana.

He ordered the legislature to meet next week and declare a two year debt moratorium for debt-burdened "survivors of the depression," as the big stroke of the day in his "share-your-wealth" scheme.

Then the "Kingfish" had his bodyguard, Joe Messina, sign a formal call for an afternoon mass meeting of voters and those expected to vote under the state's famous backback of Louisiana state university's football team, to the state senate position vacated by one of Long's political enemies who went to congress.

EAST GRID TEAMS STAGE COMEBACK SATURDAY'S PLAY

Minnesota And Rice Keep Records Clear—Pitt Whips Nebraska—'Big Three' Tie Continues.

Stanford's Cardinals and Rice's Owls smashed their way to pivotal conference victories yesterday in another brilliant intercollegiate football program marked by a stunning comeback by the east in inter-sectional warfare.

Stanford all but clinched at least a share in the Pacific Coast conference and perhaps the rose bowl nomination by routing through Washington's previously undefeated and untied Huskies 24 to 0. Rice, tied by Louisiana State but undefeated, got over one of the biggest obstacles in its race for the southwest title, turning back Arkansas Razorbacks, a new record champion of a year ago, 7-0.

Tulane, co-leader with Alabama of the southeastern conference and previously undefeated and untied, invaded New York and found itself unable to fathom the complicated passing plays Andy Kerr has devised for Colgate and the red raiders romped to a 20-6 victory. Pittsburgh, beaten only by Minnesota's powerhouse, found Nebraska easy and won, 25-6, with Mike Nicklack and Izzy Weinstein in starring roles.

Notre Dame gained ground all over the Municipal stadium at Cleveland, but they still lay off on final scores and Navy hung up its seventh successive victory, 10-6. Vio Hanson's powerful Sprague array over-powered the Spartans of Michigan State 10-0. In a clash of undefeated and untied teams at Syracuse, Duquesne, meantime, soundly trounced Oklahoma A. and M., 32-0, while Villanova coasted to a 20-0 triumph at South Carolina's expense.

Only Georgia's bulldogs and the Tigers of Louisiana State prevented the east from sweeping the boards in major inter-sectional games. Georgia spotted Yale one touchdown and then rallied to win, 14-7, thus becoming the first school in history to whip the Elis five times in succession. Louisiana State emerged victory, 6-0, over George Washington Columbia and retained its undefeated status and kept alive its chance of getting a Rose Bowl invitation.

Meanwhile, the "big three" of the big ten, Minnesota, Purdue and Illinois all won and a three-way tie for the championship seemed all but assured. Minnesota romped through Indiana, 30-0, but Purdue was harrassed to down Iowa, 13-6, and Illinois trailed Northwestern, 3-0, at the half before applying the pressure and winning, 14-3. Ohio State, whose only defeat was a 14-13 setback by Illinois, dealt Chicago's crippled Maroons an unmerciful wallop, 33-0, while Wisconsin was stopped by Michigan, 10-0.

Utah's Indians, who have won or shared in the Rocky Mountain conference title for the past six years, dropped into the defeat class when Colorado university eked out a 7-6 verdict. Utah State, meantime, maintained its lead in the conference by playing the Colorado Aggies to a spectacular 21-21 tie.

GRAND-DAUGHTER OF EX-PRESIDENT WEDS FILM ACTOR

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 10. (AP)—Ellen Wilson McAdoo and Ralph Lopes de Onate, overcome the last obstacle to their romance with a quiet wedding in the home of friends here this morning.

The grand-daughter of the late President Wilson and the tall, dark haired motion picture actor slipped away from Los Angeles quietly last night and arrived last night by airplane at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wheeler, here.

De Onate, who spent the night at a hotel, joined Miss McAdoo early this morning at the home of the Albuquerque attorney. The county clerk was summoned to issue a marriage license. Miss McAdoo gave her age as 19, de Onate as 38.

Then, with Mr. and Mrs. Kelenor attending, they were wed by the Rev. George J. Weber, Congregational minister.

Miss McAdoo was attired in a simple black dress, reviewed only by its white collar, de Onate wore a dark business suit.

They left soon by airplane for an unannounced destination.

OREGON WINS 9-6 FROM STAINERS IN LISTLESS BATTLE

Franklin And Van Vliet Sparkplugs—Three Banned For Field Fight—Squads Evenly Matched.

MULTNOMAH STADIUM, PORTLAND, Nov. 10. (AP)—A running and passing duel between the indomitable Norm Franklin and the fleet-footed Maury Van Vliet in last half spurts resulted in scores for both Oregon State and Oregon in the annual state contest here today which gave the long end of the 9 and 8 tally to Oregon for the retention of its title.

Oregon State Beavers hopes to win its first victory in the conference were dashed by the Oregon line which prevented interference to work effectively for Franklin on his runs, and it was not until the last minute of play that the star halfback abandoned the runs and took to the air bringing the only tally by three completed throws to Pangle and Campbell, the latter scoring the lone touchdown.

Van Vliet had better luck, however, with beautiful running blockers and he was largely responsible for the place kick and touchdown tally making the dash over the goal line himself in the first of the fourth quarter. Walker scored the first time in the game with an angled place kick which dropped between the uprights. Neither team was successful in tries for extra points.

Other than the three scoring flashes and a fistic encounter in the second quarter which seemed to spur on the gridlers, the contest was a listless one which 21,000 fans witnessed. Three players were forced out of the game as the result of the fight which followed a first down made by Oregon in midfield. Alex Eagle, Oregon tackle, and Thomas Swanson, half, and John Brandt, tackle for Oregon State were eliminated from the contest. No other penalties were inflicted.

The first scoring threat was made by the Beavers following the tangle on the gridiron, but the period apparently saved Oregon from being scored upon at that point. The threat started when Oregon fumbled after receiving a punt on its own 16 yard line. A pass and line plunges placed

RAIN PREDICTED BY MIDDLE WEEK

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10. (AP)—Weather outlook for the period of November 12-17 inclusive:

Far western states: The outlook is for normal temperatures, considerable cloudiness, rain by the middle of the week from northern California northward to the Canadian border and over the northern plateau region.

MICHIGAN PRIEST BEATEN TO DEATH

IRON RIVER, Mich., Nov. 10. (AP)—The Rev. James Lenhart, 63, rector pastor of St. Agnes church here, was beaten to death tonight and police held Magliore La Belle, divorced husband of the priest's former housekeeper, as the slayer.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

REVERLY HILLS, Cal., Nov. 2.—You know as all these late precincts kept coming in (where they can't count very fast) the Democratic lead keeps piling up. It's just kinder kicking a fellow when he is down in the heat of the moment, they have kicked out some awful good Republicans.

And then, too, too big a victory ain't so good. We need quite a few in there just as detectives or watch-dogs. Then too, you want to remember that an awful lot of these Democratic voters this time were really at heart Republicans, and they can revert back to type mighty quick.

So, don't rub it in, boys, for there ain't any finer folks living than a Republican that votes the Democratic ticket. Yours for tolerance.

Will Rogers.
