

Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Edited by
Irva Fewell Edwards

Mrs. Bartlam Is Honored Guest At Saturday Luncheon

Mrs. Ernest H. Bartlam was guest of honor yesterday at a luncheon given by Mrs. H. D. McCaskey at her country home.

Besides Mrs. Bartlam, the guests were Miss Carlisle, Miss Mae Carlisle, Miss Anne Livingston, Mrs. John C. S. Wells, Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, Mrs. Alex Sparrow, Mrs. Worthington and Mrs. Thomas V. Williams.

Card Party Friday At Club Rooms

The Wenonah club public card party will be held at the Redmen hall on Friday evening, Nov. 16 at 8 o'clock. Those enjoying an evening of cards are cordially invited to attend.

Invitations Issued Wedding Thursday

Invitations have been issued to the wedding Thursday morning at ten o'clock of Miss Ellow Mae Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wilson, and Charles N. Gall of Roseburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Gall of this city. The wedding will be at the Wilson home, 7 Chestnut.

Baptist Ladies' Group To Meet With Mrs. Jones

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Baptist church will hold a combined business and missionary meeting Tuesday, Nov. 13, at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. W. L. Jones, 343 Apple. The devotional period will be conducted by Mrs. H. E. Burke. All members and friends are urged to be present as an interesting meeting is anticipated.

Miss Oathes Weds Mr. Patrick Today In Portland Church

At 12:30 o'clock this afternoon, Miss Mildred Oathes of Medford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Oathes of Canby, Ore., is to wed W. L. Patrick of Portland. The ceremony will be performed at the First Methodist church at Twelfth and West Taylor streets in Portland.

The bride will wear a dress of blue detailed in silver, with a short train, and her hat and slippers are in corresponding colors. Her bouquet will be gardenias and lilies of the valley. Among guests at the wedding will be Mrs. Essie McAllister and Miss Claudia Constable of Medford, and Dr. and Mrs. Jay Patrick of Wenatchee, brother and sister-in-law of the bride.

The couple will return to Medford after a two weeks' wedding trip in the north.

Study Club Hears Talks and Reviews Wednesday Meeting

A most interesting meeting of the Wednesday Study club was held in the club rooms November 7, with the president, Mrs. George Harding, in charge. Mrs. H. G. Wortman was in charge of the program, and gave an interesting paper on coal mines and miners, explaining the different methods used, the grades of coal and the areas where found. She used pictures to illustrate her talk.

A review of the book, "I Went to Pitt College," was written by a young graduate of Smith college. It is not a college, but a graphic description of the coal miners, and is an index of this industry.

The current events conducted by Mrs. E. B. Pickett, showed a wide range of topics.

W. H. M. S. Meeting At Belknap Home

The Women's Home Missionary society will meet with Mrs. Belknap Tuesday, November 13, with Mrs. Van Dyke and Mrs. T. G. Heine as assistant hostesses. Those wishing transportation, or those having room for others in their automobiles, are requested to telephone either Mrs. C. C. Daby or Mrs. E. C. Koppen. Tuesday is also thanks offering day.

Phoenix Girl Scouts Conduct Camporee

The annual mother and daughter banquet of the Girl Scouts of Troop 8, Phoenix, was held Saturday evening in the form of a camporee. The parlor of the Presbyterian church was beautifully decorated with small trees and sprays of varied autumnal colors. The fireplace was converted into a campfire with a black iron kettle suspended from a crane. The white covered table was decorated with autumn leaves. The entire lighting of the room was from candles placed in holders made of apples.

Music was enjoyed and talks given by both mothers and daughters. Following dinner the company of some thirty mothers and daughters gathered about the campfire and enjoyed stories and songs. The campfire program was completed by a beautiful and impressive fog ceremonial and the singing of taps.

Mrs. Burroughs Hostess Carnation Club Members

The Carnation club met Thursday evening in regular session with Mrs. Burroughs at her home, 1001 North Central avenue. Mrs. Beulah Hunter, newly-elected vice-president was in charge, due to the absence of the president, Mrs. Kempke, who was ill.

Eighteen members and guests were present. During the business hour, plans were completed for the Degree of Honor Juvenile club to meet with Mrs. Ethel Bigler at her Laurel street home, with their decorated bicycles and participate in the Armistice day parade November 12. They were asked to meet in front of the court house at 10:30 o'clock.

The evening was spent in embroidering tea towels for Miss Ellow Mae Wilson, whose wedding is to be an event of this week. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Burroughs, assisted by Mrs. Mathilda Dietrich. The next meeting will be the evening of December 13 at the home of Mrs. Mamie Setler.

The Bride and Groom

(Associated Press Photo) ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 10.—(AP)—Ellen McAdoo, daughter of Senator W. G. McAdoo, and Rafael De Onate, screen actor, were married here this morning at a simple ceremony at the home of W. J. Keleher, Albuquerque attorney and close friend of the McAdoo.

Arriving here by plane last night from Los Angeles, Miss McAdoo spent the night at the Keleher home, and De Onate stayed at a hotel.

At ten o'clock this morning the couple met in the home of the Keleher and were married by the Rev. George J. Weber, Congregational minister.

Only members of the Keleher family were present. Mrs. Keleher attending the bride and Keleher acting as best man for the groom.

The wedding took place in the spacious living room of the Keleher home.

The marriage license was obtained just a short while before the wedding after the Bernalillo county clerk had been called to the Keleher home.

Utmost secrecy guarded the wedding and Mr. and Mrs. De Onate would not announce their plans. It was understood they would leave here in a special plane at noon for some unannounced destination to spend their honeymoon.

Korean Missionary Guest at Medford Methodist Society

Miss Marie Churchill, missionary of Korea, now home on a furlough, was honor guest, Thursday afternoon, at the W. F. M. S. of the First M. E. church.

A one o'clock covered dish luncheon was served in the church parlors and the afternoon session followed with Mrs. Wiley in the chair.

Devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Lyman, opening with singing the hymn, "O Matchless Worth." The study topic, "Contemplation of Ownership" with Bible references from both the old and the new testaments was given.

Miss Churchill who is principal of the Girls' college in Ewa, Korea, gave an address full of interest and descriptive of the work and progress in Korea, as was also a report of the executive meeting held recently in Washington, D. C. They are now making plans for a new college building, costing one hundred thousand dollars, to replace the older building, which will be used as a high school.

Miss Churchill visited Medford some years ago, at which time the local society subscribed to a fund for furnishing beds for the dormitory of this school.

After school hours, Miss Churchill addressed a group of high school girls gathered in the parlors. Miss Churchill is the house guest of Mrs. E. C. Koppen during her stay here.

Socialites' Meeting To Be Held This Evening

The meeting of the Socialites, which was previously announced for next Tuesday, will be held this evening at the Sacred Heart Parish hall on South Oakdale. All members are urged to be present at 7:30 o'clock.

Reamers Chapter Officers To Entertain Wednesday

Reamers Chapter No. 66, O. E. S., is to have a most enjoyable evening Wednesday, Nov. 14, at the Masonic hall when the officers entertain with a program and refreshments. All members and visiting members are urged to be present as a most entertaining evening is promised.

Japanese Costumes Worn by Speakers, Crater Lake Guild

A most interesting meeting of the Crater Lake Guild was held at the beautiful country home of Esther Merritt Sanderson, Monday evening. Hostesses were Mrs. Frank Haggerty, Mrs. H. E. March and Mrs. Sanderson. The topic for consideration was Japan. Clever decorations and refreshments were in keeping with the subject.

Mrs. Florence McElhose and Mrs. Sanderson entertained with a number of Japanese songs, both native and modern, which were joyfully received by the group. Discussion of the various aspects of Japan followed: Political, Helen Wilson; education, Dorothy Barr; culture, Irene Grigsby; religion, Beulah Faber; and Japan's contribution to other nations, Deliah Walker. All participants in the program wore typical Japanese costumes.

The next meeting of the Guild is to be held at the home of Emily Brown, continuing the study of this country but from a different and equally interesting point of view.

Fisks are Hosts to Pythians at Party

A Pythian party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Plak of Voorhes Crossing Thursday evening, Nov. 8. The evening was spent in playing cards with four tables of bridge and three of pinochle.

High score in bridge was won by Elizabeth Temple, low by Darrick Sullivan; high in pinochle by Susie Yost, low by Ruth Walden. Prizes were presented them. The honor guest, Mrs. Charles Cook was presented with a gift and bouquet of flowers.

There were thirty persons present, the hosts, their two daughters and Mr. Plak's mother. At a late hour refreshments were served and everyone enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Loyalty Club To Meet Wednesday

The Loyalty Club of the Eagles will meet at the home of Justine Pedersen, 744 West Jackson street, Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 14. All members are urged to attend.

Penpushers Are Guests of Mrs. Winterhalter

Penpushers club met Friday evening with Mrs. Anna Winterhalter. Roll call was answered with pertinent phrases, taken from books and magazine phrases.

Mrs. Olive May Cook scored the highest number of points in the organization, having had two magazine articles accepted.

Poetry criticism was the topic of the evening and members of this class are looking forward to the creation meeting in Talent November 14.

Dancing Party Enjoyed by Lodge

An enjoyable evening of dancing was held for members and their invited friends of Posaehontas lodge on Friday evening with Dickey's furnishing the music. The committee in charge of entertainment consisted of Nellie Purdin, Zilpha Armstrong, Esther Dooms, Jack Dooms and Geo. Armstrong.

Refreshments were served by Sarah Tolle, Ethel Blah, Irene Shirley, Frances Moffatt and Ed Shokal.

A Thanksgiving dance will be held on Friday, November 30.

Many Local Folk Journey to Game

The usual local interest in the annual football game between University of Oregon and Oregon State college, played yesterday at Multnomah stadium in Portland, was manifested in the large number who made the journey north. Among those who left by train Friday night, out of nearly forty persons who made the trip in the evening and thirty who left Friday morning, were:

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fluhrer and party, who took a special car, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Lemery, Mr. and Mrs. Max Peirce, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Loo Barnes, Miss Alice Mallin, Miss Ruth Ottoman, Miss Mary Hayes, Miss Pearl Wardel, Sam Colton, C. M. Brewer, J. C. Boyle, Dr. E. R. Durno, Ben Trowbridge, S. Tuttle, Guy Conner, M. Morkland, Dr. Bert Lageson, B. F. Wynore, F. W. Chausse, Bob Ottoman, Mr. Sharp and A. S. Rosenbaum.

Circle Meeting At Mrs. Leclerc's

Priscilla Circle of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Harry Leclerc at 615 West Second street Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. All members are urged to attend.

Mesdames Oliver, Cool Present Papers, P-T. A.

An interesting meeting of the Junior High Parent-Teachers' association was held Friday afternoon. Mrs. Oliver and Mrs. W. G. Cool presented papers of much interest. A city P-T. A. council meeting was announced to be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Purdie on West Holly street Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 20. There will be the usual covered dish luncheon at one o'clock.

The membership ways and means and the welfare chairman made interesting reports.

The Junior High carnival will be held Friday evening, Nov. 23, it was announced.

The next regular meeting of the Junior High P-T. A., will be the second Friday afternoon in December, which is the 14th.

Mr. Warner Addresses Garden Club Meeting

The Garden club held its postponed meeting Thursday evening, with William J. Warner giving an interesting talk on gladiolus bulbs. He especially stressed the fact that trips, the insect which so recently made its appearance in Jackson county glad gardens, should not discourage planting of the bulbs.

With proper care, beautiful flowers can be produced and the pest in time eliminated. Mr. Warner was informed by inspectors that all flower gardens in the city will be given thorough inspection some time during the winter or early spring.

For the average glad grower, naphthalene flakes are a fine disinfectant, he said.

The club will plant vines along the buildings facing on Bear creek, across from the municipal playgrounds, it was announced.

L. L. Peabody had an interesting display of winter bouquets at the meeting.

Altar Society Plans Festival

The St. Ann's Altar Society is making plans for a harvest festival November 20 and 21, with a dinner and card party on Wednesday.

Miss Norris Visits In Eugene

Miss Helen Norris is spending a week in Eugene as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Van Loan, former local residents. Miss Norris made the trip north with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Norris, who continued to Portland to the Oregon-Oregon State football game.

be beautiful in comfort at
Adrienne's Salon of Beauty

Screen Stars endorse Frederic's method of Permanent Waving... They find it essential to have hair with natural-looking waves, soft and lustrous. Frederic's imitates nature's own method of producing curly hair.

Frederic's Waves.....$5.00
$3.75 and $7.50

Zotos Permanents.....$10.00

Alpha HODGKINS Rhea HOOVER

HAIR CUTTING—Women's and Children's—FRED FRY

Adrienne's Anniversary Sale Starts Tuesday

Don't miss the grand bargains in Dresses, Coats, Hats, Lingerie and Accessories!

Buy A Forget Me-Not MONDAY LAST DAY

HELP THE DISABLED VETERANS

K. D. ROSS Company

Pittsburgh Paint Products
Wall Paper
Window Glass

132 W. Main
Phone 640

Medford's Exclusive Paint and Wall Paper Store

Watches Diamonds Silverware

Quality Jewelry Honestly Priced

F. F. BURK

For Auto Tops and Canvas

Come in and see us in our new home

Medford Tent & Awning Works

314 EAST MAIN

GUS THE TAILOR SUITS TO ORDER

$25 to $45

120 N. Central

THE PINE CONE BAR-B-QUE

Dine, Dance, Romance
All Day—Most of the Night

Big 50c Turkey Dinner Every Sunday

Chicken, Steaks, Sandwiches
One of Medford's Best Eating Places

NORTH RIVERSIDE
Just past city limits

Phone 96 Office 20 S. Central

Unique Cleaners & Dyers

Courtesy - Quality - Service

The Party You've Waited For—The Legion

ARMISTICE DAY BALL

AT THE ORIENTAL GARDENS—MEDFORD

MONDAY NIGHT!

A Joyous Jamboree—Confetti
Serpentine—Noise Makers 'n' Everything

EVERYONE IS INVITED!

AUSPICES MEDFORD POST 15—American Legion

Aren't They Clear?

THE NEW GOTHAM GOLD STRIPE STOCKINGS

Free From Rings!
Free From Shadows!

Perfection on your legs!

BURELSON'S
MEDFORD BUILDING

LARRY SCHADE

The Finest Christmas Gift for a Man

Schick Dry Shaver

YOUR FAVORITE JEWELER SINCE 1918