CARDS WIN PUTS THEM TO FORE AS COAST CHAMPIONS

Washington Team Unable To Halt Offense—Outplayed Save For Brief Grayson Star Of Game.

By HUSSELL J. NEWLAND (Associated Press Sports Writer)
STANFORD STADIUM, PALO ALTO, Calif., Nov. 10.—(AP)—Stanford's mighty football juggernaut thundered on toward the Pacific coast conference championship and rose bowl recognition, with a crushing 24 to 0 victory today over the previously unbeaten, untitled University of Washington Huskies before a crowd of 65,000 fans.

With smashing power that swept the game but sadly outclassed Huskies into defeat, Coach C. E. "Tiny" Thornhill's cardinal raiders retained their status of an unbeaten eleven and apparently clinched the right to represent the west for the second successive year in the annual New Year's day classic at Pasadena.

Only California remains on Stanford's conference schedule and on the basis of comparative scores throughout the season should not produce enough strength to check the championship drive of the Indians.

Except for one brief rally in the third period, the Huskies were outplayed, out-thought and completely at the mercy of goalward bent Cardinals.

Only once during the game did Stanford take to the air. It was a toss in the third period and fell incomplete. For the balance of a decidedly one-sided encounter, the Indians rolled up yardage on line smashes, most of them just inside or outside tackle.

The Husky line wilted under the rifling thrusts of the Stanford backs who enjoyed a field day in the matter of piling up yardage.

Bobby Grayson, Stanford's candidate for all American fullback honors, led the attack and defense that sent Washington tumbling to its first defeat of the season and the worst beating since California ran up a 31 to 0 count last year.

Two times Grayson intercepted passes and ran for touchdowns to refute in stunning fashion the report he was weak on pass defense. In the second period, he bobbed up to snatch Ahonen's toss and dodge back 35 yards for a touchdown shortly after "Monkey" Moscrip, left end, who also is making a bid for all-American laurels, had placed-kicked a field goal to give Stanford its first tally.

And on the last play of the game, with less than a minute to play, it was Grayson who came swinging in to grab the pass Ahonen had thrown in the hopes of at least saving his team from a blanking, and continuing on for forty five yards for another touchdown. The gun barked its game-ending message just as Moscrip had placed-kicked the extra point, his third of the day.

While Moscrip was unerring on the place kicks within easy distance, he failed on three other field goal attempts. Two were 34 yard tries and the other 23 yards.

Stanford's other touchdown was made by Right Halfback Hamilton who went over from the three yard mark after his right end, Topplin, had recovered a fumble by the Husky fullback, Sulzky, on Washington's nineteen yard line.

The purple and gold clad northerners made a fine score by hitting in the third quarter when they rolled up four first downs mainly through four completed passes for a total of sixty yards. The drive started on Washington's twenty yard line and reached Stanford's fourteen yard mark. The longest pass was good for 25 yards, Morrow, left end, leaping high in the air to make a thrilling catch of Ahonen's flip.

The first period was scoreless with Washington making the opening kickoff and immediately being forest into the defensive.

LONE TOUCHDOWN GIVES SONS WIN OVER CHICO STATE

By Harold Grove

After having their pet play called "no good," the SONS of Ashland scored a lone touchdown on a "break" late in the third quarter to win 6 to 0 over the strong Chico State college of Chico, California Saturday afternoon on the Ashland high school field before a large crowd of rapid dried-in-the-wool football fans.

On a touchdown play during the second quarter, that was later called back, Beach, SONS halfback, performed a bit of clever acting when he faked an injury completely befuddled the Chico team and allowing Cliff MacLean to pick the ball up and with the whole team as interference ran down the field 70 yards to a touchdown while three-fourths of the Chico team stood by watching. However, later on in the game the touchdown was declared void because of the fact that the field-judge along with the Chico coach declared that the referee had blown his whistle and motioned to the field judges for time-out and that the Chico waterboy was on the field and most of his players were drinking water when the SONS player picked up the ball. The referee stated that he did not remember calling time-out because he had been told at the beginning of the game that the SONS were going to pull that particular play but he didn't know when. The argument ensued over two periods of play including the second quarter, the rest period between halves and parts of the third quarter and finally ended through the good sportsmanship of Howard Hobson who stated that he didn't want the play.

The SONS held the lead on yards gained but fell behind when it came to passing. Although the SONS intercepted five Chico passes while Chico intercepted only two of the SONS.

"Chief" MacLean of the SONS was the ace ground gainer of the day with Bove, right halfback, for Chico close on his heels. In that column, Jenks didn't live up to the pre-game dope as being an ace-high passer for he got off some bad ones now and then.

Defense tactics were upmarket throughout the game, the SONS made an approximate 5 first downs with Chico making approximately half that amount.

The winning touchdown was scored in the third by a Normal player who grabbed a pass after it had been knocked in the air by Harold Howell, giant tackle, from the hands of Jenks, Chico State quarterback, and ran 12 yards to a touchdown. On an attempted line-back, Braddeck failed to score the extra-point.

Outstanding linemen for the SONS were Kelly, Mahoney and Howell.

The starting lineup:

Trojans TOPPLED BY CALIFORNIA IN CLOSE TUSSELE

MEMORIAL STADIUM, Los Angeles, Nov. 10.—(AP)—California defeated Southern California 7 to 2 before 65,000 spectators who saw the visitors win the game in the first half and staunchly defend it through the second.

The Golden Bears scored when the game was only a few minutes old and managed to fight off repeated efforts of the home guard to knot the count. The Trojans, time after time, drove goalward but each time the fighting Bears stopped them short of scoring territory. Once the boys from Troy took the ball less than a foot from the goal line, Southern California played its best game of the season but it was not good enough to keep the Bears from getting away to a flying start and break through their defenses, once they were out in front.

It was a great battle between two ill-fated teams. California chalked up its second Pacific coast conference victory while Southern California has yet to break into the win column of the conference.

Arleigh Williams played a great game for the winners in the first half and although he exhausted himself in his early efforts and he was not needed then, Williams scored for the visitors after a sparkling 29-yard run on a deceptive cutback play and he did most of the ground gaining of the day for his team.

Gene McAteer, a big substitute guard, did as much as any lineman to protect the lead acquired by his fellows. His impregnable goal line defense twice turned the Trojans back.

TIGERS SET FOR ARMISTICE GAME WITH CHEMAWANS

Finishing their war-dance Saturday morning with a final pow-wow, the Chemawa Indians of the United States Indian school of Salem are awaiting the time when they will entrain on the war-path in quest of scalps from the undefeated, untitled Medford high school Tigers.

The football is slated to start taking its beating at exactly 2 p. m.

Trikes from all over the county are represented in the Chemawa squad, Pat Gates, who plays left half, hails from Marysville, Wash., and is of the Samish tribe; Vergil Nicholls, who plays fullback hails from Chico, Calif., and is of the Ute tribe; Raymond Johnson, another halfback, comes from the Palouse tribe of Washington; Orel Albert St. Martin, quarter, comes from Carson, Wash., and is member of the Yakima tribe; Raymond Ward, a first string substitute, comes from La Push, Wash., and is a member of the Quilleutte tribe; Peter Berger, left guard, a member of the Chippewa tribe, hails from Dagnair, Mont.; Matt Adams, center, a member of the Sioux tribe, comes from Wolf Point, Mont.; Walter Bennett, right guard, of Hoquiam, Wash., is a member of the Clallam tribe; Louis Jamison, another right guard, is a member of the Flathead Indians and hails from Polson, Mont.; and a member of the Rogue River Indian tribe, Fred Hopfowitz, right end, belongs to the Yakima Indian tribe and from Yakima, Wash.; James Andrews, tackle, hails from Nez Perce tribe of Spalding, Idaho; Frank Poore, halfback, a member of the Shoshone Indians, hails from Fort Hall, Idaho; Willis Miller, halfback, another Palouse, resides in the town of Warmington, Ore.; Melvin La Course, end, is of the Coeurville tribe of Indians in the city of Okanogan, Wash.; Herman Seltice, guard, is a member of the Selkirk, Idaho, Indians; Isaac Vanderburg, end, is also a member of the Flathead Indians, but his home is in Arlee, Mont.; Lawrence Bennett, tackle, is a member of the Clallam tribe of Hoquiam, Wash.

A definite starting lineup has not been given to the press and will not be known until game time.

From this game, the winner will be given a definite status as to its strength with other teams in the state. If Medford wins, the Tigers will have had a definite standing with Hood River high school and Salem High school, who have both defeated the Indians and at the present time are planting their hooks firmly on the horns of a mythical Oregon state championship.

The Tigers, according to Coach D. K. Burger, are in excellent condition to do battle.

Whether or not the Indians possess a fancy stepping artist in the backfield, it is not known but in all probability Medford will have as much if Leo Ghelardi plays. Whether or not the Indians possess a boy with an educated toe such as Burdette Kindred, in the punting role, remains to be seen. Bill Bates, the Tiger's plunging fullback, will probably be in the lineup.

Betting on the game is about even with some giving the Tigers the edge and some giving the Indians the odds. One person placed a bet on the Indians, and giving 14 points.

A large crowd of enthusiastic fans is expected for the tilt. The Medford high school band will put on a stunt at the half time.

SPECIAL TURKEY DINNER Sunday and Monday at Amy's Place, Jacksonville. Tel 293.

COUGARS TROUNCE IDAHO 19 TO 0 IN BLANKET OF FOG

ROGERS FIELD, Pullman, Wash., Nov. 10.—(AP)—In a fog so thick the players were almost invisible from the pressbox, Washington State trounced its traditional football enemy, the University of Idaho, 19 to 0, here today.

W. S. C. scored on the first play after the kickoff, Ted Christoffersen, halfback, dashing 65 yards around left end for a touchdown. Roger Dougherty, fullback, added the point.

The Cougars scored a second touchdown within a few minutes and a third early in the second quarter. The last half of the game was a wild aerial warfare, incomplete passes burning all over the field and punts being run back for little gain.

Idaho's threat came in the last minutes of the closing quarter. Bob McCue passed to Clarence Anderson, sub end, for 35 yards, putting the ball on the W. S. C. 10-yard line. Elbert Inman's pass over the goal line was incomplete, and Boyce Marges, W. S. C. sub quarter, punned out of danger from the Cougar 20-yard line.

The Vandals took to the air in a determined effort to overtake their rivals, but few passes were completed.

Ed Goddard, scoring specialist for the Cougars, made the second touchdown for his side by popping through right tackle after he had made 15 yards through the line. Ed Dougherty and Charles McBride had made two and three. Dougherty's kick went wide.

The Cougars' third touchdown came on the third play in the second quarter. Ollie Arbelide, sub left half, bounced through right tackle after he had hit the line for seven yards. He failed to convert.

MEDFORD COURSE GAINS PUBLICITY IN COAST GOLFER

That Medford's golf activities have developed the Rogue Valley course into one of the golf centers of the coast is manifested in the October edition of the "Pacific Coast Golfer," magazine published monthly at Seattle by the Pictorial Publications, Inc., which carries a description of the highlights in the recent Southern Oregon-Northern California tournament, and photographs of the winners, Miss Anna Mae Fuson, and Ed Simponis.

The popularity of the local course, proved when a field of 123 players, including many noted up-state golfers, teed off in the opening rounds of the tournament, is made known further through golf circles of the coast, by the magazine's publicity.

Miss Fuson, who regained the title of women's champion in the tourney, is pictured in a driving stance, as is Simponis, who came from the ranks of the cadets to defeat Titleholder Hank Frigie in a brilliant match.

The description of the tourney, in part, follows:

"Major honors in the annual southern Oregon and northern California men's and women's amateur tournament at the Rogue Valley golf course, Chandler

Egan's home course in Medford, were won by Eddie Simmons and Anna Mae Fuson, both of Medford.

"The driving contest was won by Bob Maenta, Stanford University football star. What was the length of his winning drive? A mere poke of 364 yards! Some yardage, Bob."

"This tournament was organized by Don S. Clark, prominent Medford linksman, and Professional Jack Hueston, of the entertaining club, who won the Pacific Northwest Open championship six years ago."

ARMISTICE DAY
HE LIES in final peace, who fought the battle of all nations. In sacred beauty stands his tomb, and each year countless thousands pay it reverence with bowed head. A famous general places a wreath of laurel at its side. A diplomat utters inspirational phrases to commemorate another Armistice Day. And still he lies in peaceful slumber, embraced by eternity. For what are wreaths, and what are phrases... without peace? When we assure our Unknown Soldier of peace everlasting, then are we paying him the tribute which was worth life itself.
