"MOST PRECIOUS THING IN LIFE" AT ROXY

What is the "most precious thing in life?" Youth? Love? Memories? Success? The answer to this universal enigma is dramatically presented in "Most Precious Thing in Life," which is now playing at the Roxy theatre. Jean Arthur, Donald Cook and Richard Cromwell head the cast. As interpreted by its author, Travis Ingham, whose original story was published serially in McClure's under the title "Biddy," "the most precious thing in life" is an all-consuming love. A love that laughs through its tears and sparkles with the heady wine of youth.

Receives Care—Mrs. Fred Ryan of 612 West Fourth street is receiving medical care at the Sacred Heart hospital, as is Edith Bohl of Trail.

"Bet You 65 Cents That Broncholine Stops Your Cough"

So says Jarmin's Drug Store and every druggist in the country. One dose will give you immediate, unmistakable relief. A few doses may stop your cough entirely. A half bottle will chase it for good or the druggist will refund the 65c you paid for it. No dope. No sweet stuff. Won't make you a drug addict, nor upset your stomach. But it will STOP YOUR COUGH. What do you bet?
