Woodcraft Lodges Well Represented At Conclave Here

Chrysanthemum Circle No. 84, Neighbors of Woodcraft was host last Wednesday night to 108 members of Woodcraft. A large delegation from Grants Pass, Phoenix, Ashland and Klamath Falls was present, also Organizer Beatrice Shadoin and daughter, Miss Ted Shadoin, of Portland.

District officers, visiting guardian neighbors and all members were welcomed with the honors of the circle. Charter members present from Grants Pass were: Mesdames Dean and Stinebaugh; Phoenix, Mary O. Carey; Ashland, Mesdames L. A. Roberts and Martha Tice and Katherine Walt of the local circle. Each being presented respective circles, Phoenix officers and guards put on the opening ceremony.

After the business of the evening, Organizer Shadoin gave a short talk and complimented the officers and guards on the splendid way the work was performed.

Ashland circle put on the closing ceremony. After the close of the meeting, the Grants Pass drill team put on a military drill and Miss Davenport of Klamath Falls favored the group with several vocal selections.

Refreshments were then served, singing and speeches being given in the banquet room.

Wampus Baby Stars at Rialto

John Miljan, William Haynes and Judith Allen have three of the principal roles in "Young and Beautiful" playing today and Monday at the Rialto theater. The film also introduces the 1934 Wampus Baby Stars, given a running start on their way to success on the screen with this picture.

The story tells of the romance between a studio press agent and a Wampus Baby star. By exerting every high-powered stunt he knows, the publicity man pilots the girl to the very heights of movie stardom. The curious part of it, however, is that the girl would far rather be just a wife and mother rather than a picture star.

Benson Pupils In Dance Revue At Craterian Friday

A few of Eve Benson's talented pupils will appear in a short dance revue at Hunt's Craterian November 16, between evening shows. Dramatized Review At Mission Society

A very interesting and instructive program was given at the regular meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the Christian church on Wednesday afternoon.

A short prayer service was closed with a prayer song by Mrs. James Gribby, after which the president conducted the business period.

Mrs. Ralph Cook and Miss Genevieve Brown sang a sacred duet and Mrs. Archer gave a most impressive devotional service.

Mrs. Julia Gregory, group leader, made a splendid introductory speech on the Home Missions theme, Oriental Americans, and the following numbers were presented: "Where we have shared," a sketch of the work among Orientals through the year, Mrs. Hattie Saunders; "Churches sharing with Orientals," Mrs. C. M. Hon; "Meet My Friends," stories of Oriental Americans, Mrs. Ford; "Orientals in American Life," a dramatized review of Dr. Palmer's book, Mrs. Cora Wilson, Mrs. Ralph Cook, Mrs. James Gribby, Mrs. Carcen Pierce, Miss Dorothy Culy.

The society benediction closed the program and refreshments were served to 37 members, and three visitors.

Building Bridge Club To Meet at Kellehers Building Bridge club met at the home of Mrs. K. M. Moly for dessert and bridge Thursday afternoon, with six tables of contract and auction being in play. The next meeting is to be this Thursday with Misses Katherine and Anna Kelleher as hostesses at their home on South Oakdale avenue. Dessert will be served at 1:30 o'clock.

Arts and Crafts Class Changes Meeting Day Mrs. Lina Wright conducts the class in arts and craft on Wednesday night has announced that hereafter the class will be held on Thursday night of each week in the club house at 7:30.

The work presented consists of block printing, crayola tapestry making and other crafts that are of special interest in making of Christmas gifts, cards, etc.

Several business women have expressed their intention of joining this class. When one considers the pleasant meeting place, the expert instruction and the fact that these classes are free, one feels that married women, and girls are missing a pleasant and profitable experience in not joining this class.

Other classes in athletics and Bible study, are held during the week, of which announcements will be made later.

"Peck's Bad Boy" Opens New Show Year

One of the most popular stories ever written, or rather—series of stories—were those of "Peck's Bad Boy" at the Craterian theatre, starting today for three days. Jackie Cooper is shown in the role of young Billy Peck, with Thomas Melghan, Dorothy Peterson and O. P. Heggie in chief supporting roles, leading an array of stellar attractions booked for that theater for the forthcoming year.

"Peck's Bad Boy" is said to be delightful in its simplicity and humor. Laughter and tears are remixed together in this story of the youngster, whose boyhood is so filled with adventures. Made with an eye of direct appeal to adults—as well as children—it shows Jackie as the adopted son of Melghan. All goes well until the arrival of an aunt and her small son, Horace, who immediately set out to break up the relationship between Billy Peck and his "dad". The many little tragedies the boy suffers, along with the more hilarious complications that ensue, make the picture ideal for the inauguration of new attractions for the coming year.

It's a sparkling comedy-drama that gets under way in the first few scenes and maintains a rapid tempo to the exciting finish. The story deals with the struggle for happiness and success of a young man just out of prison, a girl who marries him because she believes in him, and the result of their union, an adorable baby girl, who is the pride and joy of their hearts.

After an exciting sequence of events, stolen gems are recovered, the culprit captured and Shirley is the heroine of the hour, with a goodly reward in prospect and the removal of all suspicion from her daddy.

China Is Subject At Post-Delphians

Members of the Post-Delphian Study club enjoyed a most interesting and instructive study of China during the Thursday morning meeting. "History of Old China" was given by Mrs. Myron Root and "Arts and Crafts of China" by Mrs. C. I. Drummond who brought a number of articles to illustrate her subject.

Mrs. H. W. Steeter gave the book review "River Supreme," a novel, the setting of which is the country and life along the Yangtze River of China. During the business meeting members were reminded that absence for three consecutive meetings without good excuse is equivalent to resignation.
