OREGON WINS 9-6 FROM STATERS IN LISTLESS BATTLE

The ball on the six yard line but in the next and last play Franklin was thrown for a loss in an attempted pass.

Oregon started its drive in the third quarter when Franklin's kick was blocked by Oregon on the Beaver 14 yard line. After several scrimmage plays, Vincent Walker, then in the game as end, place kicked the ball between the goal posts from a sharp angle on the 14 yard line.

Oregon's next score resulted from a concentrated drive from their own 25 yard line, alternating between their famous cruncher plays, reverses and end runs.

Parke started the scoring trip with first downs to his own 37. An offside penalty gave the university players another first down on their own 48 after line plunges. Parke, from a reverse from Van Vleet ran the ball to the Beaver forty where the quarter ended.

The Oregon men however continued the drive in the fourth when Morse took the ball on the first play for 22 yards around left end to the Beaver 18. He repeated for eight yards more to the ten yard stripe. Van Vleet carried on the work from that point and in two plays through the line scored standing up. Walker missed goal.

The game from that point until the final seconds was slowed by substitutions and not until the contest was all but over did Franklin spark with three completed passes, two to Pangle and one to Campbell for the final tally from the Beaver 33 yard line after he had run the ball from midfield.

The try for point by the scrimmage route failed and the game ended after Van Vleet had run the ball half way across the field from the kickoff for what looked for a time as another touchdown.

The Beavers had the advantage in first downs, with ten to their credit against nine for Oregon. Each made one from passes and one from penalties. Yardage showed the teams evenly matched. Oregon made 178 from scrimmage and 24 from passes while the Oregonians marked up 121 from scrimmage and 70 from passes.

Lineups end summary:
Oregon Oregon State
Morse (C) LE Bout
Eagle LF Mitola
Carter LG Tomsochek
Fury C Deonty
Rijk RT Woerney
Pyle RE Brandis
Walker RH Casseely
Terjeson Q Pangle
VanVleet LH Franklin (C)

ENRIGHT TO HEAR SENTENCE NOV. 19

Sentence will be passed Monday, November 19, upon Attorney T. J. Enright, found guilty by the circuit court jury last week, of driving an auto while intoxicated. Attorney Enright appeared before Judge H. D. Norton Friday afternoon.

The court suggested to Attorney Enright that he resign from the Southern Oregon Bar association, and make arrangements to move to Idaho, where he is licensed to practice law. Attorney E. E. Kelly, acted as intervener in the proceedings. The court suggested that a change for all concerned would be advantageous.

Attorney Enright told the court it would require until the first of the year for him to arrange his business affairs. The court did not acquiesce and directed that Enright be ready for sentence, a week from Monday.

Attorney Enright was tried Wednesday in circuit court, on a drunken driving charge. Previously he had been found guilty, by a justice court jury of the same charge, and was sentenced to 30 days in jail, fined $150 and his driver's license suspended. The jail term was suspended, and time given for paying the fine.

Sally Cole Opens Marble Corner In Old Jacksonville

Improvements are rapidly being made on the Marble Corner, new rendezvous in old Jacksonville, recently opened by Miss Sally Cole, and everything is in readiness for a special Armistice day party Monday. Lovely little Sally Cole, hostess of the new establishment, has extended a cordial invitation to southern Oregon people, especially veterans, to enjoy the party she has prepared for Armistice afternoon and evening.

The old pioneer bar, relic of old-time Jacksonville, has been retained by Sally Cole for her Marble Corner, where Italian dinners, dancing and refreshments are featured. Miss Cole, hostess of the popular Jacksonville place, was formerly proprietor of the Orono Inn in this city.

HEATED ARGUMENT BEFORE PENDLETON PUBLISHER SHOT

LA GRANDE, Ore., Nov. 10.—(AP)—Testimony that a heated argument preceded the fatal shooting of Fred Lampkin, 56, of Pendleton, on a hunting expedition yesterday, was given at his inquest here tonight.

At conclusion of the inquest the coroner's jury reported that Lampkin, co-owner and business manager of the East Oregonian, Pendleton newspaper, came to death "by a gunshot wound discharged from a gun in the hands of Dan Bowman."

Bowman, also of Pendleton, told the jury that he accidentally discharged his rifle and killed Lampkin, who was shot between the eyes. The shooting occurred in the Blue mountains at Sheep creek camp, about 13 miles above Starkey.

Charles Goodyear of Pendleton, the only other member of the hunting party who was eye-witness to the shooting, said Bowman and Lampkin engaged in a heated argument concerning pictures taken earlier in the day.

Goodyear said that during the argument he started to intervene but was warned to keep back, which he did. He told of Bowman loading his gun in the automobile and then starting to get out.

FOY WAR RELICS PUT IN BOOTERY

Of interest over the Armistice holiday is the exhibit of the World War relics collected from the battlefields by Earl Foy, commander of the Medford American Legion post, which have been placed in the windows of the Strang Brok Bootery.

Included in the exhibit is an infantry helmet with a hole pierced through it by a death-dealing bullet, a Bavarian and a Prussian guard helmet, German and American bayonets, different types of shells, the gas mask Foy used, several miscellaneous articles, and a riot gun used in guarding German prisoners at Isenheim, Belgium. The relics are displayed on a blanket Foy used overseas.

Each of the articles was picked up by Foy himself as he returned from different engagements, and come directly from the battlefields. Commander Foy served as Sergeant-Major in the 91st division, and saw action at St. Mihiel, Meuse, the Argonne, and Ypres.

ROTARY GOVERNOR VISITS TUESDAY

Percy Scourrah, of Victoria, British Columbia, governor of the Rotary district including Oregon, Washington and British Columbia, will arrive in Medford by plane Tuesday morning for the regular meeting Tuesday noon of the Medford Rotary club at the Hotel Medford basement banquet hall.

Governor Scourrah will review the past year's activities of the district, and will offer suggestions for the coming year, in a meeting which promises to be one of the local club's outstanding events. Governor Scourrah will confer with President C. O. Smith, directors of the club and with heads of the important committees.

SPADER UNEARTHS DYNAMITE CACHE

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 10.—(AP)—Two caches of dynamite found here occupied the attention of investigating officers tonight.

Alexander Peduck, while spading near an unused garage near his home, uncovered three sticks of dynamite.

Four sticks of dynamite, six caps and a roll of fuse were found by Mrs. C. P. Graham under the porch of a house she owns. That cache was wrapped in a newspaper dated November 1.

PRIZES OFFERED FOR BEST TRAPS

For the eighth consecutive year the American Humane association of Albany, N. Y., has announced its annual humane trap contest which will close April 30, 1935.

The contest is open to everyone and contestants are urged to write the association at 80 Howard street, Albany, N. Y., for further details.

The judges, eminent men in the field of conservation, will award six prizes totalling five hundred dollars. Prizes of $150 and $75 will be given for the best traps for taking animals alive and unharmed. For traps of the leg-gripping type, holding without injury, the prizes will be $100 and $50 and for traps of the killing type, the prizes are $85 and $40.

It has been pointed out by members of the society, that it is not the purpose of the association to paralyze trapping, but rather to alleviate the suffering of wild life. Humane traps are being used by trappers to good advantage, they state. They also find that unharmed pelts are more easily marketable and for animals trapped for the purpose of propagation and according to association members, the alive and unharmed type of trap is invaluable.
